ANNUAL GYM EXHIBIT GIVEN BY CO-EDS OF "U"

Fancy Dancing and Basketball Game Were Features of Program

The second annual demonstration of women's gymnasium work was held in the Men's Gym Thursday evening. The galleries were crowded with the girls' parents, friends, and by the faculty, while the wood piles outside the east windows were jammed with their brothers and cousins, both temporary and permanent, who were denied admission.

The exhibit opened by a grand march of about 250 Sophomores and Freshmen, led by Frieda Goldsmith. This was followed by calisthenics, club swinging, dumb-bell drills, fancy dancing, a May pole dance and a basketball game in which the Sophomores won from the Freshmen by a score of 6-2.

Immediately after the program, Dr. Stuart, assisted by Miss Perkins, served ices and wafers to all those who took part.

The program given was:

1. Grand March, Freshmen and Sophomores.
2. Swedish Day's Order, Freshmen and Sophomores.
3. Indian Clubs, Sophomores.
4. Gilbert Dancing, Upperclass.
5. Dumb-bell Drill, Freshmen.

8. Irish Tilt, Freshmen and Sophomores.
9. Basketball Game, Sophomores vs. Freshmen.

MADAME SHERRY PLEASES AUDIENCE

The long looked for "Madame Sherry" arrived in Eugene yesterday and played in the evening at the Eugene Theater to one of the largest audiences ever collected in that building. Every seat was sold Thursday, and many were standing in the aisles at the performance.

Madame Sherry was not a disappointment. The ladies, nine in number, were attractive, and able to sing, too. The leading lady, especially, had a clear, sweet voice, which, combined with her pleasing personality, made her a delightful character. Oscar Figman, as the "Uncle," was as original and funny as when he used to play the Ambassador in the Merry Widow. "Madame Sherry" and "Edward Sherry" were well acted and sung, as were the "Spanish Woman" and the "French Janitor."

The music was good, the songs and dances were catchy. "Every Little Movement" formed the background of the whole opera, and was played and sung in many effective places and ways throughout the three acts. The orchestra, made up of six of their own men, augmented by the local orchestra, was one of the best ever heard in Eugene.
