PRINCESS CHRYSANTHEMUM AND COURT PREPARED TO MAKE BOW

CO-ED OPERETTA ELABORATE PRODUCTION

Miss Florence Cleveland Will Sing Difficult Title Role

Everything is in readiness for the girls' opera, Princess Chrysanthemum, which will be presented in the Eugene Theater tomorrow evening, Thursday, April 13, 1911. The costumes have arrived, the stage settings are complete, the large orchestra is familiar with the score, and the girls themselves are thoroughly acquainted with their lines and cues. A final dress rehearsal will be held this evening in the theater, at which the full cast and the orchestra will be present.

The members of the Girls' Glee Club are anxious that their opera be patronized liberally by the student body. The present organization is a rejuvenation of the long defunct Treble Clef Club, which died a natural death three years ago, due to a lack of vitality. Two years ago Miss Campbell, then vocal instructor in the School of Music, attempted to revive it, but found the co-eds not sufficiently interested, and nothing came of her efforts. Last year Miss Stinson was asked to direct it, but found that her schedule in the School of Music would leave her no time for such work. This year Miss Rowland was imported from Boston as a teacher of Theory of Music. She organized a Girls' Choral or Glee Club, aroused interest in the work among the women of the University, and has been the prime mover behind the opera which is to be presented Thursday evening.

The box office opened this morning, and the sale indicates that a large audience will be present. Seats are selling for 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00.

GUNSTIGE FORZEICHEN

All of That Is Title of Successful German Play Given

A large audience greeted the Deutsche Verein, Tuesday evening, in its production of the one-act playlet, "Gunstige Forzeichen," or "Auspicious Omens."

The cast consisted of Alfred Skoi as Herr Rillberg, Charles Fowler as Herr Holdhaus, Dick Sleight as Ein Reiknecht, Mabel Zimmerman as Karoline, Herr Rillberg's daughter, Naomi Williamson as Bunhilde, Rillberg's niece.

Rillberg is in love with Bunhilde, whom he is informed is Rillberg's daughter Karoline. He seeks an introduction, and the old gentleman, anxious to marry his daughter to such a promising young man, readily acquiesces. Rillberg is unable to express himself when he realizes the error and recognizes Bunhilde.

The play ends happily, like the proverbial nursery rhyme, by them living happily ever after.

It was the opinion of all present that the acting and pronunciation of the entire cast was excellent, and that the play was a decided treat. Miss Burgess and Mr. Lusk coached the troupe of amateur Thespians.

LOWER COST OF LIVING AT BOYS' DORMITORY

The first step towards lowering the cost of living at Oregon has been taken. Last Monday the executive committee of the Boys' Dormitory met, and after thorough discussion decided to lower the room rent at the Dorm for the coming year from $1.00 a week to 50 cents a week. The board will still remain at $3.50, but if the referendum does not hold up the appropriation, a cold storage plant will be built, an extensive vegetable garden will be cultivated, and all staple supplies will be bought at wholesale and the board may find it possible to lower the board 50 cents a week.

ELEVEN TO CALIFORNIA

WITH TRAINER HAYWARD AND MANAGER BARBOUR—WILL LEAVE THURSDAY

Thursday night's Shasta Limited will carry to the sunny southland, Trainer Hayward, Manager Barbour and "Skipper" Hawkins' trained crew of ten point winners. The fortunate ones whom Bill picked this afternoon are: Captain Hawkins, Johns, Kay, Bailey, Kellogg, Neil, McClure, McGuire, Latourette, Service and McConnell.

Saturday the men will witness the Stanford-U. of C. meet at Berkeley and will then begin active training, aided by the salubrious California climate. While South, the men will live at the several fraternity houses under strict training rules.

The team selected is not as large as many anticipated which is due largely to the trainer's decision to not enter a relay team. The Varsity four have not been yet struck their old stride and it is considered useless to take a team unless there is a strong probability of its placing.

PROMISES A SENSATION

1912 Oregana Will Have "Scoop" Story of Big Announcement

Editor Chester Moores, of the 1912 Oregana, promises the University a bigger, better and more sensational annual than has ever before been put out in the history of the college.

As to the increase in size, the 1912 Oregana will be larger than last year's record breaker by fully one hundred pages, and will contain over 350 pages expository of the various features of life at Oregon.

The improvement in the quality of the book will be evident in the binding and general makeup. For the same price as last year the students may secure a better bound book on a better quality of paper. The book will also treat more completely than any other all the different phases of college life.

For interest, several hair-raising sensations are promised. For one in particular, the 1912 Oregana will have the biggest "scoop" announcement story that has yet appeared in any of the college publications. The management refuses to divulge the exact nature of this announcement, beyond saying that it will interest everyone in college and that it alone will be worth the paltry $1.50 charged for the publication. Beyond this, there are several live things promised in the josh columns, such as clever poems and satires from such master pens as Dean Collins' and Sap Latourette's.

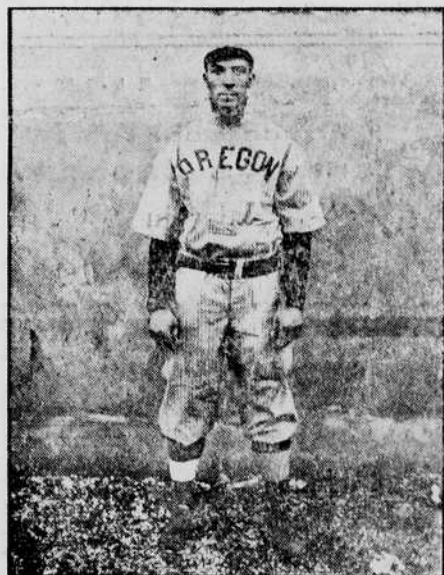

VARSITY OPENS BALL SEASON AUSPICIOUSLY

5 TO 4 IS SCORE OF OPENING GAME WITH WHITMAN COLLEGE

ERRORS FEW DESPITE BAD WEATHER

Roberts, Fenton, Houch and Captain Taylor All Distinguish Themselves Today

In the first baseball game of the 1911 season Oregon defeated Whitman college at Midway Park this afternoon by the score of five to four. The game was played in a sea of mud but was extremely interesting and almost free from errors. Oregon's victory was mainly due to the pitching of Byron Houch, the new Varsity twirler. Houch pitched shut-out ball up to the sixth inning, fanning out ten of the Whitman batsmen and allowing but two hits. In the sixth the Varsity pitcher was changed, and due to imperfect control he failed to hold the missionaries to a shut-out. In the eighth and ninth cantos they landed on his offerings for a total of four runs, but Oregon came back with two and won the game.

Whitman came dangerously near scoring in the fourth, when Captain Johnson, their star catcher, lead off with a clean two-bagger and Perring followed with a single over second base. At this juncture Houch settled down and fanned the next three batsmen in order.

Oregon's first score came in the third inning when Cady Roberts, the brilliant little Varsity third sacker, walked, stole second and scored on a clout by Carl Fenton.

In the fifth canto Oregon pulled down two more scores. Roberts singled, went to second on Jamison's sacrifice and scored on Barbour's bunt down the first base line. Cozens sent Barbour down to second and Carl Fenton brought him home with a single.

In the seventh inning Roberts drove out a single, stole second and third and scored on a hit by Barbour. Oregon's fifth and final score was made by Captain Taylor, who walked, was sacrificed to second and scored on a passed ball.

The features of the game were the catching of Johnson of Whitman, and the work of Meese in center field. The phenomenal fielding, batting and base running of Cady Roberts, and pitching of Houch shone most brilliantly on the Oregon team.

Governor Folk and Judge Lindsey speak at O. A. C. this week.

WHO STEALS MY BOOK, STEALS TRASH, BUT NOTES!

A. W. Scullen, '11, is mourning the loss of his leather bound loose leaf note book which some miscreant filched from him while he laid it down. Mr. Scullen is not feeling badly about losing the book except that it contained a year's notes for his thesis work which is an irreparable loss. He advertises that if the notes are returned to him the varlet may retain the bindings.

The seniors are making arrangements for their play after the Week End.

APPOINTS COMMITTEES

Executive Committee Names Those to Direct Work University Day

The executive committee of the student body, consisting of Mr. Percy Collier, Mr. Raphael Geisler, Mr. Phil Brownell, Mr. Verner Gillis and Miss Edith Woodcock, held a special meeting last evening for the purpose of appointing committees for University Day, May the 13th.

The following members were appointed on the luncheon committee: Seniors, Mabel Hill and June Gray; Juniors, Emma Clifford and Jean Allison; Sophomores, Nell Hemenway and Carin Degermark; Freshmen, Sarah Smith and Janet Young.

Louis Pinkham was appointed chairman of the work committee and he expects to make the forenoon of the University Day count by building a long extension of the cement walk west of Deady Hall. All men students will have their respective work assigned them by Pinkham and his fellow committeemen, Mr. Henkle and Mr. Reuter.

Following the work, a luncheon prepared by the University girls will be served. The girls promise a very hearty reception to the workers.

MAY PLAY ON CAMPUS

Campus Practice Diamond May Be Used for Baseball Games

The baseball management is seriously considering the resumption of the policy of playing campus games.

Two years ago a number of successful ball games were held on the lampus practice diamond. Gate receipts were secured by printing several hundred large tags with the inscription "I have paid my admission." These were plastered conspicuously on all bystanders, and sufficient sentiment worked up to ostracize those who "stuck around" without paying. The plan worked very well, as the regular number of admissions were secured and a great gain was achieved in convenience. Many students can not afford the time and dislike the inconvenience of being crowded into the inadequate rolling stock provided by the philanthropic car company.

Manager Luckey is seriously considering scheduling future games on the campus and tabooing the outside grounds. The Midway Park magnates exact a full ten per cent from Oregon's Genial McCredie, who feels that this is a pretty heavy tax on an already overloaded and brow-beaten branch of Varsity athletics.

CANOE CARNIVAL NOW DEFINITELY ASSURED

SWITCHED PROGRAM FOR WEEK END GIVES IT PLACE ON THE PROGRAM

UNIVERSITY DAY WORK SATURDAY A. M.

Oratoricals May Come Wednesday or Thursday if the Play is not Ready

After an extended conference this afternoon between President Collier, Faculty advisors and Junior committee, a program for Junior Week End was evolved, eliminating conflicts in the dates of the various attractions.

Briefly, the rearrangement switches the University Day work, which has formerly fallen Friday morning, to Saturday morning, which this year is vacant. This change does away with a conflict between the University Day meet and the Interscholastic Track preliminary. Another important change moving the Junior Oratoricals up to Wednesday evening or Thursday evening in case the Dramatic Club production cannot be prepared by that team. There is thus left open Friday morning and Friday evening for the canoe carnival.

By this arrangement it will be possible for the queen of the Carnival to present the cups and trophies to the winners in the preparatory meet as well as to the winners of the aquatic sports.

In rearranging the program to give the Canoe Carnival a date it was felt that the festival being something new should be put on trial and that it should not be given a permanent place on the program unless it makes good. The change in the date of the Junior Oratoricals was made largely with the idea of opening the Week End appropriately with an event of purely scholastic and academic nature. It was through no desire to belittle the importance of the oratoricals it being argued that a better representation of the students would be present on Wednesday before every house would be embarrassed with guests.

With the Carnival definitely accredited and placed on the program, the committee is able to work to better advantage and will hurry final and definite arrangements for a brilliant and beautiful water carnival.

NINE LEAVES ON FRIDAY

Will Tour Inland Empire and Also Play at Seattle

The Oregon baseball team leaves for an eight-day trip into Washington and Idaho next Friday night. The personnel of the team is not yet known but Coach Lynch states he will carry as many men as the management will allow, probably twelve or thirteen players. Seven games will be played.

The first game will be with the Multnomah Club in Portland, Saturday, April 15. The second series with Washington at Seattle on April 17 and 18. Then will follow games with W. S. C. at Pullman, on the 19th and 20th. The last games will be played with the University of Idaho at Moscow, on the 21st and 22nd.
