Enlargement.

It is our ambition to enlarge the Emerald, adding to the bi-weekly a two page insert. This enlargement is necessary to include all the news. The activity on the campus is growing and news of it alone will fill the present four page issue. There are also several departments of news that have been neglected heretofore, but are deserving of space. The work being done in the Academic Departments should be more fully treated in our columns. Our faculty is continuously doing meritorious work that the majority of students know nothing of. The High schools should be corresponded with and a closer acquaintanceship developed. They are our recruiting grounds. We should know what they are doing and they should know what we are doing; and every High school should know what the others are doing. A column of High school squibs and the Emerald sent to every Prep school in the state will help in this.

The entire Alumni association will receive the Emerald this year, according to an agreement entered into by Manager Dobie and the association last June. If the paper is to be of interest to the Alumni, it must contain news of what our grads are doing. This department will be placed in the hands of some one person, presumably an Alumnist, who will learn of their triumphs and tribulations and allow the public to rejoice and sympathize with them. Last but not least our Campus Poets and Village Comedians should be given an opportunity to see in print those things the more De Luxe Monthly declines to accept. The campus abounds with wit and humor, and a judicial amount of this lighter vein will liven up the pages of the Emerald to advantage, and do the Monthly no harm. The editor, who is himself a bromide, is on the lookout for budding literary geniuses, and earnestly begs all such to make themselves known.

The enlargement will take place as soon as the staff is in good working order and the manager has secured the necessary amount of extra advertising and made arrangements for printing.

THE SAGE OF PODUNK MAKES A FEW REMARKS

A soft answer seldom appeaseth the prof.

Many Freshmen find out they haven't got a pipe when they get an order to smoke-up.

There is lots of room at the top, but the elevator going up don't carry passengers.

Some people gaze at the stars, but most of us are satisfied with the chorus.

1st Fresh: "Who's the guy that shouts numbers all the time?" 2nd Fresh: "He's the head of the mathematics department." 3rd Fresh: No, he ain't. That's Sap Latour-ette."

Many people carry their heads high because there is no weight to bother them.

Some Freshmen are impressed only when suppressed.

The editor ought to have his wits about him part of the time at least.

Be Kind to the Freshie.

Be kind to the Freshie that comes to our door, for teacher and classes will buffet him sore. Although he's at times unbearably gay, don't be in a hurry to chase him away. Just keep him and borrow a slice of his pile, and repay him at leisure with a nod or a smile. His time here is uncertain, nothing is sure, as he flirts with mathematics and Shakesperian lure. He was here last week and he's here today, but tomorrow he's liable to be on his way. Thus the prof's keep him guessing, and guessing in vain; such a thing is distressing—don't add to its pain; be kind to the fresh, and he'll be your friend, and help you to a halo and harp in the end. B. C., '14.

Edward "Barney" Oldfield, '13, is at the University of Washington this year.

ENGINEERS ELECT JONES MONTHLY CORRESPONDENT

At an informal meeting of the students of the engineering department, held last Friday, J. Earl Jones, a senior civil engineer, was chosen as engineering editor for the Oregon Monthly. Miss Degermark, editor of the Monthly, has accepted the recommendation of the engineers and will endeavor to make engineering news a feature of the Monthly. Mr. Jones wants every engineering student to feel responsible for the success of the engineering section of the Monthly and to aid him not only by their moral support, but with copy, suggestions and ideas as well.

TRACK WARRIORS CALLED TO WAR CHIEFS COUNCIL

The meeting for all men interested in track and field athletics called by Bill Hayward yesterday, was attended by only a few of the old guard. The announcement, which was posted in the gymnasium, was read by only a fraction of the student body, and to this lack of advertising is attributed the poor showing.

Another meeting will be held this afternoon in the gymnasium at 4 o'clock, and as it will be announced at the general student assembly this morning, a large attendance and much enthusiasm is expected.

DRAMATIC CLUB TRYOUT TO OCCUR THURSDAY P. M.

The Dramatic Club has posted notices for a business meeting Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, in Villard Hall, for the purpose of electing two officers to fill vacancies left by officers leaving college.

At 7:15 the committee will meet those wishing to tryout for places in the club. The club is extremely anxious for a lot of new material this year, as a number of its stellar lights have left college through graduation. Every one with any gift for or inclination towards the histrionic art should make a special effort to be present at the tryout.

DEATH KNELL OF PHILOSOUNDS AS BAILEY DESERTS

An echo, probably the last, of the passing of the Philologian Debating Society, was awakened last Saturday, when Walter Bailey, '12, one of the last faithful supporters of the "Seekers after Wisdom," went over to the enemy, and was initiated into the Laurean Society. This is considered a tacit admission on the part of the Philologians that they have given up all hope of reorganization.

A dinner party was given on Monday evening by the Gamma Delta Gamma girls in honor of Miss Powell, of Berkeley. Those invited to meet her were Pres. and Mrs. Campbell, Prof. and Mrs. DeCou, Prof. and Mrs. Bovard, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chambers, Prof. Thurber, and Mr. M. D. Spencer.

An informal reception was given last Tuesday afternoon by the Gamma Delta Gammas to meet Miss Powell, Kappa Kappa Gamma, of Berkeley. Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Chambers, assisted by Margarete Rohse, Florence Avery and Eva Roche, served tea.

Miss Ethel Tooze, who attended the University three years ago, returned Tuesday evening to resume her collegiate work.

T. H. Beverly, a gifted Portland attorney, who is also a University of Alabama man, will speak at Y. M. C. A. meeting Friday.

Miss Josie Morehead, of the Tri Delta house, is spending the week end in Junction City with her parents.

Gamma Phi Beta entertained with an informal dancing party last Saturday evening.

Carlyle Yaden, ex-'13, is registered at the U. of O. Law School in Portland.
