We are Prepared With Everything You need for Commencement Week

Long before you started your busy preparations for commencement exercises we were searching the markets for the pretty and useful things you would need to look your best during this important event.

These new, up-to-date and stylish goods are all here ready for your selections and no matter how fastidious you may be you will surely find among our splendid stocks of white goods, gloves, hosiery, neckwear, and other necessary things just that which best suits your individual taste or requirements.

SOMETHING FOR THE MEN, TOO.

Smart dress suits and other things the men need in great variety. Our men's department is the Home of Original Styles in men's wear. Exclusive patterns in men's suits, special models for business and college men, complete stocks of dress suits and accessories.

VALEDICTORY NUMBER OF MONTHLY BEST YET

In May Issue, Devoted to Publications,
Collins Says Farewell to Readers

The May number of the Oregon Monthly is off the press, and as it is the last of Editor Collins' efforts at Oregon, so is it also the best. It is devoted to the mill race, that classic haunt of the Oregon "pigger," and to the Varsity publications.

The real literary feature of the magazine is the Masque of the Mill Race, an extravaganza by Editor Collins, which is one of the most delightfully fanciful efforts that has ever come from the pen of Oregon's versatile literary genius. It comes in the nature of a farewell to his customary haunt. There are also interesting articles on the race in all its phases, and a separate writeup of the various University publications. The literary department is filled with a number of stories by several writers comparatively new to the Monthly readers.

The editorial is in the nature of a valedictory to the University from Editor Collins, and is a very modest review of the great work he has accomplished in literary lines since his entrance two years ago.

The Who's Who and Since When department treats the literary lights of the college and exposes the lives of such characters as Carin Degermark, Ralph Moores, Chester Moores, Dean Collins, Ted Williams, Leigh Huggins, Birdie Wise, Lloyd Barzee, Willetta Wright, Alma Payton, Lucile Abrams, Dan Mitchell, Fendel Waite and Evans Huston.

PREPPERS WILL STRUGGLE FOR FORENSIC STATE CHAMPIONS

For the third successive year Pendleton High School will send a debating team to compete in the finals of the state interscholastic debating league. This championship will be decided June 2 in Villard Hall and Grants Pass will send its second team into the struggle.

The present championship is held by Pendleton, whose team under the leadership of the redoubtable P. Campbell Crockett won last year's debate. Pendleton is touted as having a strong bunch of intellectual fencers again this year and is bringing down from the sagebrush a determination to again demonstrate the superiority of Eastern Oregon.

The efficiency of these two high schools in this important line of endeavor is attributed to the earnest coaching of members of their faculties and the interest which victory has stimulated.

Next Friday's contest will be free and all Varsity students are urged to attend.

GOVERNOR OSWALD WEST WILL ADDRESS ASSEMBLY WED'Y

Oswald West, Governor of the State of Oregon, will deliver the assembly address next Wednesday. His subject is not yet announced, but he has a reputation as a forceful, incisive speaker, well worth hearing.

Because of this address, which all the students are urged to attend, the voting on the proposed A. S. B. constitutional amendments will be postponed to a later date, possibly Wednesday afternoon, when ample time will be allowed for full and free discussion of the various pros and cons.

The first of a series of six recitals to be given by the University School of Music occurred this afternoon in the Boys' Dormitory before a number of friends of the participants. It was a success in every respect and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Memorial Day will not be observed by any special exercises this year unless the matter is taken up Monday. But by a decree of the faculty the day will be a holiday nevertheless.
