YOU CAN'T KEEP THE VARSITY BAND DOWN

Bush Brown Calls for Meeting of the Musicians Thursday at Sigma Chi House

You can't keep a good man down, nor a band either, it seems. Year after year a Varsity band is started at Oregon only to die after an appearance or two. This year is to be no exception to the rule, at least the first part of it, for in connection with his plans for yells and general noise at the big games this fall, Yell Leader Bush Brown has the organization of a students' band in mind. The first meeting is called for Thursday evening at the Sigma Chi house at 7 p. m. There are a number of students who have had experience in this line of work and they are asked to turn out. The number of pieces in the band will not be restricted. Admittance to the games will be free to members of the band.

The idea in contemplation is to have a permanent organization, and make it a regular activity in the Varsity life. Other colleges have bands, and even prep schools, such as Lincoln and Washington High have them.

THE SAGE OF PODUNK MAKES A FEW REMARKS

It's all right to know what to say and where to say it; but its better to know what not to say, and when not to say it. Once in a while a "good fellow" is good for something else. The fairest of today's chicks may be old hens of the future. You may imagine you still have a bank account, but don't draw very heavy on your imagination.—B. C., '14.

MONSTER CROWD WILL ATTEND PORTLAND GAME

Johns Arranges for Special Trains from Ashland, Corvallis, Eugene and Eastern Oregon

Manager of football, Jim Johns, who has just returned from a trip to Portland, where he and graduate manager Arthur Geary have been making arrangements for the Oregon-Washington game, reports that there is great enthusiasm shown by the Oregon alumni over the coming contest.

The Schools of Medicine and of Law are arranging to attend in a body and help in the rooting. "Beauty" Robinson, last year's yell leader, who is attending the Law School in Portland, is organizing a bunch of about two hundred rooters, and promises to spring a few surprises in the way of original yells.

Manager Johns has made arrangements with the Southern Pacific and the O. R. and N. Companies for reduced rates on all lines. Besides the special train from Eugene, which is expected to carry at least twelve hundred students and business men of Eugene, a special train will be run from Ashland, one from Corvallis, on the west side, and possibly another from Eastern Oregon.

The contract for the use of Multnomah Field has not yet been signed, as the present grand stand will accommodate only thirty-five hundred spectators and at least ten thousand people are expected to attend the game on November eighteenth. The board of trustees of the Multnomah Club have promised to hold a meeting early in the week to arrange for the construction of additional bleachers, and Manager Geary has remained in Portland in order to complete the contract as soon as sufficient accommodation for the large crowd is assured by the club.

Y. M. C. A. BUILDS A CEMENT SIDEWALK

A number of Y. M. C. A. men have been building a cement sidewalk today along the lot which they possess on the corner of Twelfth and Kincaid streets. The progressive city council of Eugene has decreed that a board walk is no longer good enough for these streets, so the University Y. M. has to dig down into its jeans and find the wherewith to provide a cement one. They have decided to go at it in a practical way and construct the walk themselves under the direction of some of the more advanced engineering students. So a scene somewhat like University Day was enacted as the fellows industriously mixed concrete and moulded it into a walk serviceable enough to satisfy the demands of the city fathers.

TALENTED GIRLS TRY FOR PLACES ON CO-ED GLEE CLUB

Yesterday the first tryout for the Girl's Glee Club was held in Villard Hall, at 4 o'clock, by Professor Wade, and will be continued throughout the week at the same hour. Among those who have already tried out are: Agnes McLaughlin, Florence Cleveland, Ethel Risley, Edna Miller, Lucile McQuin, Leona Bish, Vero Warner, Ruby Hammerstrum, Aletha Emmerich, Hazel Rader. The full list of those chosen will be published in a later issue.

Committees Named for Drawing up Dance and Underclass-day Arrangements

At the sophomore class meeting yesterday, preliminary arrangements were made for the Sophomore Hop, which is scheduled for Dec. 12th. A committee composed of Henry Vierick, chairman; Dell Stannard, Essie Carson and Wallace Benson have been placed in charge of arrangements.

The report of the class treasurer showed the standing debt against the class would be removed by collecting the last year's tax levy. Consequently no new assessment will be levied until funds are required.

President Walker, of the junior class made a brief report on the plans proposed for the under-class Campus Day, and after discussion his recommendations received favorable action. A general committee of five to superintend the Sophomores' part in the exercises was provided for.

Over ninety members turned out for the meeting and the wholesome class spirit evidenced was regarded as the forerunner of a year of strong co-operation and unity in the Sophomore ranks.

ASSISTANT FOR WOMAN'S GYM TO ARRIVE OCTOBER 25

Miss Harriet Thompson, who will act as assistant instructor in the girl's gym, is expected to arrive October 25.

Miss Thomson is from Detroit, a graduate of Michigan University, and has been attending the Chautaugua School of Gymnasium during the past summer. Doctor Stuart's senior major students, who will also help in the class work this winter, are Mildred Bagley, Bess Morrison, Frieda Goldsmith and Ruth Harding.

There will be more classes this year in gymnasium work than ever before and a great part of the work is to be along different lines. There will be two classes in fancy dancing, an advanced class for girls who took it last year and a beginners class, which all girls are asked to join. This work is not at all compulsory and no credit will be given for it. However, it is very beneficial and Doctor Stuart guarantees "graceful results." The beginners class will probably meet on Friday, at 2, and will open about the 1st of November. The advanced class will prouette from 3 to 4 on Wednesdays.

Geo. Goodall, an Oregon grad, has resigned his position as sec. of the R. R. commission on account of health.

Miss Hazel Bradley is spending the week-end in Portland.
