ATHLETES COME FROM THIRTY OREGON SCHOOLS

Long List of Fast Preparatory Stars Who Will Participate In Friday's Track Meet

With one hundred and thirty contestants entered from thirty high schools of the state, the Interscholastic Track Meet scheduled for Friday morning and afternoon promises to be the most important event of the kind ever held in the Northwest.

The preliminaries will occur in the morning. As many as forty men are entered in some of the events, and the number in each case will be reduced by elimination to six contestants. These will fight for final honors and medals Friday afternoon.

A single admission of seventy-five cents will be charged for the entire meet. Manager Cockerline urges that all students support the contest with their presence, for he not only needs their money but must have a crowd out to greet the High School athletes and make them feel at home on Kincaid Field.

The list of entries that have been received by Manager Cockerline are as follows:

St. Johns High School—Magone, Smith, Smock, Thurmond;
