A large enough number of entries in the various events have already been filed with the committee to insure the success of the affair and competition for the beautiful trophies and money prizes promises to be keen. For the team events in which contestants will be from the different organizations and classes silver trophy cups will be given. For the other contests substantial money prizes will be offered.

The evening's pageant and parade will commence promptly at dusk. The parade will start in the lagoon immediately above the head gates. The carnival queen preceded by heralds will lead. The queen will occupy a reviewing stand opposite Mechanical Hall. The parade of decorated canoes will file past and be reviewed and judged. The canoes will return and group themselves around the queen's dias while the prizes and trophies are awarded. Besides the prizes for the decorated boats, there will be presented at this time the trophies for the winners of the forenoon sports. In addition visiting interscholastic track teams will be present and the winners of the afternoon's meet will be given the cups and medals by the queen of the carnival.

The contest for the election of the carnival queen will begin next Monday and will continue until noon of the following Saturday. Votes will cost five cents each and may be purchased of the committee, Ralph Moores, Emma Waterman, Harold Bean, Ruth Merrick and Leigh Hugins, or of Ruth Duniway at the Library desk. The votes will be counted each evening by a special committee and announced on the bulletin board each day.

VARSIITY MAN MARRIED

Prominent Member of Junior Class Takes unto Himself a Wife

Portland, Ore., Apr. 24, 1911.

John G. Kelly, Jr., 755 High St., Eugene, Ore. Bob and I married last night. Leave for Frisco on Shasta Limited. Will not be able to see you but hope that you will not be badly astonished. Be sure and not tell the bunch for a while and try not to take it too hard. Love to all.

Charley.

The signature is that of Charles Olson, '12, and the above is the copy of a telegram received yesterday telling of the marriage of a popular member of the junior class and Varsity athlete.

The young lady referred to is Miss "Bob" Whyte, of 682 Sandy Road, Portland, and is well known to a number of Oregon students. The marriage comes as the culmination of a pretty romance and though Charles' friends are not surprised at his choice they did not expect the affair to occur so soon. In a post card previously received from Olson by another college friend, he had written enigmatically, "If I am not back by Sunday address me care California Taxicab Co." From this the inference is drawn that the young benedict has secured a responsible position in Frisco and will take up his permanent residence there. Needless to say the young couple are followed by the best wishes of their many college friends.

DR. CHAPMAN DELIVERS SCHOLARLY ADDRESS

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS THE EX-PRESIDENT OF VARSITY

TALKS ON "REALIZING OUR IDEALS"

The Material World Said Not to be What it Seems—Brick Walls Only Mental Concoctions

Probably the most scholarly and at the same time inspiring address of the school year was delivered this morning at the assembly on "Realizing an Ideal." Dr. C. H. Chapman, a former president of the University of Oregon, and at present on the editorial staff of the Oregonian at Portland.

Dr. Chapman said in part: "The reality of matter has been questioned by scientists and philosophers. What appears to be a brick wall is in reality only a concoction of the human brain.

Such theories, however, have no weight with the people at large who live in a material world and cannot see beyond it. The youth leaving college is told by the materially minded world to forget his ideals and busy himself with the things about him.

This is wrong. The material should not obscure the ideal for it only wastes life when that life should be made a full one. It puts the emphasis on "how much" rather than on what kind.

The ideals point to the real and yet which are eternal, while the natural points to the earth, which is temporary and fades.

Ideals as ideals only are useless. To become useful they must be accompanied by deeds. The ideals of Christ and Plato are of value because they were applied to actual life.

The principal mental virtue is hospitality towards new ideas. Our men at forty years of age become crystallized monsters, their minds refusing to accept any new idea. This is wrong and is especially unbecoming of university bred men, who of all men should have hospitable minds and by virtue of their culture not be men who say, "It can't be done" but who take a hand in correcting the mistakes of our forefathers.

Before the address a member of the Cartwright Concert Company sang a solo which brought him a rousing encore.

APRIL FROLIC IS HERE

The fourth of the Annual April Frolics will be held Friday evening, April 28, in Hayward Hall. Each of the seven sororities, the Eutaxians, and the girls of the Oregon Club are preparing interesting and amusing "stunts."

The "stunts" will take the first place on the program and will be followed by a "Grand March" in which each one will receive a favor from the huge grab-bag. The remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing. Ice cream cones and punch will be served during the dancing in the boxing room.

In a few days the different bulletin boards will display "classy" posters made by several of the most clever co-ed artists, which will announce the time and the exact amount of the admission to be charged.

GLEE CLUB ELECTION COMES NEXT FRIDAY

President Melville Ogden announces an important joint meeting of the Glee and Mandolin Clubs for four o'clock Friday afternoon in Professor Glen's room. The meeting is called for the election of officers for the ensuing term and all members are urged to attend.

BRING YOUR OWN PENCIL

These Will Not Be Provided by Management of Saturday's Student Dance

Saturday evening, April 29, is the date of the next student body dance. This dance, as the one given last fall, will be strictly informal, and will begin promptly at eight-thirty.

Several such dances were given last year for the first time, and met with the greatest success owing to the fact that they offered practically the only opportunities for the entire student body to get together in an informal social way.

This year it was planned to give one each month, but for various conflicting events but one has been given thus far this year.

Rolland Kennedy has been appointed manager by the executive committee and states that all possible will be done to make the affair successful, but that for the remarkably low admission price of fifty cents the management will not furnish pencils for the programs. These must be furnished individually.

WILL ENTERTAIN WOMEN

Scroll and Script Will Give Elaborate Garden Party Next Saturday

The Scroll and Script, the women's senior honor society of the University, will give a garden party to all the women of the University Saturday afternoon. President Campbell's lawn will be the scene of entertainment, and here the present members of the society will meet their fellow co-eds.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Campbell, Lila Prosser, Olive Donnell, Marion Stowe, Juliette Cross, Helen Beach, Edith Woodcock, Cecil Wilcox, Mary DeBar and Willetta Wright. Also Frances Oberteuffer and Ruth Duniway, seniors of the class of 1910.

The Scroll and Script society was organized last year by seven of the prominent senior girls: Ruth Hansen, Bertha Dorris, Frances Oberteuffer, Ruth Duniway, Mae Sage, Caroline Dunston and Jennie Lilly. Each Junior Week-End, Junior girls will be elected to membership in the society. The number to be taken in each year is limited to eleven, and the qualification upon which the selection is made are scholarship, interest in student body activities and general popularity.

All freshmen at the University of Washington must wear green caps beginning with next Monday. This was the edict given out by the sophomore class at that institution in a meeting last week. Failure to comply with this ruling will be punished by the paddle, was further stipulated in the orders passed. An amendment to the ruling was proposed, in which it was stipulated that freshmen shall not be allowed to come out by the front door.

The Oregon baseball team returned Sunday night from a week's trip in Washington and Idaho. The team played seven games, winning three and losing four.

In the first game with M. A. A. C., in Portland, Oregon won by the score of 9-1. The Oregon team fielded in perfect style and piled up twelve hits. Cobb pitched a good game and Word caught.

In the first Washington game the Oregonians were defeated by a 3-2 score. The game was hard fought and won on close decisions. Houck pitched for Oregon and Taylor caught.

The second Washington game was lost by a score of 4-3. Peet started off for the visitors but was hit freely in first inning, retiring in favor of Cobb. The game was called in the 7th inning to allow the Oregon team to catch their train. The game was marred by considerable wrangling.

In the first game with Pullman the Oregon team was defeated by the score of 9-2. The W. S. C. team clearly had the better of the engagement, clouting the Oregon twirlers at will. Houck and Peet pitched and Taylor caught.

The second game with W. S. Cn ended with a 9-2 score favoring the Collegians. Cobb, Jamison and Peet were pounded freely.

Oregon won both games with Idaho, first by a 6-0 score and the second 6-2. The Oregon team piled up fourteen hits off the Idaho twirler in the first game. Houck pitched good ball for Oregon, allowing but one hit. In the second contest Cobb let the northerners down with six bingles but kept them well scattered. Taylor caught both games.

After considerable investigation the Advisory Board of the Y. M. C. A. has decided to secure either John Hunt or J. S. Hodler, both of Debauro University, to succeed E. M. Brown as general secretary for next year.

A telegram was sent to the President of Debauro today asking him to secure either one or the other of the men. The board has no preference for either, for from the recommendations the men both seem to have the same high abilities.

They are seniors this year at Debauro and are both members of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. The Advisory Board feels confident of securing one of them.
