STUDENTS ADOPT GRAD MANAGERSHIP SYSTEM

Amendment Providing For New Official Passes Almost Unopposed.

At a meeting of the student body last Monday afternoon the amendment, providing for the adoption of the graduate manager system was carried by practically unanimous vote and next year's student activities will be conducted by one manager.

Two years ago, the vote was taken on a similar amendment, but was voted down. Since that time student sentiment seems to have undergone a decisive change. This is probably due to the fact that all of the other large colleges on the coast have found that the graduate manager has been able to save more than his salary.

The amendment providing for the change in the method of grading the orations in the tryouts for the Intercollegiate and Interstate contest, was passed, being amended to the effect that the committee on Oratory and Debate should select the judges and that no Varsity orator or debator should be appointed on the committee on Oratory and Debate.

Forensic numerals for the season just closed were awarded amid loud cheers. Gold "O" pins were given to Lilah Clark, Birdie Wise, Carin DeCarleton Spencer, and Vernon Motgermark, Percy Collier, Charles Robinson, Leon Ray, Howard Zimmerman, Schenbacher.

This being the last meeting of the year the newly elected Executive Committee was sworn in, and Prexy Collier gave up the gavel to his successor.

PAJAMA "PERADE" WAKES FRAT HOUSE INMATES

Whether every one had finished their exams satisfactorily, or whether they were just intoxicated by the moonlight, considerable unquenchable exhilaration broke loose in "fraternitydom" last night and early this morning.

It all started in a serenading party on Alder street. Everyone was feeling restless, anyhow, and before long every house was a bedlam of noise. Oregon yells were given and answered from afar off. Horns and bugles tooted and Jamie yelled. Finding the moment propitious, a few restless spirits started a "perade" and went from house to house, waking everyone and gathering accretions of pajama clad "sleep walkers."

Practically all the fraternity houses were visited and the festivities terminated in a bonfire and rally in front of the Beaver house.

It was a farewell jollification and probably had its justification in the close of the exam season and in the intoxicating moonlight.

CO-OPERATION PROPOSED FOR CANOE TRIPS DOWN RIVER

A number of enthusiastic canoeists are talking of making the usual trip home down the Willamette River and several parties are being made up for the jaunt.

For the purpose of promoting fellowship and making the trip more pleasant as well as safer, it has been suggested that one or two parties be made up. The newly organized University Canoe Club has taken up the matter and has the names of several of the students proposing to make the river trip. If names of others are handed in to Ralph Moores the most convenient dates will be selected, so as to please the largest number and good sized caravans organized. Names and desired dates should be put in as soon as possible.

The newly elected officers of the Oregon club are: E. L. Keezel, president; Eva Frazer, secretary; E. C. Davis, treasurer. Byron Goodall, member executive committee.
