OREGON AND UTAH NOW TIED FOR DEBATES WON

Zimmerman and Ray's Ingenious
 Case Does Not Appeal to Mormons

The unwelcome news arrived last night by wire from Coach Buchen, that Utah had won the fifth annual Oregon-Utah debate. The decision was 2 to 1, and though the Oregon representatives feel that it could have gone just as easily the other way, they are not seriously protesting.

Zimmerman and Ray presented the same strong argument to the Mormons that they did to Washington, and though Utah made more of an attempt to meet Oregon's assertions about developing trade, it was not adequate treatment.

After the Stanford debate, Coach Buchen joined Zim and Ray in Salt Lake Tuesday and spent the interim in perfecting the affirmative case.

This makes the fourth debate with Utah, two of which have been won by each college. The victories have alternated and each college has received about the same number of individual decisions.

The men will return Monday or Tuesday, when an informal reception and demonstration rally will meet them and voice the appreciation of the work the debaters have been doing.

CO-ED MUSICAL OPERA HAS INTERESTING PLOT

Florence Cleveland in Lead Pleases Directors of Musical Production

"Princess Chrysanthemum," the opera the co-eds will give Thursday, April 13, 1911, differs from most comic operas in that it combines good music with a consistent and interesting plot.

Chrysanthemum, the princess of Japan, is preparing for her eighteenth birthday, the occasion of her "coming out," and the whole country is interested in the momentous event. According to custom, the princess at this time must name the prince whom she will marry. There are two suitors for Chrysanthemum's hand, Prince So Tru and Prince So Sli. She favors So Tru; and So Sli, fearing that he will lose her, with the aid of the wizard cat Saucer Eyes, steals her and carries her to the cat's cave, which is as black as inky night and abounds with goblins, elfs and devils. Chrysanthemum is kept here some time but is eventually rescued by Prince So True, is aided by Fairy Moonbeam, and is carried to her father. She chooses So True for her prince, marries him, and they live happy ever afterward.

Miss Florence Cleveland, who will sing the part of Chrysanthemum instead of Miss Lila Prosser, is proving entirely satisfactory to the directors. Miss Rowland states that she has the voice and personality admirably suited to making a charming princess.

BENNETT GIVES FIRST OF Y. M. C. A. LECTURES

Dr. Bennett, of the depart of psychology, gave a scholarly talk on "The Opportunity of the Teacher," the first of a series of discussions on professions to be given before the Y. M. C. A. this spring. The crowd of men in attendance showed an enthusiastic appreciation for the address. Dr. Bennett showed in a most convincing way, why to him the profession of the teacher seemed to present the greatest opportunity for a man to live an effective and widely influential life. From his own experience he took a number of instances which showed how certain professors had had a great influence on the policies of community and state government because they had moulded the minds of the students who later took the positions of leadership.

SHAVED FRESH HEADS, NOW ROW IN COLLEGE

Baton Rouge, La., April 3.—(Special)—Rather than submit to having their hair clipped as punishment for shaving the heads of a number of Freshmen, 300 students of the Louisiana State University went on strike this morning and as a result the institution is closed. Julius Mehlig, of New Orleans, father of one of the hazed boys, says of late Freshmen have been securing firearms for self defense.

President Boyd announced today that three students he expelled from hazing would be taken back on condition that all other participants acknowledged their guilt and each accepted fifty demerits, or have their heads clipped by the Freshmen. The upperclassmen immediately organized a walk-out.

A torch light parade tonight was checked by the police. Most of the striking students have left for home.

PREXY JONES APPOINTS COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

The chairmen of the cabinet committees of the Association were announced last evening by Earl Jones president of the Y. M. C. A. He appointed Howard Zimmerman chairman of the missionary department Clyde Pattee of the Bible study committee, Raphael Geisler chairman of the meetings committee, Elliott Roberts chairman of the membership committee, Russell Calkins of the publicity department, which is created for the first time this year.

The faculty at Michigan has prohibited upperclassmen from interfering with the Freshman class banquet.

SIX TAKE EXAMINATION FOR ARMY APPOINTMENT

Candidates Compete for Senator
 Chamberlain's Choice for West Piont

Competitive examinations were conducted by the faculty last Wednesday and Thursday to determine the appointee of Senator Chamberlain to the West Point Military Academy. The applicants were examined in the common high school subjects, and in addition were required to undergo a physical test. The one making the highest grade, both mentally and physically, will get the appointment, while the two making next will be first and second alternates. The appointee will take the final entrance examination, given by the army officials at the Presidio of San Francisco next month, and if successful in this, he will be admitted to the Academy in June.

Those who took the examination are: Bayard B. Buchanan, of Roseburg; Oliver B. Cardwell and Fred McCabe, of Portland; Jas. R. Watson, of Eugene; Albert B. Hason and Lee Roy Woods, of Cottage Grove.

PLAY WHEN SCHEDULED OR FORFEIT MATCHES

Owing to the tardiness with which the players in the hardicap match have been appearing on the scene of combat, the committee in charge has reversed its decision of last week and has definitely assigned the days on which the various matches are to be run off. Following is the schedule for the series:

- April 8, Mitchell vs. Yaden.
- April 10, Poorbaugh vs. Baer.
- April 10, Bedford vs. Powell.
- April 11, Calkins vs. Moores.
- April 11, Stine vs. Tiffany.
- April 14, Prescott vs. Goodall.
- April 24, Fraser vs. Gray.
- April 24, Hawley vs. Shaver.
- April 25, Hodge vs. Bond.
- April 25, Shattuck vs. Brown.
- April 26, Newland vs. Sleight.
- April 26, Oberteuffer vs. Dunlap.

Because of the shortness of time before the Varsity tryouts, players are urged to play off their matches before the dates scheduled, if possible. Any player, however, who fails to appear on the day assigned to him will forfeit the match.

BOAT HOUSE CASE HELD AT LEAST THREE WEEKS

F. L. Chambers has gone to Texas for military maneuvers, hence the case pending trial, which will decide whether or not Paul Bond will have a boat house opposite the University campus, will have to be postponed at least three weeks.

When interviewed yesterday, Mr. Bond said it was still his intention to build, and if the case is decided against Chambers, another site will be selected. However, if the present location is not secured, it is probable that the construction of the building will be delayed until vacation.

VACATION SALESMEN

Some U. of C. men made $100 a week last summer with us. This year we should like to hear from some embryonic Morgans and Carnegies who desire a business training and need the money. At our expense, we train every man in his own territory. Our proposition is strictly business—no house to house canvassing and no samples. Write W. E. Judge, 24 California St., San Francisco.
