HELD IN WASHINGTON YOU'RE WRONG AS USUAL

DAILY MAKES ANOTHER INCORRECT AND GRA- TUITOUS ATTACK

NORTHERNERS FILING FOR TIED TALK

Editorial "Who Is Bill Hayward?" Will be Satisfactorily Answered this Track Season

The following is the leading editorial in the University of Washington Daily on March 22nd, and is a fair example of what our northern neighbors are doing to promote intercollegiate amity and foster conference relations:

Hayward's Personally Conducted Meet
Who is Bill Hayward? Who is he to call an inter-collegiate meet at Portland, without the consent of all the institutions in the conference? Who is he to determine the track championship of the season, irrespective of the triangular and all-conference meet?

Mr. Hayward is entitled to all the prerogatives due a physical trainer; but to no more. As arbiter of the athletic destinies of the Northwest he is sad indeed. In attempting to dictate just how the track championship is to be decided, he has certainly undertaken an impossibility.

It would be foolish for Washington to consider Mr. Hayward's little round-up in Portland this spring. In the first place, Washington's track schedule is overloaded already; in the second place, Idaho and Oregon will be met on the track field at Eugene in another meet, and the addition of Whitman and Pullman can have no advantage as neither institution looms dangerously on the track horizon; and in the third place the meet is unofficial.

If Mr. Hayward assumes that he can call together three or four institutions of the conference, hold a meet, and thereby determine the conference track championship, he is mistaken.

Oregon's athletic trainer has many wiles. One more meet on the Washington schedule would please him mightily, realizing as he does its already overloaded condition; but he will find that he can neither entice nor drive the Washington athletes into the plan.

The only line for Washington to follow is to adhere to its original track schedule; let Mr. Hayward and his conference meet alone; and finally trounce Oregon so convincingly in the triangular that there will be no more noise left in the redoubtable Mr. Hayward.

When the attention of Bill Hayward was called to the above article this morning, he said: "That piece was written by someone who didn't know what I was talking about; for had he he would have consulted the minutes of the last conference he would have discovered that the call for the conference track meet is official. I can not understand why they continue to rap me, unless they hope to finally discredit me, and gain by ousting me from Northwest athletics. Such incorrect and childish attacks as this one, however, defeat their own purpose. It is time they cut out this kid talk."

The minutes of the last conference show that a conference meet was decided upon for Portland, June 3rd. Bill Hayward was appointed chairman of the committee on arrangements. The other members were Zednick, of Washington, and Larsen, of Idaho. It was, however, impossible to secure Multnomah Field on that date, and May 27th was the only one available. Hayward commu-

DORMITORY TO RECEIVE LARGE STOCK OF MUSIC

The Dorn Club will presently possess one of the best stock libraries of choice pianola music in the valley.

The opportunity comes with the moving of the place of business of the Eilers Piano Co. Rather than to handle the 10,000 rolls of pianola music, they are offering them to the public at a considerable reduction in price.

The Dorn Club will add about 150 rolls more. The selection of music is in the hands of a committee composed of Miss Rowland, Miss Morgan, Miss Stinson, R. Burns Powell and Bert Prescott.

JUNIORS TO CONTEST

Seven Hand in Subjects for Junior Week End Event

Seven Juniors who are to try for representation in the annual Junior Oratoricals held during Junior Week End have handed in their subjects to Registrar Tiffany.

Each year it has been the custom to select several Juniors from the Public Speaking department to represent the class in an oratorical program held the Friday evening of Junior Week End. In the contest itself no prizes are awarded or places given, but it usually considered an honor to be a representative. The time for handing in names for the tryout expired last week. Those entering into the contest and their subjects are as follows:

1. Miss Alma Payton, "The Solid South."
2. Mr. W. E. St. John, "The Abuse of the Injunction."
3. Mr. Ralph Moores, "The Spirit of the Oregon Pioneer."
4. Miss Grace Adams, "Lynching."
5. Miss Hazel Wightman, "Country Life."
6. Miss Birdie Wise, "The Laborer and the Constitution."
7. Mr. L. L. Ray, "Conservation of Resources."

PREXY YADEN WINS CUP

Defeats Bedford in First Match of Handicap Three Out of Four

"Prexy" Vincent Yaden won the tennis championship of the Freshman class, Monday, by defeating "Frosh" Bedford in three out of four sets.

This tournament was started last fall and its final decision has been delayed by bad weather this spring. Its object was to arouse the interest of the Freshmen in tennis and to reveal any future Varsity stars.

In this it has been successful; the Freshman class is taking a keen interest in tennis and the tournament has shown up a number of promising players.

Salem Club Meets Tuesday

The newly organized University Sigma Club will meet at the Kappa Sigma house Tuesday evening at 6:45. A full attendance is desired, as officers are to be elected and important business will be transacted.

Communicated this to all the other members of the conference, and all except Washington acquiesced. Washington, however, has not deigned to answer, and all that has been heard from them has been through hysterical press stories such as the above.

WASHINGTON WILL SEND STRONG DEBATING TEAM

NORTHERN MEN HAVE HAD MUCH EXPERIENCE IN FORENSICS

WILL ARRIVE IN EUGENE WEDNESDAY

Raymond Clifford and Glenn Hoover to Represent Washington in Word Fest

The annual inter-state debate between Washington and Oregon will be the culminating event of next week. Another Northwest championship is at stake and the contest between the two universities promises to be close and interesting.

Oregon's forensic giants, Resting and Zimmerman, are already in fighting trim. They have been working on the debate since January, and the fluency and effectiveness which they are showing in daily practice is surprising.

Washington will send her two strongest debaters to Eugene. They are described by Graduate Manager Victor Zednick in a letter to Manager Huntington as follows:

"Glenn Hoover has been a member of two collegiate debating teams heretofore, meeting Oregon last year and also the year previous. He has also represented the University of Washington as orator in the tri-state Oregon-Washington-Montana oratorical contest, winning the event. He was a member of the inter-collegiate wrestling team, weight 125 pounds, that met Washington State College last year, and this year is captain of the wrestling team meeting O. A. C. and W. S. C. Last year he enjoyed the unique distinction of winning three emblems in one year—the debate, oratory and wrestling W's. He is a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity.

Who Will Debate Against Washington Next Friday

"Raymond W. Clifford has had one year's inter-collegiate experience, being a member of the team against Idaho last year. He is a graduate of Tacoma High School and a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity."

The men will arrive in Eugene next Wednesday or Thursday and will visit the chapter houses of their fraternities here.

The Freshman Girls' Choral Club, whose work was such a decided success at assembly last Wednesday, will render a selection at the debate.

OREGON CLUB TO MEET IN WOMEN'S GYM APR. 1

The Oregon Club will make its entrance into the social life of the University by giving an acquaintance party in the Women's Gymnasium Saturday evening, April the first. This is the first opportunity the members have had for getting together in a social way, and the entertainment committee are planning to make it an occasion that will be long remembered.

There will be a special meeting of the club in Deady Hall Monday at four. As this is an important meeting, every member is requested to be present.

CO-EDS DANCE IN OPERA

Beauty and Musical Ability Win Co-eds Places in Princess Chrysanthemum

More co-eds have been selected to appear in Princess Chrysanthemum, selected for their attractiveness, as well as for their musical qualities, so Miss Rowland says. Florence Cleveland has been made honor maid to the Princess and leader of the Umbrella Girls in their dance. Olga Tolson will sing the part of Prince So-True. Parties will be made out of Maybelle Larsen, Edwina Prosser, Nita Goldsmith, Effie Rhodes, Ruby Hammerstrom, Maude Mastick and Miss Guthrie.

The girls who will flit in the Umbrella Dance are Janet Young, Edna Miller, Alma Payton, Blanche Powell, Ethel Weatherston, Ruth Hardie and Madeline Risley, Jean Allison, Vivian Simms, Lucile McQuinn, Florence Avery, Hazel Hill.

Dr. Stuart has held two rehearsals with the dancers, and predicts great success to them. Saturday the whole chorus will meet at the Gamma Phi Beta house and make paper flowers, which will be used in the Japanese settings.

Miss Eve Stinson spent two days of this week in Portland arranging for the renting of appropriate costumes.

IRISHMEN TO ORGANIZE

Club Will be Purely Social— To Celebrate Irish Festivals

Yet another club is to be added to Oregon's already long and varied list. This will be the "Irish Club," which will have a membership composed of all Oregon students claiming the Emerald Isle as their fatherland. It will be purely social in character and will celebrate all Irish festivals in the approved fashion, a real Irish wake taking a prominent place on the program.

Fen Waite, Mason Roberts and "Pat" Murphy are the promoters of the scheme and they will call a meeting soon to elect officers and perfect the organization. Among those eligible for membership are Jane Knox, Anna McMicken, Edith Sheehy, Nancy Noon, Nell Hemenway, Marjorie Cowan, Grace Bean, Hawley Bean, Harold Broughton, Tom Burke, Nell Murphey, "Red" O'Leary, John Kestley, John Kelly, Kate Kelly, Brick Michael, Hellen Beach, Ruth Beach, Charley Koyl, Zella Souths, "Sea Gull" Chandler, Mildred Waite, Cass Kennedy. Dr. Timothy Cloran and Dr. Barnert will probably be made honorary members.

The date of the inter-state oratorical contest has been definitely fixed for May 26. The contest will be held in Seattle, and the Universities of Montana, Washington and Oregon will be represented.

SEASON TICKETS WILL BE ON SALE NEXT WEEK

BOOKS TO ADMIT ONLY TO CONFERENCE GAMES

SIX GAMES TO BE SEEN FOR $1.25

Team May Play Games With Multnomah and With Neighboring Towns

Manager Jack Luckey, of the baseball team, is working busily completing the baseball schedule for this season. The first game scheduled so far is to be played with Whitman College on April 12, followed by another contest the next day. W. S. C. will be here on May 3 and 4, and Idaho will play the last games of the conference here on May 10 and 11.

Outside of these conference games, Manager Luckey is arranging for a set of games with Multnomah, two to be played in Portland on the northern trip, and two to be played in Eugene on April 28 and 29. There will probably be additional games with some of the neighboring towns, and with the local city team.

To open up the season, the management plans to have an auto parade, and some prominent University or city personage will be asked to pitch the first ball.

The regular season baseball ticket, as put out last year, will be on sale next week. The price will be $1.25, and will admit only to conference games. This is a rate of about twenty cents per game. The regular rate will be thirty-five cents per game.

NEW METHOD MAKES FAT BAILEY RUN LIKE DEER

With characteristic ingenuity, originated a novel and effective system of instilling into his charges the principles of quick starting. So far the plan has worked admirably, and some of the speed marvels who have been experiencing difficulties about "freezing" at the mark are improving wonderfully.

"Fat" Bailey, whom Bill has lately been putting through his paces in the sprints, is the latest subject, or perhaps it would be better to say victim, of the new method. Yesterday Ed persisted in "freezing at the scratch" in such a way as to make Bill almost doubt his usual infallible judgment, which had picked him for a sprinter.

Finding that his execrations were all to no avail, Bill surreptitiously loaded his starter's gun with a paper wad. "On the mark," said Bill as Ed ambled in place. "Get set," and Ed crouched for the start. Bill aimed the gun square at the sprinter's ample posterior and fired. Though the principles were extremely reticent about being interviewed, spectators say that the results were instantaneous and extraordinary. Ed started as he had never started before, and tore off a good fifty yards in record time before he trusted himself to look around with as near to a peevish expression as his infallible good nature and excellent disposition would ever permit.

There will be a meeting of the Senior class next Monday at 4:00 P. M. in Villard Hall, for the purpose of electing a manager for the Senior Class Play. All Seniors are urgently requested to attend.
