WRITTEN CONSTITUTION WORTHY OF PROFOUND STATESMEN

DOUGHNUT "FATHERS" EVOLVE DOCUMENT

By-Laws Also Drawn Up to Aid In Solomon-Like Discussions Affecting Inter-Frat Spats

Following is the permanent constitution and by-laws governing this year's Doughnut League games between the various fraternities and clubs:

PREAMBLE

We, the following named fraternities and clubs, in order to provide an organization for the government of inter-fraternity baseball, do establish the following Constitution and By-Laws:

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the "Doughnut League."

ARTICLE II.

Section 1. The "Doughnut League" shall be composed of the following named fraternities and clubs: Sigma Nu, Kappa Sigma, Dormitory Club, Acacia, Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Chi, Alpha Tau Omega, Beaver Club, Avava Club, Delta Sigma, Tawah Club.

Sec. 2. New members may be admitted to this league as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The government of this League shall be vested in a board of directors, composed of one delegate from each fraternity and club.

Sec. 2. Said delegates of each fraternity and club are to be duly elected by their respective fraternities and clubs to serve during the entire baseball season. Should any vacancy occur in the representation of any fraternity or club, the same shall be filled by that fraternity or club.

Sec. 3. Any fraternity or club other than the above named may be admitted to the Doughnut League upon application and election, a two-thirds (2-3) vote being necessary for election.

ARTICLE IV.

Section 1. The officers of this organization shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, and Governing Board, all of whom shall be chosen from the Board of Directors of the Doughnut League.

Sec. 2. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and shall have power to call special meetings at the request of three members. He shall perform the usual duties pertaining to the office.

Sec. 3. The Vice President shall perform the duties of the President in the absence of that officer.

Sec. 4. The Secretary-Treasurer shall keep the records of all proceedings. He shall take charge of all funds that may accrue. He shall also keep on file all data of league games, including schedule, score, percentage table, batting averages and fielding averages of teams.

Sec. 5. The Governing Board of the Board of Directors shall consist of the President, Vice President and Secretary-Treasurer. The President shall act as chairman of this board.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the Governing Board to arrange all matters of detail pertaining to the execution of the work of the league; to require the members of this organization to comply with the Constitution and By-Laws; to bring all questions before the league

SPECIAL MEETING OF DOUGHNUT DIRECTORS President Verner Gillis, of the Doughnut League, announces a special meeting of the board of directors Sunday at 9:30 in the Emerald office. The meeting is called to consider the application for membership in the league of the newly organized Oregon Club, composed of those not in other clubs or fraternities.

$600--THEN BUNGALOW

$1,500 Already Raised--Y. W. C. A. Will Build When $2,100 Is Raised

The Y. W. C. A. Bungalow fund, which is to be raised completely, or within $200 or $300 of the amount necessary before the contracts are let, has already reached the $1,500 mark. This money is at present out at interest.

Since the plans for the house have been drawn up and bids have been received from the various contractors, the committee has found that $2,300 will cover the entire expenses of the bungalow when finished. There remains, then, a deficiency of $500 or $600 which must be raised before the work of construction can begin, since the women of the Y. W. C. A. do not deem it advisable to try to pay a heavy interest along with their running expenses. To raise this sum still needed, a regular committee is now canvassing Portland and a similar work will soon be started in Eugene. Thus the date upon which the actual building of the bungalow will begin depends largely upon the success of these subscription committees.

$550 IS IMPOSING TOTAL

Varsity Exchequer Badly Needs Some Bracing Spring Tonic

At this time, the year's budget can be approximated fairly closely. While the college's financial status is nothing to be enthusiastic over, neither is it in an exceptionally bad way.

Because of a poor schedule, which brought no teams of importance to Eugene, football went in the "hole." The Glee Club made a few hundred dollars, which will about balance the deficit in football. Basketball has about $21 to the good. Oratory and debate will probably go behind a little. Track is doubtful and may make or lose a small amount. Baseball will probably go behind. The Oregon Monthly and the Emerald will pay all bills, but will not be likely to put much cash into the treasury.

A debt of $717 was carried over from last year and had to be paid before an apportionment could be made at the beginning of this year. Notwithstanding this, the treasury now has on hand $423.95, to which will be added about $125 from student body fees paid in at the beginning of the second semester, making a total of approximately $550.

Naturally this fund will not allow of an elaborate policy in frenzied finance, but will permit the college to close the year with better than usual balance.

To advertise the University, all members of the freshmen rhetoric classes at Kansas are required to write articles concerning the institution to the home newspapers.

HOLD ANNUAL INDOOR MEET NEXT WEDNESDAY

OBSTACLE RACE PROMISES MANY SPECTACULAR FEATURES

WRESTLING BOUTS TO BE INTERESTING

Indoor Meet Will Be Replete With Other Spectacular Events

The indoor meet, which will be pulled off on Wednesday night instead of on Tuesday as advertised, promises to present some novel sensations. The obstacle race will be run for the first time at Oregon. This is an entirely new feature, and there is consequently no advance information upon the subject, and it is impossible to forecast the winner. The course of the race has not been selected, but it will be in plain view of all of the spectators. There will be hurdles to jump, barrels to crawl through and ropes to climb. Sacks of the latest hobble skirt design will also be worn during part of the race. The barrels will be of assorted sizes from nail kegs for "Slim" Bailey to sugar hogsheads for "Fat" Wentworth.

There is no limit to the number of entries and no disbarments on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude.

On account of the postponement of the date, all of the entries will not be in by press time and the Emerald will not publish the partial list. One event, however, promises to be of more than usual interest. Kelly and George, the Greek "Shinola artist," will grapple in the 125 pound class. Kelly is well known as the Varsity wrestling instructor, but the Greek is as yet an unknown quantity. He learned the game in his native land, where every man is more or less of a "grabber," and has followed it up since coming to this country. He has appeared in several preliminaries at the local theater, but as yet has never been called upon to extend himself. He will have a chance, however, in this bout to put up the best he has, for Kelly has the proverbial Irish antipathy for all members of the Slavic race.

The meet will be called at 8:00 o'clock sharp on Wednesday night. Manager Harbour has arranged for tickets to be on sale at Linn's Drug Store at popular prices; 25 cents general admission.

VARSITY GETS MIDWAY

Squad Will Practice on Campus Field--Varsity Games at Midway Park

The Varsity baseball team will practice on the field back of the library, and the regular conference games will take place at midway park. This was the plan followed last year, and is thought to be the best arrangement that can be made under present circumstances. The Doughnut league teams will be privileged to practice on the campus diamond only when it is not occupied by the Varsity squad.

The league schedule has been arranged so that its games will not interfere to any extent with the squad practice. Coach Lynch is expected Monday, and active practice will commence during the coming week.

TRAINER BILL HAYWARD SELECTS ALL NORTHWEST Jamison, U. O., forward. Olsen, U. W., forward. Fenton, U. O., center. Clemensen, U. W., guard. Simms, U. O., guard.

Seventy-five men have already turned out for baseball practice at the University of Illinois.

OREGON U GIVEN THREE

Trainer Hayward Asked to Select All Northwest Team For Guide

Trainer Hayward this morning received a letter from W. H. Fisher, editor of Spalding's Basketball Guide, asking for a photo of the Oregon quintet, and also asking "Bill" to select the official All-Northwest team, and it will be published in the Spalding Guide for 1912. "Bill" considers any extended explanation of his choice unnecessary, but states that the particular advantage from placing Simms, aside from his general ability, is that the Oregon man is of an entirely different type than Olson, the Washington guard, and thus Bill believes the two would work together unusually well.

Ten different kinds of open air sports are in progress at the University of Wisconsin at present. Ice skating, football, track, golf, tennis and baseball are all carried on at the same time. Several class skating tournaments have been pulled off, while at the same time the track, cross country and baseball men are working out on the campus.

Esther Carson went to Salem for a week end visit.

1912 AGAIN VICTORIOUS

Defeats Sophomores, As Does Also Freshman Co-Ed Team

Table with 3 columns: Won, Lost, Pct. Seniors: 0, 0, .000. Juniors: 1, 1, .500. Sophomores: 0, 2, .000. Freshmen: 2, 0, 1000.

The Juniors defeated the Sophomores Wednesday by a score of 9-6. Both teams had scored six points when time was called, and therefore five minutes extra time was added, during which the Juniors scored one foul and one basket. Much interest and enthusiasm was aroused by the rival bunches of "rooters," who counted the score, gave impromptu yells with much vim, and even serpentine between halves. The Sophomore rooters were led by Faye Ball and the Juniors by Mildred Bagley.

The lineups were: Sophomore--Bess Morrison, Lillian Gilkey, Mildred Waite forwards; Carin Degermark, Edith Watt, centers; Grace Tiffany, Bess Lewis, guards. Juniors--Ruth Gibson, Jennie Fry, Erma Clifford, Nellie Banfield, forwards; Emma Waterman (c), Neta Bartlett, centers; Jean Allison, Ruth Gibson, Erma Clifford, guards.

Friday afternoon the Freshman team, cheered on by an enthusiastic crowd of Freshman girls, defeated the Sophomore girls 24-4. The Sophomores fought hard but discouraged by lack of support from their class, went down before the superior team work of the Freshmen.

CARLETON SPENCER, '13 WINS STATE ORATORICAL

DEFEATS REPRESENTATIVES FROM SIX OREGON COLLEGES

"RUST ON OUR LEGAL MACHINERY" TITLE

C. H. Woody, of McMinnville, and Miss Rickard, of O. A. C. Secure 2nd and 3rd

Carlton Spencer, '13, won last night's oratorical contest, hands down, defeating the representatives of the six other Oregon colleges.

Spencer's oration, "The Rust on Our Legal Machinery," was a masterly example of the forensic art, and while appealing and convincing, was clear and logical enough to leave a definite impression on the minds of the audience of the cause he was advocating. He secured a rating of 13 1-2 points, being awarded three seconds, on delivery, which was better than any other contestant did in this department.

His closest competitor, Carroll H. Woody, of McMinnville, the Rhodes scholar-elect, received a grade of 15 and Vena Rickard, of O. A. C., was marked 19.

Harry G. McCain, of Willamette, gave the opening oration, "Liberty, Law and Present Day Problems." Though somewhat abstract, his oration was exceptionally well delivered, and many thought that his position in the order of speaking prevented his effort from being better appreciated. "The Ministry of Poetry," by Claude Newlin, of Pacific College, followed. The Varsity Glee Club then appeared with three Oregon songs, and after an encore gave way to Carlton Spencer. Though favored by a home crowd, Spencer entered into his subject with spirit and the remark was frequently heard that he had never done so well before.

Grover C. Birchett, of Albany, came next with "National Conservation," in which he pleaded for amelioration of economic conditions so as to conserve human lives as well as natural resources. Miss Nell Murphy and Miss Alberta Campbell rendered Saint Saens Dance Micabre.

C. E. Ward, of Pacific University, delivered "Optimism and Opportunity," and the program was concluded by a strong oration by the O. A. C. representative, Miss Vena Rickard, "Our Duty Toward the Theater." In this she advocated the raising of the tone of the stage to make it a distinctly educational force. While the judges were deliberating, the Glee appeared again.

Variety and spice were injected into the evening's program by the different college yells, strenuously rendered by the various delegations.

The judges were: Judges on composition--Professor T. C. Trueblood, University of Michigan; Professor E. D. Shurter, University of Texas; President S. B. Penrose, Whitman College. On delivery--Rev. W. B. Hinson, Portland; B. Lee Paget, Portland; Alfred C. Schmidt, Albany.

I desire to thank all the fraternities and sororities who so generously opened their homes to the visiting delegates and aided so materially in entertaining them. Thanks, also, to all others who helped make the contest a success. W. M. HUNTINGTON.
