MUCH HIGH SOCIETY IN EVIDENCE AT WEEK END

Gamma Delta Gamma Gives Formal Reception—Acacia, Avava and Tawahs Dance

Last week end was a pleasant round of social activity, being the occasion of several house dances among the different fraternities and societies.

The large affair of the week end was the Gamma Delta Gamma open house on Friday evening. The girls were royal hostesses and made a good time for all their guests. Evergreens were the decoration scheme, and the cleverly concealed orchestra was a feature. In the receiving line were Miss Stinson, Miss Cutler, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Pennell and Mrs. Wilcox, of Portland. About twenty couples enjoyed dancing after the reception, and had a splendid time till a late hour.

The Acacias gave a house dance on Friday evening to music furnished by Hendershott's orchestra. Mrs. Dunn and Mrs. Straub were patronesses.

On Saturday evening the Tawah Club and the Avava men each had a dance. Mrs. McAdams, Mrs. Dobie and Mrs. Moxley were patronesses for the Avavas, while Mr. and Mrs. McClain did honors for the Tawahs. Hendershott and his cohorts furnished music.

SPIRITED TRYOUT BRINGS OUT GOOD MATERIAL

In the first regular tryout meet this season, Bill Hayward's track aspirants performed in creditable style, on Kincaid Field, last Saturday afternoon. A number of new men showed up in good form and bid fair to become valuable acquisitions to Oregon's track team. Hal Bean won the 100 and 220-yard dashes over Kay, Johns, Hawkins and Briedwell; time 10 2-5 seconds. Bradshaw, a Freshman who promises big things in the middle distance races, won the 440 in good style. Grout, another "Frosh," took first in the shot put over Kellogg, with a heave of 36 feet 7 inches. Stellar and Service showed up well in the high jump, defeating Sprinwater Johnson. McConnell, Miller and Huggins ran good races in the half mile. Bill Fizer won the pole vault without being crowded to his limit. Hawkins, running strong, captured the hurdle events, with Sap Latourette tearing up the turf for second places. Ed Bailey playfully tossed the hammer out of the enclosure, for first honors. McClure stepped off the mile in 4:50. Bill Neil hurled the javelin fifty-odd yards.
