MR. SUREN BOSEN TALKS ON PEOPLE OF INDIA

Hindu Scholar Gives Able Exposition
 of His Land and the People
 Assembly

That the present civilization in India is as high as that reached by any other country and that the Hindus were pioneers in the fields of science and philosophy was stated by Surem M. Bosen, a Hindu student, at this morning's Assembly.

Mr. Bosen is a high caste Indian who has received university training at Calcutta, Tokio and Stanford. His talk was illustrated by some splendid lantern slides illustrating life in India and the wonderful productions of Hindu architecture.

The speaker stated that India is the only survivor of the ancient countries, that it has preserved itself by its policy of peace, and that it has always offered a refuge for the oppressed. He claimed that the sciences of arithmetic, algebra, geometry and trigonometry were originated by Hindus and that they long ago discovered the law of gravitation and the rotation of the earth.

He admits that there are many social evils in India but says that he has never found a land that is free from them and believes that his people can solve their own difficulties as well as others.

An erroneous report has been spread to the effect that the finals in the Interscholastic Meet will be pulled off Saturday morning. The facts are the preliminaries will come off Friday morning and the finals Friday afternoon; both on the same day. The Tri-State Meet is Saturday p. m.

COMPLETE ALL PLANS FOR UNIVERSITY DAY

Louis Pinkham and Mary DeBar
 Will Have General Charge of Work and Feed

Louis H. Pinkham, chairman of all the University Day committees, has posted the assignments for the Saturday morning campus work.

Miss Mary DeBar, who was appointed by the executive committee general chairman of the noonday feed is busy making preparations to feed a thousand.

The luncheon this year will be served on the cafeteria plan as last year's experience demonstrated that adequate service is extremely difficult for such crowds. The bread line will pass by the various distributing stations and be liberally helped in addition, the girls will circulate among the crowd ready to replenish the ravenous. It is planned this year, to try as far as possible to feed first the actual workers and after that to satisfy the outsiders.

Following are the assignments: Painting "O":

Bill Main in charge. Drew, Fisher, Furset, Gabriel, Harding, Houston, Huntington, Lowell, Moore, Moores, Randall, E. Smith, Williams.

Painting Roof Engineering Building:

Bean, Dumton, Geisler, Dunlap, Marshall, Odell, Schanton, Statsney, Stewart, Stine, St. John, Turner, and Word.

Building Cement Walk

Michael and Himes in charge. All senior and all junior engineers.

Moving Tennis Court:

Verner Gilles in charge. All sophomores and all freshmen.

Water Wagon:

O'Leary, Whitman.

SENIOR PLAY IS RAPIDLY
 NEARING COMPLETION

Mr. Hammond is fast whipping the caste for the Senior Play into shape. Most of the characters know their lines and the main work ahead is adding the "professional touches."

Mr. Hammond comes with a reputation from the east as a notable leader in stock productions. His life has been spent in Dramatic work, and his coaching the Senior Play insures the latter's success.

The plot of the play selected deals with a college graduate of the modern type, just out of college. He enters the whirl of business life with an air of common compus egotism. He goes into a wildcat scheme and bluffs his perspective father-in-law into parting with the bulk of his fortune. Unlike most modern plays, the hero wins his bread and butter along with the bride. A novel feature of the show is the modern up-to-date method of business introduced by the progressive college grad.

ORATORS AND NEAR ORATORS SPEAK IN VILLARD TONIGHT

The Junior Orations will be held at Villard Hall on Wednesday evening, May 10 at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of six orations and a few music numbers. Mr. Leon Ray will give his oration, entitled, "The Old Order Changeth," in substitution for Miss Fay Clark's oration. The other five orators of the evening are Miss Grace Adams, Miss Alma Payton, Mr. Ralph Moores, Miss Hazel Wightman and Mr. Wm. E. St. John.

Miss Marjorie Holcomb will render a piano solo, Jean Allison a vocal solo, and Misses Alberta Campbell and Nell Murphy a piano duet.

Pres. P. L. Campbell and James Johns, University football captain, signed a contract yesterday with Mr. T. P. Gore, the blind Senator from Oklahoma, who is thereby scheduled to speak on Nov. 4, the night of the Whitman-Oregon football game. The speech will be delivered in Villard hall.
