CO-ED DEBATE HELD IN EUGENE NEXT WEEK

Washington and Oregon Women Will Clash in Forensic War
 Next Week.

The co-ed debate between Washington and Oregon will be one of the interesting events of next week. For the second time in the history of the University, the co-eds will have the honor of defending Oregon in an intercollegiate forensic contest. A year ago they lost at Seattle but next Friday they intend to "come back" and carry off the honors. To win the victory will not be an easy task for Washington has a strong team and it is coming here with the intention of avenging the defeat of Hoover and Clifford at the hands of Ray and Zimmerman last month. The Washington women will attempt to prove that Congress should adopt an income tax and according to Coach Buchen their side of the question is, in theory, the stronger. Oregon's team, Bridie Wise, Corin Degermark, and Lilah Clark, are working several hours each day preparing for the contest and are ready to discuss any phase of the question. Miss Mary Perkins will act as chairman of the evening.

WASHINGTON WILL PLAY
 TENNIS AT WEEK END

Newland Signs With Washington for a Match Junior Week End.

The dual tennis tournament with the University of Washington is now an assured fact and will take place on the home courts Friday and Saturday after Junior Week End. Tennis Manager Newland, while in Seattle last week, signed a contract with Washington's manager agreeing upon this date. The contract further stipulates that hereafter the meets shall alternate between Seattle and Eugene. Because of the early date of the tournament the try-outs for Varsity representatives will begin immediately. Those who have so far announced their candidacy are: Shattuck, Newland, Gray, Frazer, Ober-teuger, Yaden, Powell, Bond, Stine. The handicap tournament is progressing in good shape, more than half of the matches having been played off up to date. The returns up to this morning are as follows:
 Preliminaries. (Complete)

 Powell won from Bedford, 6-3, 6-1

ANGEVINE WILL REPRESENT
 UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

By winning the annual inter-collegiate oratorical contest at the University of Washington, Fred Angevine will represent that institution in the tri-state contest to be held at Seattle May 26. Angevine represented the senior class in the local contest, with the oration entitled "International Justice". Clarence Keith, also a senior took second place, and won the Corky prize of $15, offered to the second place man. In the contest next month, Angevine will be pitted against C. W. Robison of the University of Oregon, and Miss Florence Matthews, representing the University of Montana.

MARIS AND GEISLER BRAVE RAPIDS ON PORTLAND TRY

During the recent spring vacation Homer Maris, '13 and Raphael Geisler, '12, made the trip down the river to Portland in their canoes. The voyage took three days and although furnishing considerable excitement and pleasure in the way of shooting rapids and camping out, no accidents occurred. This trip is becoming more and more popular with varsity canoeists and every spring several boat loads make the trip. Earlier in the spring Bones Allen and Fred Ingles also took this trip.

"At Yale," the play the Dramatic Club is going to present on May 11, of Junior Week End may not be presented in the Eugene Theater unless Manager Smith can get the Russian Musical Company to cancel their date. If the play "At Yale" is presented at the theater the charges will be 50 cents to a dollar, if at Villard Hall, the charges will be arranged later.

Assistant Track Manager Homer has resigned and Fen Waite and Fred Myers have been appointed to attend to the minor duties of putting the track in shape for the dual meet with Whitman May 6. "Judge" says that the fact that it takes two men to fill the position alone shows that the assistant manager business is no snap.

MUST KISS YOUR HOPES OF WEALTH GOODBYE

You Must Do This If You Expect to
 Be a Man of Honesty and Principle, Says Speaker.

"If you are going to take the Golden Rule into business, you might as well kiss your hopes of wealth good-bye, for it is practically impossible for a man to get a million dollars today and still observe the principles of honor and truth." This was the candid conclusion as expressed by Mr. E. B. McNaughton of Portland, who addressed the men's meeting of the Y. M. C. A. last night, on the "Golden Rule in the Business World." Unlike many who assert that material success will follow the application of the highest Christian principles in business, this man, an experienced business man and one who is recognized as a leader in his profession, was honest enough to declare that as industry is today, the man who is determined to be absolutely true to his highest principles need never hope for wealth, unless as Mr. MacNaughton, expressed it, "his mule kicks the top out of a gold mine." A feature of this meeting was a vocal solo by Miss Edna Miller. The address by Dr. Beardsley, which was scheduled for Junior Week End would come on May 5, will be changed to May 5, and May 12 will be left free for the Week End festivities. Dr. Beardsley will speak on "The responsibilities of the Physician, next Friday evening."

CO-ED OPERA CLEARS GOOD SUM FOR NEST EGG.

The sum total taken in by the Girls' Glee Club which presented the "Princess Chrysanthemum," at the Eugene Theater, April 13, was $350. The expenditures which include the renting of the costumes, the wisteria flowers, the theater, the remuneration for the coaching and the incidentals of $20, the use of which will be decided at a later meeting. This amount will probably be left in the treasury to be used towards financing a production to be given next year as a similar opera is to be given annually by the Girls' Glee Club.

Alice Stoddard has been elected to the Scroll and Script Honor Society. Miss Stoddard is a member of the Lambda Rho sorority, and is a prominent senior girl, taking an active part in the work of the Y. W. C. A., the Women's Council and college activities generally.

The Whitman College management asked that the hammer throw and the two-mile be eliminated from the calendar of events in the coming meet and received a refusal from both Track Manager Barbour and Manager Cox of O. A. C. The entire schedule will be run through as usual.

Some U. of C. men made $100 a week last summer with us. This year we should like to hear from some embryonic Morgans and Carnegies who desire a business training and need the money. At our expense, we train every man in his own territory. Our proposition is strictly business—no house to house canvassing and no samples. Write W. E. Judge, 24 California St., San Francisco.
