Loquacious Women

The story is told that Wendell Phillips, at a Boston gathering where a garrulous woman had spoken extensively upon nothing in particular, arose and said deliberately: "Still, however, I am not in favor of immediately depriving women of the right to speak in public."

Possibly this expresses the dominant masculine attitude toward women speaking or debating from the public stage. That it is a totally fallacious one, might have been proven to the satisfaction of any one who took the trouble to attend last night's co-ed debate.

The women debaters, under the tutelage of Coach Buchen, to whom accrues much glory, had thoroughly mastered the economic problems involved and though speaking largely extempore expressed themselves with a fluency and ease that would put to shame the great majority of rabid masculine anti-suffragists. It convicted the Emerald heart and soul to the cause, and the editor hopes to carry a "Votes for Women" sign in the next "demonstration."

The debate was a highly instructive and interesting contest and it would be hard to over-state the credit due to the team and coach for last night's victory over the Washingtonians.

By defeating O. A. C. yesterday, W. S. C. puts Oregon in second place in the Conference Baseball League. Thus, once again this year, the rating is Washington first, Oregon second. If we take both games from Idaho and if Washington loses three more games on its trip through the Inland Empire, Coach Lynch's men will land the pennant. Here's hoping.

JOHN COLEMAN TO CAPTAIN 1912 STANFORD TRACK TEAM

H. S. Coleman, '12, of Los Angeles, was unanimously elected captain of the 1912 Stanford track team. Coleman has been a member of three Stanford track teams. In his freshman year Coleman captained the 1912 team against the California freshmen and won both sprints for his team. A week later he carried away both sprints in the varsity dual meet with University of California.

The students of the University of California will raise by popular subscription money to defray the expenses of four athletes to send to the conference meet at Minneapolis June 3rd. Three men thus far have been chosen: Beeson, hurdler; Allen, broad jumper, and Wood, distance runner. The fourth man will be chosen between Vail, the pole vaulter; Hale, Ready or Galbert, weight men. Captain Donald is ineligible to compete on account of conference three year rule.

The University of California has signed up for two games with Oregon, to be played May 31st and June 2nd. Multnomah will play here May 19th and 20th. This completes Oregon's schedule of post-season games.

OREGON TO BE REPRESENTED AT Y. M. C. BEACH CONFERENCE

As a result of the visit of Gale Seaman, Pacific Coast secretary of the Y. M. C. A., seven or eight men have already signified their intention to attend the Columbia Beach Conference that is held between the 16th and the 26th of June. On Monday evening about thirty men met at a "bean feed" at the city Y. M. C. A. and just following the feed listened to an address by Seaman on the conference which was illustrated by stereopticon views.

Among those who have signified their intention of attending are Dr. Leonard, Earl Jones, Clyde Pattee, Edward Himes, D. S. Lamm, Oscar Haugen, E. M. Brown. Probably twice that number are planning to go but cannot say definitely yet.

WOMEN'S EMERALD WILL BE HUMDINGER OF AN ISSUE

The annual women's edition of the Emerald will appear on the evening of Saturday, May 13th. It will be an extra edition of twenty pages with a special cover sheet and will contain a number of special articles of interest, such as of the mill race and of different co-ed organizations and the Junior week-end festivities. Many interesting and attractive cuts will also be a feature of the issue. There will be a society page and a pink sporting sheet inserted, which ought to lend interest, as all the sporting and society events of the week will be reviewed.

ROBISON'S INTER-STATE ORATION IS COMPLETED

Chas. W. Robison, Oregon's representative in the Inter-State Oratorical contest, to be held at the University of Washington May 26th, has submitted his oration to the management, and as soon as the judges are selected the orations will be graded upon composition, the grades, however, being withheld until the final decision, when both delivery and composition are factors in the decision.

Manager Huntington will accompany Robison to Seattle a day or two before the contest.

Hammond, the noted Stock Actor from the East, has taken charge of the Senior Class Play with vim. The rehearsals have shown considerable talent and Mr. Hammond prophesies that the production this year will eclipse all others. The date of the play has been set for May 27th, at the Eugene Theatre.
