

BOB KELLOGG HEADS OREGON SENIOR CLASS

JESSE BIBEE ELECTED VICE-PRESIDENT—PANSY SHAFER SECRETARY.

GRAY SOMBRERO ADOPTED AS HEAD GEAR

Bill Main, Hal Bean, Judge Homer and Ruth Merrick Elected to Student's Affairs Committee.

The Seniors assembled in Dr. Schmidt's room, one hundred and ten strong, Thursday afternoon, and elected the last corps of officers they will ever elect.

Bob Kellogg was made president over R. D. Moores, his only rival for the honor. Jessie Bibee was elected vice-president over Alma Payton. Pansy Shafer received the secretaryship, Edward Himes the treasurership, and Buford Jones, the diminutive giant from McMinnville, in a spirited contest, carried off the class marshall honors.

Ruth Merrick, Hal Bean, Judge Horner and Bill Main were made senior members of the Student's Affairs committee.

The report of treasurer Himes showed a balance of some $15.00 on hand. The seniors are quite proud of their financial record. In all three years not more than $2.00 tax per person has been levied, and last year the members were not taxed at all.

The matter of distinction wearing apparel for the senior men was taken up, canes, sweaters, caps and the articles of class were proposed, the one, however, to receive the honor was the distinctively western head gear, gray sombrero, and in a short time it is expected that all senior men will be wearing them.

SOPHS MUST KEY DOWN

Prominent Varsity Men Appear in Togs that Set Campus Buzzing With Gossip

The dapper and dignified derby will be withheld in the future from aspirant Beau Brummels of the sophomore class, according to a resolution introduced by upper classmen and passed at the meeting of the Associated Student Body last Wednesday.

The theory is that the sudden exaltation from the degrading green freshman cap to the imposing "dicer" might prove disastrous to the mental balance of the under-classmen, and in order to avoid any possible cases of cranium enlargement the present edict is sent forth. The sophomores may wear soft felt hats or any variety of cap, but the "plug hat" will henceforth be sported exclusively by juniors and seniors.

The resolution adopted reads as follows: Whereas, during the last few years in the University of Oregon, there has been a slow but gradual development of sentiment favorable to the more simple forms of class distinction; and whereas, we believe such simple distinctions work for social betterment and more enthusiastic college spirit on our campus.

Therefore, be it resolved that we, the student body of the University of Oregon do hereby restrict the wearing of hard felt hats (commonly known as derbys), among students, to upper-classmen only.

And be it further resolved, that we as individual students, will lend our heartiest support to the enforcement of this tradition.

U. OF W. TO CELEBRATE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSITY

The University of Washington is planning a celebration of its fiftieth anniversary, beginning Nov. 4, that promises to surpass anything yet attempted by an educational institution of the west.

Invitations to speak at the coming semi-centennial have been sent to Ambassador James Bryce, President Emeritus, Charles W. Elliot of Harvard, President Arthur D. Hadley of Yale, and Abbot L. Lowell of Harvard, by Professor Meany, head of the committee on arrangements for the event. An attempt will be made to gather together a number of educators not only of national but world-wide repute. Invitations have also been extended to all the universities in the country, and many have promised to send delegates to the celebration.

INITIAL TRYOUT IS HELD

President Dunton Urges That More Candidates Try for Club Membership.

The Dramatic Club, under the leadership of Forrest Dunton, held its first meeting and initial tryout Thursday evening in Villard Hall. Cass Kennedy, who was re-elected treasurer for the ensuing year, turned in a creditable balance of cash on hand. Those placed upon the provisional list for a future tryout were Messrs. Hugh Currin, Chester Moores, Joe Ingle, Earl Jones, R. M. Wray, E. L. Anderson, Leland Finch, and Misses Flora Dunham, Gertie Taylor, and Bessie Cowden.

Another preliminary tryout will be held next Thursday evening at 7:30 in Villard to select another provisional list of candidates. A final tryout will be held in the near future, when the eight vacancies for men, and the six vacancies for women will be filled.

Speaking of men material, President Dunton said, "I want to urge everyone in college, who has talent along this line to be on hand for the preliminary tryout, for this is positively the last chance that will be given. There will be several plays given during the course of the year, and a chance for all to take part. The Dramatic Club this year promises to be the strongest in its history, but we must have more candidates."

MRS. CHAMBERS HOME THROWN OPEN TO Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Chambers opened the doors of her beautiful home on Eleventh street to the members of the Advisory Board for the entertainment of the girls of the University, on Saturday, October 7th, from 3 until 5 o'clock. Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Sweetser took charge of the entertainment. The afternoon was devoted to "getting acquainted," and many games chosen for that purpose, were enthusiastically participated in by all.

The Misses Eleanor McClaine, Ruth Merrick, and Marjory Holcomb, furnished the music.

Miss Clark, assisted by Miss Ermel Miller, the new general secretary of Y. W. C. A., received the guests at the door.

The spacious living room and reception hall were abloom with yellow chrysanthemums and hanging baskets of green ferns.

Mrs. Snodgrass presided in the den, where chocolate and cake were served. In the dining room a profusion of pink roses and trailing Virginia creeper dominated. Mrs. Straub and Mrs. Prentice poured tea and served sandwiches and cakes.

SURPRISE SPRUNG IN MATTERS OF GRADES

SO-CALLED "BONERS" DO NOT GET HIGHER GRADES THAN THOSE IN ACTIVITIES

REGISTRAR TIFFANY GIVES STATISTICS

Grades of Orators and Debaters Are Highest in the List of Summary.

Those who have had the idea that students taking part in student activities get lower grades than those who do not, will have to admit themselves mistaken, if the statistics compiled and published by Registrar Tiffany are to be taken authoritatively.

The general average of students in this University not taking part in any student activity, figured from names beginning with A and B, is 85 per cent. For those whose names begin with K and L, 82 per cent.

The average grade of the football men for the first semester, is 85.3 per cent; of the Glee Club men, 86.8 per cent; of the track men, 88.4 per cent; and of the debaters and orators, 91.4 per cent. The average grade of students taking part in more than one activity is 87.6 per cent for the first semester and 85.3 per cent for the second semester.

Before this it has been thought that the "boners" were those not participating in college activities and that the grades of those interested in the activities would average much lower than those not interested. Perhaps the alfalfa delegation, that delights so to find fault with our "overdone" college life, can find food for thought in these statistics.

The following is the complete summary:

	Highest Student	Lowest Student	1st Sem.	2nd Sem.	Genl. Aver.
Students not in activities, A-B	96	74	85.9	85.5
Students not in activities, K-L	92	69.5	82.1	82.9
Football team	93.5	78.7	85.3	84
Basketball team	84.3	73.6	80.6	80.9
Glee Club	96	80	86.8	86.3
Debate and oratory	95.4	85.3	90.6	91.4
Track team	93.5	71.2	88.4	84.2
Baseball team	93.6	76.2	82.6	82.2
Students in more than one activity	93.5	81.5	87.4	85.6
Freshman football	92.2	71.2	82	82.2
Freshman basketball	89.7	75	83.4	82.9

"Deacon White," a prominent member of last year's Senior class, and an A. T. O. at the University, is farming on a small scale near Portland. Of course, this is but a side issue in the Deacon's routine of life.

The entire sophomore mining class at the University of Idaho have adopted the pompadour style of haircut.

Students who wish to get work of any kind should list their names with Secretary Koyle at Book Exchange.

Horace Belknap, '14, is registered at the U. of O. School of Medicine, in Portland.

VARSIITY Y. M. C. A. BEGINS REGULAR MEETINGS FRIDAY

The University Y. M. C. A. began its series of regular meetings with a well attended session in the Women's gym Friday evening.

The lecturer for the first meeting was Mr. T. G. Beverly, an attorney of Portland. Mr. Beverly held the interest of the crowd by a well organized talk on the Bible as a book full of valuable and interesting information, as well as wonderful literature. He showed that anyone who would give the book a little more attention than a mere cursory reading, would be struck by the beauty and vividness of its contents.

An important feature of the meeting was a report by Secretary Koyle on the work of the book exchange and employment bureau.

GRADUATES MAKE GOOD

Thirty-two Members of 1911 Class Hold Prominent Positions in State Schools.

Thirty-two of last years senior class at the University of Oregon are now occupying responsible positions as principals and instructors in the high schools of the state, at wages ranging from one hundred to one hundred and fifty dollars a month. The demand among high schools for University graduates was so great that practically all of the graduating class could have secured positions in the educational field, had they so desired.

The following are the educational lights from the class of 1911 and their schools:

Edith Baker, Oregon City High school; William Beals, Junction City, Superintendent; Emma Belat, Bandon; Cecelia Bell, Washington; Beulah Bridges, Brownsville; Jessie Calkins, Nyssa; Lilah Clark, Heppner; Gertrude Denhart, U. of O. English dept.; Olive Donnell, Eugene; Myron Getchell, Alico, principal; Madge Hamble, Ada; Mabel Hill, Drain; Gertrude Holmes, Gresham; Virginia Hurd, Hale; Hattie Hyde, Eugene; Pearl Johnson, Sheridan; Laura Kenyon, Cottage Grove; Maybell Larsen, Clatskanie; Effie McCallum, Eugene Bible University; William Moses, Jefferson; Ruth Rolfe, Yoncalla; Alice Stoddard, Elgin; Naomi Williamson, McMinnville; Edith Witzel, Burns; Francis Curtis, Eugene; Ferdinand Struck, Tacoma; Blanch Ross, Portland; Howard Drew, Cove; Goldie Van Bibber, supervisor Lane county schools; Roy Andrews, supervisor Lane county schools; R. C. McCoy, Clatskanie High school, principal; Jettie Shroll, Florence; Helen Van Duyn, Walthville High school, principal.

LAUREANS WILL PRESENT FIRST PROGRAM OF YEAR

The first literary program of the Laurean Society is to be rendered this evening in Deady Hall. Extempore speeches by Bailey, '12, Stastney, '12, and Yade, '14, open the meeting. The question for debate, "Resolved, that a municipality should pay for the paving of its streets," will be answered affirmatively by Zimmerman and King, negatively by Crockett and Pickett. A ten minute drill in parliamentary practice will be led by Dunton.

The meeting is open to all, and prospective members are asked to attend and assist in furthering plans for the year's work.

William ("Doc") Elliott, ex-'12, has registered at the St. Louis Medical University.

OREGON MANAGERS PLAN FOR WASHINGTON GAME

GEARY GOES TO PORTLAND WITH PROSPECTS FOR CLOSING CONTRACTS

EVERY EFFORT MADE TO BOOST CONTEST

Special Rate to be Made With the S. P., Enabling Every Student to Attend the Game.

Graduate Manager Geary and Student Manager of Football James Johns have gone to Portland on business connected with the games to be played in Portland this year. It is thought by the football authorities that on this trip they will be able to close up their contracts with Multnomah Club and Manager Zehner of Washington for the Oregon-Washington game, November 18th. Also the matter of the excursion rates will be taken up with the S. P. officials. The management desires that every Oregon student take the trip in order that Oregon be represented by a strong bunch of rooters. With this end in view the managers are trying to negotiate for lower rates than have ever been offered before. At present they say that they are in line to secure a round trip rate of five dollars. This will include admission to the game, which usually ranges from one dollar to one dollar and fifty cents. Even better rates than these may be secured, but at any rate the expenses of the round trip will be within the limits of every student's pocket-book.

Miss Senora Sinks, of Portland, is a guest at the Tri Delta House.

HONOR SOCIETY MEETS

Elect Officers and Make Plans for Furthering Interests of Organization.

The Order of the "O," Oregon's honor society, composed only of wearers of the official emblem, held its first meeting at the Kappa Sigma house Thursday night. Sap Latour-ette, last year's president, called the meeting to order, and the first business taken up was the election of officers for 1911-12.

The following candidates were successful: Homer Jamison, president; Harry Stine, vice-president; Jimmy Johns, secretary-treasurer; Earl Cobb, sergeant-at-arms.

The problem of making the order occupy its proper position as a greater factor at Oregon than it has been in the past, especially in athletic affairs, was then discussed. As a starter it was decided to give a dance, which is to become a permanent function, the first being planned for some date in December. On the committee to arrange for this dance, Bill Main was chosen chairman, with Homer Jamison and Jimmy Johns as the other members.

The meeting was attended by twelve or fifteen members, but it is hoped that at the next meeting, which will be called soon, a full attendance of all men entitled to membership will be secured.

The Tri Deltas were hostesses last Thursday afternoon at an informal tea given for their new house-mother, Miss Pearl Bonistel, of Chicago.
