DR. W. B. HINSON IS BEST OF PORTLAND SPEAKERS

He Will Address Y. M. C. A. Meeting Next Friday Evening

Dr. W. B. Hinson, without a doubt Portland's foremost platform speaker, and recognized as one of the strongest orators in the United States, has been secured to speak at the men's meeting on Friday evening. The committee in charge of these meetings has made frequent efforts throughout the year to get Dr. Hinson, but because of his many other engagements, it has been impossible to arrange a date with him. The Oratorical Contest, coming on the same evening, at which he will act as judge, has made it possible to secure him for this meeting, which will immediately precede the contest.

Dr. Hinson is the minister at the White Temple, of Portland, and it is said that he speaks every Sunday evening to fifteen hundred people.

At the Y. M. C. A. Conference at the beach last spring, Dr. Hinson was the chief speaker, and those who heard him then have been very anxious to get him here this year.

Estee Brosius, whose singing received such favorable comment at the concert a week ago, will sing at this meeting.

In order not to interfere with the contest, which comes at 8:00, this meeting will begin promptly at 7:00 and close promptly at 7:50, which will give plenty of time for those who wish to attend both, to do so.

The nominations for the officers of the Y. M. C. A. for next year, which were recently made by the nominating committee, will be announced at this meeting.

OREGON CLUB IS NAME OF NEW ORGANIZATION

Will Enter all Student Activities and Boost for the University

"Oregon Club" was the name chosen Tuesday evening for the new organization composed of students living outside of the fraternities and dormitories. The club has a present membership of about eighty, but as there are many who have as yet been unable to attend meetings, copies of the constitution will be given to Birdie Wise and Percy Collier, who will sign up any others who desire to enter as charter members.

As an organization, the Oregon Club is planning on taking an active part in all students activities, including the Doughnut Baseball League and the canoe carnival.

The executive committee has selected the following committees: Athletic, Morris Starbuck, Byron Goodall, John Kelly. Social, Edward Davis, J. H. Keezel, Esther U'Ren, June Gray, Gertrude Denhart. U'Ren, Will St. John, Jessie Calkins. Canoe Carnival, Chas Koyle, Franklin Aller, Madge Hamble, Janet Young, Winifred Kelly.

VISITING DELEGATES TO BE TREATED ROYALLY

All the delegates to the Inter-Collegiate Oratorical Association will arrive in Eugene on the 2:00 o'clock train Friday afternoon.

They will be met at the depot by a committee appointed for the purpose, and escorted to the fraternity and sorority houses where they will be entertained.

At 2:30 P. M., the Executive Committee of the Association, composed of one member from each college, will meet; and at 3:30 the regular business meeting of the Association will be held. This meeting is attended by eight delegates from each school.

At 8:00 o'clock the annual contest in oratory is held, and at eleven o'clock the delegates and their friends assemble at the Hotel Osburn for a midnight banquet. Toasts will be responded to by representatives from all the colleges. Professor Glen will act as toastmaster.

MAN ON THE BOX HERE NEXT TUESDAY

Genuine and wholesome comedy such as has been seldom offered since the days of the Augustin Daly companies will be the vogue at the Eugene Theater on Tuesday, March 14, when the most conspicuous comedy success of the last twenty years in New York City, "The Man On the Box," dramatized by Grace Livingston Furniss from Harold McGrath's successful book of the same name will be presented.

The story of the play is founded on a joke, and is full of genuine comedy and heart interest. It relates that Lieutenant Worburton has seen a young lady on the steamer while returning from Europe, who has won his heart, but to whom he was unable to be introduced. At home in Washington, his sister urges him to accompany her to the embassy ball, but he declines. He conceives the idea for a practical joke on his sister, and arranges with the family coachman to take his place on the return from the function, with the intention of driving at a reckless speed, making his sister believe that the horses are running away, and then finally dropping them and lifting his sister out of the carriage, and while in the coachman's livery implanting a hearty kiss upon her cheek. He carries the program until the car-fice cell for the night, with the charges the proper number and delivers the kiss as he had planned, before he realizes the mistake. The consequence is a police call for the night, with the charges of reckless driving and abduction to face in the morning. With this foundation a capital comedy has been written that is worth going miles to see.

Invitations have been issued for a formal card party at the Tri Delt house March 17.
