INTERFRAT BASKET BALL SCHEDULE IS DRAWN UP

Each Team Will Practice Daily—
Real Games Scheduled for
After the Holidays

The schedule of practice hours for the inter-frat and inter-club basketball teams has been completed and is now posted in the gym. Each team will practice nearly every day until December 15. Immediately after holidays the contest for the cup will begin. Then the dates of the schedule given below will simply be changed and the teams will play in the same order as they have practiced. The cup will be awarded to the team making the highest percentage. First team players will be allowed to play in any position on the club team that they wish to, regardless of their position on the Varsity squad. Practice started off yesterday with a dash and the contest for the cup promises to be keen. Spectators are not excluded from practice as thought by some. The practice hours are as follows:

Tuesday 3:30 to 4, Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Nu; 4 to 4:30, A. T. O., Sigma Chi; 4:30 to 5, Beavers, Kappa Sigma; 5 to 5:30, Acacia, Avava.

ORATORICAL TRYOUT IS POSTPONED TO DEC. 16

The preliminary tryout for the Inter-collegiate Oratorical contest, which was scheduled for December 3, has been postponed to the last Friday before the Christmas holidays. All men who intend to enter the tryout are requested to hand their names to the manager before Tuesday, December 6.

Five or six men will be chosen at the tryout for the final contest in January when the intercollegiate orator will be selected. The orations are limited to fifteen hundred words and must be de-

Yell Leader Robison and his assistants submit the above report of the rally expenditures for the past season. They express themselves as highly pleased with the manner in which the business men came to the support of the University in contributing funds. The season's success is doubtless due to their cash assistance.

FOOTBALL MEN SEE "THE KISSING GIRL"

The Oregon football team was tendered a box party on Thanksgiving night by the management of the new Heilig theater. The attraction was "The Kissing Girl." The team was loudly cheered, when it came in, by the Portland audience. The chorus came out in a pretty dance, adorned in pennants of green and lemon yellow, which won the applause of the Oregon contingent. In the song "The Band of Gold," the "Kissing Girl" flashed the light on Dean Walker, who proved very bashful and tried hard to avoid it, but she was persistent and forced him to sit in the lime light during the whole time of the song.
