DEBATE AND ORATORY
PAY BETTER THIS YEAR

There is, However, the Usual Deficit
 But it is Smaller than Usual

According to Manager Huntington, the Department of Oratory and Debate promises to yield its usual annual deficit again this year. Two contests have already been financed with the result that the student body appropriation has been expended with a balance of but three dollars remaining. The co-ed debate which is yet to be held is exciting more than ordinary interest and it is hoped that it will pay the rather heavy expenses incident to it; so the loss for the year will not be large.

The receipts and expenditures of the department stand as follows:

Receipts
Student Body appropriation.....	$300.00
Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest and Banquet	136.00
Washington-Oregon Debate.....	27.00
Total	$463.00
Expenditures
Bills paid and outstanding	$459.13
Credit balance	$ 3.87

In spite of the rather small number of games which the Oregon bunch managed to annex during the recent Inland Empire trip, the boys were on the job every minute when it came to clouting the elusive horsehide. Following is the batting average for the series:

NO MORE BALL GAMES
AT THE MIDWAY PARK

Baseball Management Decides to Erect Temporary Bleachers And
 Play Games on Campus

The remainder of the Varsity baseball games will be played on the campus diamond. This decision has been reached by Manager Luckey after the financially unsuccessful Whitman contest at Midway Park.

For the accommodation of the spectators temporary bleachers will be erected on the lower campus and for this purpose Manager "Jack" has issued a "work" call for all loyal students for next Saturday morning. The men of the University are asked to turn out with hammer and saws and aid in the common cause.

This change in the location of the Varsity diamond was made after a full consideration of the advantages of both diamonds. The Midway Park management charges ten per cent of the net receipts. Also the field is so far from the campus that those with three o'clock classes cannot attend and the time required for the trip almost prohibits business men from attending.

Under the new arrangement tags will be sold and every one in attendance will be expected to wear a conspicuous tag certifying that admission has been duly paid.

The next game will be May 3, when the Oregon nine will meet the strong team from Washington State College, which has already defeated Captain Taylor's nine twice.

OPERETTA PLEASURES
LARGE AUDIENCE

The long talked about and looked for Princess Chrysanthemum was given in the Eugene Theatre Thursday, April 13 by the Woman's Choral Club to a large sized audience of friends and admirers. The operetta more than met the expectations of the most optimistic prophets, the unanimous consensus of opinion being "well done; come again next year".

Florence Cleveland as the Princess and Nancy Noon as "Saucer Eyes," the cat, were the stars of the performance. Mis Cleveland was a happy selection for her part. Her stage presence was charming and her clear, sweet soprano voice sounded to advantage in the solos. Miss Noon was equally well adapted to her role, or rather, she cleverly adapted the role to her versatile and original mien, and set the audience in a continual uproar whenever she appeared.

Other principals deserving special mention were: Juliet Cross and Janet Young, as the suitors of the Princess; Gladys Cartwright as the grouchy treasurer to the Emperor; Edna Miller as a maid to the Princess and the fairies who danced to the delight of all.

Miss Rowland, who was the prime mover and general director of the operetta, is the recipient of many congratulations, which she justly earned.

MR. E. B. McNOUGHTON, OF PORTLAND WILL ADDRESS M.

"The Golden Rule in Business" will be the subject of the address on Friday evening at the men's meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. E. B. McNaughton, a well known architect of Portland, has been secured to give the address on this occasion. He is recognized in Portland as a strong speaker as well as a capable architect.

Raphael Geisler, chairman of the committee that provides for these meetings and addresses, has promised something unusually good in the line of special music for next Friday evening.

The speaker has already been warned that any attempt to prolong his address after seven-fifty will be attended with sudden extermination and the usual guarantee that the meeting which will begin at seven, will close promptly on or before seven fifty, holds good.

OREGON Y. W. C. A. WILL HOLD MAY DAY JINKS

Committees are Appointed to Forage for Victuals and Drink

The Y. W. C. A. girls will be hostesses Monday evening at a May-day picnic supper to be given on the river bank back of Skinner's Butte. All of the girls in the University are requested to meet at the Omega house Monday afternoon at four-thirty sharp and go from there together to the chosen spot where a huge camp-fire and plenty of good "eats" will be waiting. The usual Monday afternoon meeting will be held there instead of at the girls' gymnasium.

The committees appointed are: Senior: Edith Woodcock, chairman; Conifred Hurd, Maybelle Larsen, Hattie Hyde, Alice Stoddard, who will canvass the senior girls for the coffee, cream, cakes. Juniors: Jessie Bibee, chairman; Hazel Wightman, Erma Clifford, Ruth Howell, Emma Waterman, who will secure the fruit. Sophomores: Elizabeth Busch, chairman; Cecil Miller, Lena Newton, Carrie Becken, Blanche Powell, to get the salad, pickles and olives. Freshmen: Pauline Van Orsdel, chairman; Edna Miller, Ruth Beach, Mae Norton, Hilda Brant, who will see that there are plenty of sandwiches.

The chairmen of these four committees are requested to meet for a few minutes with Bess Lewis, general chairman, at the Tri Delta house Thursday afternoon at five o'clock.

WOMEN'S EMERALD TO BE RECORD BREAKING ISSUE

The business managers of the women's edition of the Emerald have secured one hundred and twenty dollars worth of advertising matter for their edition of the Emerald. Besides this the co-eds have given twenty dollars in subscriptions of ten cents each.

With this financial backing Editor Birdie Wise is planning to make the co-ed issue the most interesting and most worth while of all previous editions.

VARSITY SPOUTERS JUDGE
PREP LEAGUE DEBATE

Percy Collier and Carlton Spencer and Earl Kilpatrick were judges of the debate last Friday night between Grants Pass High School, champion of Southern Oregon, and Lebanon High School, champion of Central Oregon. The subject of the debate was the conservation of natural resources and was won by Grants Pass.

Seniors are requested to order o caps and gowns at once at Friend- o ly's as there is but one day left o before orders will be sent to the o factory.

VACATION SALESMEN

Some U. of C. men made $100 a week last summer with us. This year we should like to hear from some embryonic Morgans and Carnegies who desire a business training and need the money. At our expense, we train every man in his own territory. Our proposition is strictly business—no house to house canvassing and no samples. Write W. E. Judge, 24 California St., San Francisco.
