OREGON AGAIN WINS TRI-STATE

MANAGER STINE TURNS IN $115 TO TREASURY

LAST GLEE SEASON HAS BEEN SUCCESS IN EVERY WAY

MANAGEMENT CREDITED WITH STILL MORE

Report is Submitted Showing Very Successful Concert Season

I hereby hand the Executive Committee of the University of Oregon my financial report for the University Glee Club, season of 1910. The activity really receives $463.50 from the Associated Students, but on account of the student treasury being forced to meet a deficit the apportionment has been cut down to $355.93. Thus the real balance turned over by the Glee Club is $115.44 but the accredited balance is $223.01.

Below is shown the total receipts for the season and the total gross expenses. The total receipts of each opera house are accompanied by theater statements of each manager of the houses in which the Glee Club showed. The total gross expenses are accompanied by a voucher book that should show in what way all moneys were expended.

Gross Receipts of Each Concert of the Season

Eugene theatre, Dec. 1st.....	$454.10
Albany theatre, Dec. 8th.....	142.10

SELECTS TRACK TEAM FOR COLUMBIA MEET

HALF MILE VERY HOTLY CONTESTED RACE

Good Sized Team Will go to Columbia to Represent University

The tryout to select Oregon's representatives to the Columbian indoor meet was held this afternoon and all of the men with the exception of the relay team were picked. The finals of the 220-yd. dash will be run off on Wednesday between Bean, Briedwell and Elliot, though it is likely all three will take the trip for Kay will not run in either the 220 or the relay race.

The pole vault had not been pulled off at press time but Fiser was generally conceded the first place. The broad jump likewise was a missing event. The best race of the meet was the half mile, though the time was slow on account of it being McClure's first half mile in competition. The mile run also was close, Huggins winning by a yard. The events and the winners were as follows:

50-yd. dash—Johns 1st, Kay 2nd, Latourette 3rd. Time 6.
440—Johns 1st, Elliot 2nd, Bradshaw 3rd. Time 54.
880—McClure 1st, Miller 2nd. Time 2:5.
50-yd. high hurdles—Hawkins 1st, Latourette 2nd. Time 6.
High jump—Stuller 1st, 5 ft. 6. Service and Brooks, tie for second, 5 ft. 5.
Mile run—Huggins, 1st, McGuire 2nd. Time 4:50.
Shot put—Kellogg 1st, 38:9 1-2; Grout 2nd, 37 ft. 9 in. Henderson 3rd, 37 ft. 4 in.
220—First heat, Hawkins 1st, Dean 2nd, Elliott 3rd. Time 24.
220, second heat—Hay 1st, Briedwell, Latourette. Time 24.

The men who will compete under Oregon's colors at the meet are, Hawkins, Johns, Kay, Latourette, Elliot, McClure, McConnel, Miller, Huggins, McGuire, Fiser, Stuller, Service, Kellogg, Grout, and in case the finals of the 220 on Wednesday add some more men possibly one or two of the foregoing will be left at home.

BASKETBALL MEN MAY RECEIVE "O" SWEATERS

The athletic council has been asked to grant "O" sweaters to the Varsity's Basketball squad. The recent amendment to the student body constitution granting "O's" to the men, said nothing about sweaters and it has been necessary to ask the council for them in order that the letter may be useful as well as ornamental. It is not thought that the council will refuse this request and that the jerseys will be presented at the next Student Body meeting.

The men entitled to basketball "O's" are Jamison, Fenton, Sims, Walker and Eliot.

LIST TO CELESTIAL CHOIR

Ding and Lai Make Their Debut in Eugene Vaudeville

William Lai and Harry Ding, the Chinese students whose success on the Glee Club last season brought them several flattering offers from Portland theatrical managers made their debut in vaudeville when they filled a week end engagement for Manager Walker of the Aloha theatre. In spite of the fact that the engagement was unexpected and caught them unprepared they were well received by the theater-goers and received a good hand on each appearance.

They opened their program with the duet Madeline and later sang Tessie. Ding rendered the solo "The Song of the Anvil" and responded to the encore with "Over the Ocean Blue." Lai sang "Silver Threads" and wound up the act with "Has Anybody Here seen Kelly." This was their first trip into stageland except for the Glee club tour and the boys are well pleased with their success. They have not yet decided to accept any other offers and it is doubtful if they will book for a series of engagements this summer.

MISS PROSSER RESIGNS

At her own request, Miss Lila Prosser has been relieved of the responsibility of playing the title role in the Japanese opera, "Princess Chrysanthemum" shortly to be produced by the "Girls Choral Club" of the University.

While Miss Prosser's action is regrettable, it is prompted by the unexpected demands made upon her by recent and severe illness in her home, and the increasing attention that the preparation of her commencement program necessitates. Miss Prosser will be a candidate for her musical degree in June.

Miss Florence Cleveland has consented to accept the part thus made vacant, and should make a very winsome princess.

MODEL FROSH AT O. A. C. CRY FOR GREEN CAPS

O. A. C. press dispatch. Corvallis, Ore., March 28.—Green caps to be worn by the freshmen the rest of the college year—this is what the first year students have voted for themselves at O. A. C., and are only waiting the sanction of the upperclassmen to don the verdant badge. In most institutions the upper classes have to force the caps on the youngsters; at O. A. C. they take care of themselves.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON DEBATE TEAMS UNDER LEDAERSHIP OF COACH BUCHEN SCORE GREAT VICTORY OVER TEAMS FROM WASHINGTON AND STANFORD

OREGON TEAMS WIN ON BOTH SIDES OF QUESTION OF GRANTING SHIP SUBSIDIES

Coach Buchen Devises Method of Handling Affirmative Case that Washington Talkers Cannot Cope With Effectively

By defeating the debate teams of both Washington and Stanford last night, Oregon won its second successive Tri-State debate championship.

The question was "Resolved: That that the United States should adopt a system of ship subsidies." Oregon's affirmative team defeated Washington 2, while Oregon's negative team won from Stanford 3 to 0, and at the same time Washington also defeated Stanford 3 to 0 at Seattle.

Oregon's affirmative team, consisting of Zimmerman and Ray, presented a masterly case and it may fairly be said that Hoover and Clifford, the Washington representatives, though excellent as speakers, hardly made a dent in the ingenious line of argument that Coach Buchen had evolved. The feature of this debate was the large amount of extempore talking that was done. By the very nature of the affirmative argument, Washington was compelled to frame its case on the spot and Hoover especially did some fine informal speaking.

L. L. Ray opened and outlined the affirmative case. He was followed by Raymond Clifford, for Washington, who endeavored to tie Oregon down to the negative's interpretation of the question, and called for a more detailed outline of the proposed plan of subsidies. This was given in a clear exposition by Howard Zimmerman, the Oregon leader, who closed the affirmative constructive discussion. Glen Hoover then spoke for the negative. He confessed himself surprised by Oregon's presentation of the case, and attempted to speak against ship subsidies in general. Each speaker was then allowed a five-minute rebuttal speech.

The judges, Principal J. R. Wilson, of Portland Academy, Principal H. H. Herdman, of Portland High School, and Hon. R. W. Wilbur, of Portland, rendered a 2 to 1 decision for the affirmative.

Oregon's negative team won on the same question from Stanford at Palo Alto, but this decision was unanimous. Press dispatches state that the work of the Oregon team was remarkably good, and that special credit for the victory is due to "Prexy" Collier for wonderful rebuttal argument. His contention was, that foreign ships can carry our goods cheaper than can our own ships, and that we should not divert our capital from the fields where it is relatively more effective. He thus showed that ship subsidies, would have a tendency toward economic loss and impaired industrial efficiency. E. E. Tinscher and P. N. Wood composed the Stanford team. The judges were Harris Weilstock and Max Thielsen and Judge Stanley Hall, all of San Francisco.

From Pala Alto Coach Buchen leaves directly for Salt Lake, where he will be joined by Zimmerman and Ray before the debate with the University of Utah on the same question.

The news of Oregon's victory was the signal for considerable rejoicing and jollification among the students.

During the past week J. Earl Jones and Raymond Heider, two juniors in the Civil Engineering Department, have been engaged in surveying near Woodburn. The men learned many things about the practical side of their work.

Dr. J. R. Wilson, of Portland Academy, who acted as judge in the interstate debate, was entertained at dinner by the Kappa Sigmas last night.
