REJUVENATION OF BOOLA BAND IS ACCOMPLISHED

First Rehearsal to Take Place at 7 O'clock Next Tuesday.—Manager Elected.

After a lapse of two years the University band was again organized last Thursday evening at a meeting held at the Sigma Chi House. Twelve enthusiastic band men met and made arrangements to revive the old 'Boola' band, and if possible to provide for a permanent organization at the University.

Next Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, was set as the date for the first rehearsal. Tom Hudson, who was elected as manager, together with yell-leader Lyle Brown, is arranging for music and other details at present. If enough money can be secured for the purpose, the band men expect to hire a leader to get them in shape for the coming football games. If possible, the new organization will play at the Varsity-Militia game next Friday.

All University students who can play any band instrument whatever, are requested to appear at practice Tuesday night with their instruments.

BABY PARTY POSTPONED INDEFINITELY

The girl's baby party, which the Woman's Council planned to give October 21st, has been postponed indefinitely on account of the student body dance and, when given, will probably be by the Y. W. C. A.

The Woman's Council has decided to let the Y. W. C. A. give this party, as it has been an annual event with them. A picnic or something of that sort, which contains the elements of a general "mix," will be substituted.

OREGON CLUB REACHES FOR BIG MEMBERSHIP

Non-Fraternity Students Plan to Enter Activities Through Organization.

The Oregon Club met Friday evening at the home of Miss Eva Frasier, on North Pearl St., for their first business and social gathering of the year. Plans for the ensuing school year were discussed, the sentiment being to make the Oregon Club a more important factor in the social life of the University.

A complete list of students not in fraternities and clubs has been arranged and so far the number is close to the four hundred mark. A committee is interviewing these students and urging them to join the Oregon Club.

The sentiment was expressed very strongly for and against allowing the Dormitory Club to enter the club, but the matter was settled finally in the affirmative. The Dorm Club will act on the matter later.

This year the Oregon Club is planning to enter the intra-collegiate athletics and become a more prominent member in all branches of student life.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB CLAIMS MEMBERSHIP OF THIRTY

The tryouts for the Girls Glee Club were concluded Wednesday, with thirty girls successful in their applications for membership.

The Girls Glee Club staged the operetta, "Princess Chrysanthemum," last year, and it plans to put on a similar production this year. The first regular meeting of the club will be held next Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

The complete membership is as follows:

First Soprano—Georgia Cross, Leona Bish, Josephine Morehead, Florence Cleveland, Grace Bean, Edna Miller, Agnes McLaughlan, Dorris Plummer, Nancy Noon.

Second Soprano—Wilma Young, Rubie Hammarstrom, Veda Warner, Ethel Risley, Hazel Rader, Jean Allison, Gladys Cartwright.

First Alto—Lucile McQuinn, Erma Campbell, Gertrude Taylor, Alethea Emmerick, Mable Miller, Alma Payton, Esther Carson.

Second Alto—Imogina McKowan, Olga Paolsen, Maude Beals, Hazel McKowan, Ruth Lathrop, Janet Young, Ermel Miller, Lucile Yoran.

OREGON WILL HAVE STRONG PRESS CLUB ORGANIZATION

Student Manager Geary has announced his intentions of forming among the embryo journalists of the University a Press Club, which shall have as its purpose the furthering of the interests of the various press agents and the boosting of all the student body enterprises. Season passes will be issued to all of the members of the club, so that they may have no trouble in reporting the student activities. The membership will be open to all of the reporters of the Portland daily papers, the Eugene papers, and the editor and manager of the Oregon Emerald. Meetings will be held daily and the news sent to the papers. Manager Geary hopes in this way to facilitate the news gathering at the University.

The prospective members will meet in the the Emerald office, at 7:30 Tuesday, to consider the plans more fully.

"BUSH" NAMES ASSISTANTS FOR WASHINGTON GAME

Realizing the necessity of a well disciplined rooting force at the Washington game, Yell Leader Brown has appointed Chet Moores, Abe Blackman and Dutch Young to aid him in drilling the mob.

Busher deprecates the lack of enthusiasm which is being shown by the students in the matter of devising new yells and songs. Very little interest has as yet been shown, and only two weeks remain in which such contributions will be received.
