DR. F. N. GEFELBRACHT SPEAKS TO Y. M. C. A.

Dr. F. N. Geselbracht, of Albany, spoke last night at the weekly men's meeting of the Y. M. C. A. on the theme, "The Religion of the Bible as the complete answer to the desire of men for religion." He showed how superior the condition of the Jews before the coming of Christ was to that of all other nations and races. How the morality and ethical conceptions of this race were centuries in advance of other nations and other philosophies. He also showed by a quick comparison of the Christian religion with the four great religions of the Orient--Buddhism, Hinduism, Christianity and Islam--how Christianity develops and encourages the highest in civilization, while these other faiths, although they have had centuries to do it, have failed entirely in bringing a race or satisfying an individual.
