WILLIE BEALS TO EDIT RECORD Y. M. C. A. HANDBOOK

Proposed Issue Will Contain 100 Pages of Useful Information and Directories

Last evening at the Y. M. C. A. meeting, William Beals was elected editor of the new Y. M. C. A. Handbook. He will begin work immediately with the manager who will choose in getting prices from publishing companies and in getting the material for the book written up by the representative men of every college activity. The book gotten out last year contained but sixty-seven pages, while the new one will contain about one hundred. All the Oregon songs, yells, traditions, customs, rules for freshmen, and features of interest in connection with Oregon will be found in the book. The names and addresses of all the fraternities and clubs, the names of the managers, captains, trainers and coaches of athletics, oratory and debate will be given, the records of athletics and the holders of records, and a write up of each individual activity will be found in this publication. These and other features will make the book of continual value to every man in the University. The cost of such a publication will be about one hundred and sixty or seventy dollars, which will be large covered by advertising. Any deficit is supplied from the treasury of the Y. M. C. A.

These books will be ready by the first of next year and will be distributed free among the men of the school.

"I never saw an office yet where the book-keeper couldn't give the superintendent pointers on how to run his business."—Dean Collins as Rufus in "Just Out of College."

"Are you the typewriter? No. This is the typewriter, I am the stenographer." Willetta Wright as Miss McCormick in "Just Out of College."

"I'm going to show that Ostermoor thing how to take a joke."—Icky Ogden as Mason in "Just Out of College"

"I will now connect with the feathers."—Icky Ogden as Mason in "Just Out of College."

Miss Doris Foster spent the last week end with her sister at the Tri Delta house.

NOBODY NEGLECTED IN AWARD OF '13 NUMERALS

Sophomores Give Coveted Emblem to Thirty-five Distinguished Class Members

Twenty seven Sophomore men and eight Sophomore girls have received the class numerals.

Those receiving the numeral for football are, Allen, Hawley, Waite, Murphy, Krieger, Barzee, Bailey, Wentworth, Sweet, Cozens, Caro, and Storie.

Those making the numeral in basketball are Harold Broughton, Nitsky Service and C. Simms. In track, McClure, Zimmerman and Holmes.

Those winning their numerals in more than one activity were Dean Walker, football and basketball; W. Neil, track and basketball; Bob Kuykendall, football and track; Kay, football, track and basketball.

Of the girls, the following won numerals in basketball: Misses Morrison, Waite, Watt, Degermark, Gilkey, Tiffany, Lewis and Roach. Oratory: Carlton Spencer.

Numerals were given to those who had played one full half in any interclass football game or seven full halves in basketball; to the girl who had played two full games; to those who had won a first place or nine points in any interclass meet; to those who won a Varsity "O"; to a leader or manager of Varsity Glee Club for one season; to the leader of an intercollegiate debate or oratorical contest.

The design consists of a gold "13" enclosed in a black diamond, 3 inches on a side, and the whole set off by a quarter inch gold border.

The Sophomore Council which made the awards consisted of Dean Walker, Dan Mitchel, Will Neil and Prof. Bovard.

ACTORS ARE SATISFYING THE INNER MAN AT THE OSBURN

All is in readiness for the banquet of the Thespians. While this paper is going to press forty members of the Dramatic Club and their coaches are enjoying the fruits of their strenuous labor. At six o'clock they sit down to a bounteous spread in the grill room of the Hotel Osburn. After all have been satisfied with those things which please the appetite, toasts will be called for by Toastmaster Prof. I. M. Glen. Wililam Beals will respond for the seniors. Naomi Wililams as past secretary will respond with the history of the club. F. E. Dunton, the new president, will tell of plans for the future. The only absent member, Chas. W. Robison, who is in Seattle representing Oregon in the oratorical contest, will be remembered.

The proceeds of "At Yale" places a goodly sum in the treasury and as there is no urgent call for the money, the club is promoting good fellowship by means of a spread.

The membership in the club is limited to twenty of each sex and only those who show special "class" in the tryouts are admitted. However, the management wish all who have or think they have dramatic talent to try out at the opening of school in the fall.

LAUREANS WILL FEAST UPON VIANDS AND SPICY TOASTS

The Laureans will hold their second annual banquet Thursday evening from six to eight o'clock at the Osburn Hotel. This is the last event in the society's activities this year.

Under the instigation of Toastmaster Gillis the menu will be spiced with many bits of wit and wisdom. "Hippo" will call for the following: Spencer, "Winning a Contest." Ray, "Washington Must be Defeated." Statsney, "She Loves Me, She Loves Me Not." Dunton, "Do the Laureans Need a Rival." Mtochenbacher, "The Laurean Frosh." P. Collier, "Upper Classmen in the Society." Zimmerman, "Our Better Half, the Eutaxians." Jones, "Our Destiny."
