VARSITY RETRIEVES TWO FORMER W. S. C. DEFEATS

6-0 IS BRIEF TALE OF TODAY'S VARSITY BASEBALL VICTORY.

JAMISON PITCHES SHUT OUT BALL

Only Once Did the Visitors Reach Third Base with Chance of Scoring.

Oregon 6. W. S. C. 0, briefly tells the story of this afternoon's baseball game.

Homer Jamison was called in from first base to the pitcher's box and not only pitched shut-out ball but held the visitors who have a league wide reputation as batting phenoms to 4 hits and kept any of them from reaching third base.

The score board presented a series of zeros until Oregon opened up the jack pot in the lucky seventh. Beany Mount made first on an error, stole second and made third on Taylor's clean single. He scored on Annusen's hit as did Captain "Chuck". Annusen came home with the third run a moment later when Schweitzer, the W. S. C. outfield left field threw wild.

In the eighth, Ben Chandler beat out a bunt, stole second and scored on a hit by Word, who by the way picked up everything around second. Tommy scored on Taylor's slow one. The latter stole second and third and scored a minute later on a bad throw.

Pllman's forlorn hope came in the ninth when one of the visitors reached third with two down. Jamie, however, blanked the batter and all was over.

Considering the conditions of the field and the inclement weather the game was remarkably fast and free from error.

Hits: Off Jamison, 4; off Patten, 6.

STUDENT BODY DANCE AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

There have been many dances more auspiciously designed and more elaborately carried out, but for a genial crowd and a general good time, the third student body dance given last Saturday evening in the men's gym. will for some time be remembered as a very pleasant affair.

Cass Kennedy, with his cohorts, had the floor in splendid condition and the usual complaint of sticky floor was unheard. The music was poor but the punch was good and kept the bad taste out of one's mouth.

Mrs. Prescott, Mrs. Pennell, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Stearns acted as patronesses to one of the most enjoyable parties the student body has given.

WHITMAN TRAINS HARD

Missionary Athletes Gave up Spring Vacation to Work Out Twice A Day on Track.

While the Oregon athletes were in California taking part in the All-Coast meet the Whitman track men made hay during the brief respite of sunshine and passed up their spring vacation to train for the meets with Oregon and O. A. C. The greater part of their track team remained over and hit the cinders twice a day under the watchful eye of Coach Tilly.

The Whitman paper quotes Trainer Tilly as reporting his men in excellent shape for their trip and expecting to spring some surprises upon the Oregonians. Their first appearance will be on Kincaid field next Saturday and as there are no records so far this year their strength is more or less an unknown quantity.

Bill, with his customary reticence, declines to say just what he expects the Oregon men to do with the Washingtonians and says "Come out and see the meet. You don't know what Oregon can do yet this is their first appearance at home this year, and it is the only chance to get a line on the men and to find out what they will do in the Tri state."

BUT THREE SHOW CLASS

Many Are Called But Few Chosen to Join Co-Ed Tennis Club—Another Tryout

Only three names of the ten who tried out for the Girls' Tennis Club were submitted to the club for approval at the meeting held Tuesday at 4 p. m. in Prof. DeCou's class room. The successful ones were Norma Graves, Frances Adams and Hazel Rader.

A second tryout will be held the Monday and Tuesday following Junior Week End. Those wishing to enter at this time, including those who failed to meet the requirements of the first tryout, are invited to sign the schedule for practice posted on the door of Miss Perkins' classroom.

A Beginners' Tournament will be pulled off in about two weeks for which the Tennis Club offers a silver trophy cup. This tournament will be open to any girl in college not in the club.

1912 OREGANA APPEARS AHEAD OF TIME, MAY 2

BOOK IS LARGER AND BETTER THAN ANY VARSITY ANNUAL YET PUBLISHED.

MOORES AND BARBOUR HAVE DONE WELL

Features Have Been Chosen So as to Best Represent Attractions of Varsity Life.

The 1912 Oregana management has admittedly broken all records for class speed, having put out the largest and best book, on the unprecedented early date of May 2.

Since the book has been on sale at the Y. M. book exchange the copies have been going like hot cakes until now but a few of the 450 copies remain.

The annual is substantially bound in brown leather and from cover to cover is filled with photos, stories and jokes chosen in such a way as to best present college life at Oregon in all its attractive phases. The dedication is to Judge R. S. Bean, for many years head of the University Board of Regents. New and commendable features are the historical article by Mr. Dorris and the individual photographs of the entire Junior Class which is publishing the volume. All the college clubs and organizations are well represented, especial attention being paid to the allied colleges of the University located in Portland.

The book was printed and bound by the Portland Printing House and due to the haste with which the printing was done, some of the cuts are hardly up to standard but this is a small detraction and does not figure in the general attractiveness.

Editor Chester Moores, Manager Wendell Barbour, and the efficient staff particularly and the whole Junior Class generally are to be congratulated upon the early appearance of a book so well qualified to represent the University of Oregon.

Will C. Hurn, ex-'12, and Miss Greta Maude Williams were married at Klamath Falls recently. Mr. Hurn who is a member of the local chapter of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, is engaged in business with his father at Klamath Falls.

CO-EDS DEBATE FRIDAY

Oregon's Representatives Will Attempt to Out-Argue Women from Equal Suffrage State.

The inter-state co-ed debate will be the attraction Friday night in Villard Hall, when Miss Wise and Miss Degermark and Miss Clark attempt to defeat the Washington co-eds in the first women's debate ever held in Eugene.

The Washington team, accompanied by Miss Austin, Dean of Women, will arrive Thursday. The team is composed of Miss Elsa Dixon, a senior and secretary last year of the Associated Students; Miss Nellie Higgins, a sophomore, and Miss Iva Everett, a freshman.

The program for the debate has been arranged. Este Brosius will open it with a vocal solo, and following the debate Miss Lila Prosser will render a piano solo.

Miss Mary Perkins will preside at the contest which begins promptly at eight o'clock.

Ralph Hetzel, of O. A. C., and H. S. McCutcheon will be judges. The third judge has not yet been secured.

YIELDS DEADY TO BUGS

Dr. Edmunds Will Deliver His Speech in Girls' Gym Next Friday Evening

Pre?medics and others inclined to the medical profession will undoubtedly be interested in the address by Dr. C. W. Edmunds that will be given on Friday evening. This is the third address of the popular series on the various professions that is being given this spring before the Y. M. C. A. The subject on which Dr. Edmunds will speak is "The Responsibility of the Physician." The speaker, who is a graduate of the Michigan University and who has had many varied experiences in his medical career, is spoken of as an enthusiastic talker with a well-developed tone of humor.

Jerry Martin is scheduled for a vocal solo at this meeting. Old Deady Hall has been the place of meeting for the past ten or fifteen years, but owing to Geisler's desire to have access to a piano for the classy music numbers that he is providing, it has been decided to hold the meetings in the Girls' Gymnasium.

44 ASPIRANTS CHERISH POLITICAL AMBITIONS

PLETHORA OF GOOD MATERIAL PROPOSED FOR 12 STUDENT OFFICERS

FOUR WOULD BE STUDENT PRESIDENT

Orators Get Busy With Past, Present and Future Records of Prominent Nominees

From the time that Dave MacDaniels secured the chair's recognition and nominated Johns for Student Body president until Leigh Huggins proposed Leon Bratager as the lone possibility for assistant manager of the Oregon Monthly, the annual student nominating assembly was one long spasm of oratorical pyrotechnics and unbounded enthusiasm. Student after student was dragged before the assemblage, his record dissected and eulogized until the small non-combatant minority stood aghast at the mass of talent enrolled in the University and the number of self-sacrificing great ones who had never before been appreciated.

In all, forty-four candidates were proposed for the twelve student offices. For the two editorships of the Emerald and Monthly, and the assistant management of the latter, there were but one nomination each, while the numbers varied for the other offices up to nine for the associate editorship of the Oregon Monthly.

Charles Robinson with three proteges carried off the nominating record, though several spoke for two.

The candidates are: President of Student Body—James Johns, Martin Hawkins, Chester Moores and Leon Ray.

Vice-President—Jack Luckey, Raphael Geisler, Earl Jones and Theodore Williams.

Secretary—Birdie Wise, Jean Addison, Faye Clark, Ruth Merrick, Lilah Prosser and Mildred Bagley.

Executive Committee—Dave MacDaniels, Ben Chandler, John Kelly, Edward Himes and Bernie Baer.

Athletic Council—Homer Jamison, Tom Word, Graham Michael, Bill Neil, Earle Latourette and Edward Bailey.

Editor of Emerald—R. Burns Powell.

Manager of Emerald—Roland Kennedy, Vernon Vawter and Allan Roberts.

Assistant Manager—Walter Dobie and Harold Quigley.

Editor of Oregon Monthly—Carin Degermark.

Associate Editors of Monthly—Dorothy Campbell, Flora Dunham, Alma Peyton, Bones Allen, Hazel Wightman, Tom Word, Walter Bailey, Edward Bailey and Jane Knox.

Manager Oregon Monthly—Leigh Huggins, Lloyd Barzee.

Assistant Manager of Monthly—Leon Bratager.

Entries for the tennis tournament must be with Newland or posted on the bulletin board before Thursday night. Tryouts will begin immediately. In order to hurry the selection of the team, those who have no chance to make good will not be allowed to compete.

NEWLAND.
