WOMEN'S TENNIS ENTHUSIASM INCREASING DAY BY DAY

Women's tennis at the University of Oregon has had a wonderful impetus this spring, and great enthusiasm is being shown. Membership in the club is secured by a system of competitive tryouts, Miss Perkins being judge of the skill shown.

Fifteen girls took part in the first tryout, and three were successful, Frances Adams, Hazel Rader and Norma Graves.

FRESHMAN CLASS HOLDS AN IMPORTANT SESSION

At the best attended Freshman class meeting yet held, yesterday afternoon, a committee was authorized to consult with the "higher-ups" as to the rules and regulations concerning the annual bonfire of green caps. Junior Week-End is the customary time for the mournful event.

The Freshmen's part in the Canoe Carnival will be in the hands of Mr. Vierick. Something spectacular is promised.

The class' financial condition was also presented. With the outstanding bills from the dance, class hour expenses, and the coming Canoe Carnival, it was estimated that over a hundred dollars are yet needed. To meet the present deficit and future expenses, a tax of one dollar was levied.

PROF. F. S. DUNN DELIVERS SERIES CLASSICAL LECTURES

Prof. F. S. Dunn favored the students and faculty Tuesday evening with an illustrated lecture on "Cicero and Caesar." The lecture was one of a series of three on that subject, the first having been delivered last Wednesday evening.

The professor will conclude the series next Wednesday evening by a lecture, "An Eye Witness of Caesar's Camp." It will be held at 8 p. m., in McClure Hall, and he invites the attendance of all interested in the subject.

WILL FEED THE BRUTE

Co-Eds will Serve Dinner to Men After University Day Work.

Plans have been perfected, committees put to work, and an elaborate luncheon ordered for the University men who works upon the campus Saturday morning, and for the Weed-End guests and faculty.

Mary DeBar, the general chairman, has working under her, June Gray, Mabel Hill, Seniors; Erma Clifford, Jean Alison, Juniors; Nellie Hemmenway, Carin Degermark, Sophomores; Janet Young and Sarah Smith Freshmen. These girls will be assisted in serving by Alice Stoddard, Ruth Rolfe, Naomi Williamson, Winnifred Kerr, Grace Hobbs, Merle McKelvey, Clementine Auten, Frieda Goldsmith, Ruby Hammerstrom, Faye Ball, Flo Cleveland, Mabel Lawrence, Bessie Anderson and about a dozen freshmen.

In order to better serve the large number of guests and workers expected, the cafeteria system will be used. The meats and salads will be placed on a long table and each person will serve himself and then find a place on the lawn. Here sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee will be passed to him. The "working men" will be served first, then the University guests and faculty and lastly any town people who may be present. Since preparations are being made for about one thousand, there is certain to be enough for all.

In case of rain, the "feed" will be held either in the dormitory or the gymnasium.

OREGON LEADS IN FIFTH

Score 2 to 1 in Fifth Inning, Though Still Any One's Game Many Errors Made.

In the fifth inning Coach Lynch's men are leading the Muscovites 2 to 1. Jamison is pitching for Oregon Robinson for Idaho.

Idaho began in the first and by an error, stolen base and passed ball, scored once.

In the third Roberts and Jamison scored on a bunt, an error and another bunt by Chandler.

The game is not as well played as recent Varsity contests though it is an exciting one and is being thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

Up to date two hits have been made off both pitchers.

The O. A. C. track team defeated Whitman by a slight margin of four points.

CANOE CARNIVAL PLANS TAKING DEFINITE SHAPE

EUGENE BUSINESS MEN HAVE BEEN LIBERAL IN CONTRIBUTING PRIZES

COLD WATER FORBIDS SOME EVENTS

Others Have Been Substituted However, and Everything Points to Successful Regatta

The long, continued inclement weather has made necessary a few changes in the program of events for the Canoe Carnival, but otherwise arrangements are complete and every indication points to this new event being one of the most successful in the whole Week-End program.

Due to the cold water, it has been found inadvisable to schedule the events requiring long immersion in the mill race and for the mile swim and for the water polo and baseball have been substituted three events which are expected to prove equally interesting. These are high and fancy diving contests and two short canoe races. One of these races will be for men's teams, distance 600 yards, and the other will be a mixed double race, 600 yards. The courses for both these, as for the ladies' double, will be 600 yards. They will start at the judges' stand, go down stream, turn in the slow water above the headgates and finish at the starting point. Spectators will thus be enabled to see both the start and the finish.

The prize for winning any event will be either a silver trophy cup or prize equivalent to $5.00 or more. This has been made possible by the generosity of the Eugene business men and Commercial Club. In addition to the six silver trophy cups previously announced, the Eugene Commercial Club will donate $10.00, the Promotion Department, $5.00, and Mr. M. J. Duryea, president of the former organization, $5.00, individually. To absolve the winners from all charge of professionalism, this money will be in the shape of $5.00 orders on the local merchants. In addition, McMorran & Washburne will give a beautiful Indian robe.

The complete lists of events and prizes is as follows:

- Tipping contest, $5 prize.
- Men's doubles, race, cup.
- Men's doubles, dash, 600 yards, cup.
- Women's doubles, 600 yards, cup.
- Mixed doubles, 600 yards, $5 prize.
- Tilting contest, cup.
- Tub race, between classes, cup.
- Best decorated class float, cup.
- Best decorated house float, cup.
- Best decorated individual boat, $5 prize.
- 100 yard swim, $5 prize.
- Diving contests, $5 prize.

Lances for the tilting contest must be provided. They must not exceed ten feet in length and must be generously padded to avoid possibility of injury and to pass the inspection of "Hippo" Gillis, who will be general referee of the contests.

Provided that insufficient entries are made in any event, the committee reserves the right to cancel the contest. Entries must be made by Thursday evening either to the committee by application or when the committee calls on the various houses.

The morning events will begin at 9:30. The evening pageant at 8:15. Provision is being made to provide

VARSIETY WOMEN MAKE BIG PREPARATIONS FOR PAPER

The Women's Edition of the Emerald will be out Saturday evening at six o'clock. It will be an eighteen paged issue, and will cover more particularly all the interests of the women of the University. Beside the clever cartoons and pictures of actual happenings in college life, however, the regular news of the week will be secured.

Various departments—athletics, society, editorials—will be in charge of the assistant editors, and will be given greater space than is usual.

ONLY WAIT FOR CURTAIN

"At Yale" Cast Promises to Produce College Play Second to None Next Thursday

"At Yale" is ready and will be presented tomorrow evening at the Eugene theatre to the students and their friends for criticism.

The plot centers about a boat race between Yale and Harvard and the efforts of a commercially minded student to make a "killing" on bets by keeping the Yale captain from entering the race. It contains many complex and exciting scenes and the Dramatic Club is confident that it can meet the requirements of the play to the satisfaction of the most critical.

The seat sale opened this morning and indicates the attendance of a large audience. The seats sell for $.50, $.75 and $1.00.

The cast of principal characters is as follows:

- Dick Seely .....Donald Lamm
- Mr. Clayton Randall .....Wm. Beals
- Jack Randall .....Harold Warner
- Dave Burley .....Charles Robison
- Jimsey .....Frances Curtis
- Mrs. Randall .....Jean Allison
- Dorothy Randall .....Helen Beach
- Polly Burk .....Alice Farnsworth
- Mame Brady .....Mildred Waite

With an excellent cast, a coach surpassed by no one on the Pacific coast and a typical college play, the Seniors promise to outdo themselves on May 27th.

Miss Flora Dunham is at her Portland home with a slight indisposition.

MAY NUMBER GOOD ONE

Collins Outdoes Himself in Expiring Effort for His Last Issue of Magazine.

The last issue of the Oregon Monthly will be out in about two weeks, and will furnish a fitting climax to a highly successful volume. The mill race and the campus in their romantic aspect form the setting of all the features of the magazine, from the cover design by Lucile Abrams to the poetical triumphs of Dean Collins; from Walter Bailey's tribute to the late Midnight Doughnut" to Barzee's Abbreviated Biographies, the closing number of Volume XIV embodying the sentiment that is reflected from the Oregon Spirit borne away by the departing alumni.

seating for any number on the bank of the race immediately below the engineering building. The start and finish of events will be there and the reviewing stand to be occupied by Queen Ruth immediately opposite.
