TEAM DOES WELL WITH NUMBER OF OLD MEN ABSENT

WARNER'S MEN GET AWAY WITH 36 TO 0 VICTORY IN TRIAL GAME

FORWARD PASS TO ENDS MAKES GAINS

Coach Gives Best of the Candidates Chance to Try Out. Hall Stars at Tackle.

With a badly crippled team in the field, Oregon showed signs of "come back" qualities yesterday afternoon, when they handed Dud Clarke's soldiers from Fort Vancouver, a trimming, to the tune of 36 to 0. While the game was devoid of any sensations, it showed that Oregon still has a chance at the conference championship. The forward pass was used to better advantage than against the Eugene High School last Tuesday and two of Oregon's touchdowns came as a result of passes to Fenton and Bradshaw.

The first quarter was a see-saw contest in midfield, ending with the Varsity on the Soldier's 30 yard line. At the beginning of the second quarter Oregon got her scoring machine unlimbered and pushed Heusner over the line. Cobb kicked the goal. On the kickoff following, Kellogg booted the pigskin over the line, and while the soldiers were thinking it over, Jones recovered the ball, annexing five more points. Cobb kicked the goal.

Near the close of the half, Heusner made his second touchdown. Walker kicked out to Cobb, who again made the extra point. The soldiers lost their only chance to score this quarter when Jackson attempted a place kick from the thirty yard line. Oregon punted out of danger from the twenty-five line. In the third quarter Bean and Fenton each secured a touchdown. Walker kicked both goals, bringing the score up to 30 to 0. In the fourth quarter Bradshaw got away with a forward pass and scored. Cobb kicked the goal. In the Oregon line Hall played a smashing game, repeatedly tearing up the soldier's "phalanx" and nailing the man with the ball. Fenton, the big Oregon end, handled the forward pass in sensational style.

PROMINENT ATTORNEY WILL ADDRESS Y. M. C. A. MEETING

Judge J. F. Rutherford has been secured to address a special assembly of the students of the University in Villard Hall, at 4 o'clock, on November 3. He will also be the speaker at the Y. M. C. A. meeting, at 7 o'clock, in the Women's Gym the same evening. The subject of his evening lecture will be "The Bible and Its Science From a Lawyer's Viewpoint." He will treat this subject from a non-sectarian point of view.

For economic students who are taking "Pre-law" courses, Judge Rutherford's lectures will be of unusual value, as he is a lawyer of wide experience and renown. He is noted for the pointed logic of his lectures and for the interest which his wide travels and experience enable him to give them. Judge Rutherford is in great demand as a speaker among the leading educational institutions of the United States.

CLUB DIRECTOR PLEASSED

Ogden Announces Best Assortment of Material Recorded During Past Five Years.

"The Glee Club has a larger repertoire than any club has had for five or six years." was the manner in which Director Ogden summed up the situation yesterday afternoon and announced definitely the stunts and features that will be used this year.

Besides the Robinson-Collins take-off on Mr. Crane, the anti-higher education man, Harry Ding, will feature a Chinese song and costume stunt. Kenneth Frazier will appear as a soloist, while Powell, Vawter and Ogden are working up a trio. These, with the probable addition of one or two other stunts, together with the ensemble songs, will comprise the club's program for the coming season.

In addition to the cities already booked for the Southern trip, which will be soon after the Thanksgiving holidays, Klamath Falls will be included on the itinerary, the club having received a good offer from that town.

Although the club will probably make the Eastern Oregon trip for the advertising value alone, the towns in that section of the state seem to exhibit distinct anti-University sentiment in their demands for an exorbitant percentage rate.

SOPH "SCARE HEAD" POSTER ATTRACTS FAVORABLE NOTE

With pad and pencil in hand, a rather severe looking lady stood in front of the telephone pole at the corner of 13th street and University Ave., industriously copying the "Frosh Beware" notice pasted there. A rumor floated over the campus that "Gunnhilda Skin Bones," she of the caustic tongue and cheap wit, was gathering data for a lecture before the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Freshmen. Timid sophs trembled and began to quail before the anticipated journalistic hurricane. By this time the poster was copied verbatim and the copyist with prim and businesslike steps betook herself down the street toward the police station. Not a sophomore was to be seen, all were huddled up under the grandstand behind the friendly protection of the 1915 yet labeled 'Fresh Paint.' Then someone came out with the announcement that it was only one of our fellow townsmen who was struck by the clever combination of phraseology.

KINCAID FIELD IS DRESSED UP IN GALA GARMENTS

SOPHOMORES AND FRESHMEN VIE WITH EACH OTHER OVER DECORATIONS

INTEREST IN CONTESTS AT WHITE HEAT

Program for the Day Included Events Calculated to Prove Class Superiority.

The interest displayed by the two Under-classes in today's celebration, has been quite the absorbing interest with them during the past few days, and this morning the campus fairly buzzed with students laboring to complete all work before 2 o'clock, the time for the grand parade.

This afternoon Kincaid Field presented a gala appearance never before equaled in the history of the school. Freshmen and Sophomores had vied with each other on decorations. The Sophomores, who occupied the west end of the grandstand, had large 1914 streamers hanging from the ceiling, a large numeral sign hard across the back wall and green and white paper chrysanthemums at intervals along the front railing. The Freshmen in their section, the east end of the grandstand, were surrounded by red and white bunting, streamers waved over their heads, and a large 1915 sign with red letters adorned the front railing. In rooting the Sophomores used white megaphones with a green band; the Freshmen used white and red megaphones.

The program as prepared by upper-classes for the first annual Freshman-Sophomore class day, was as follows:

First event—Rooting contest. Entire class participating. Points awarded as follows: 10 points for volume, 10 for best artistic stunt, 10 for best "roughneck" stunt. Total, 30 points.

Second event—100-yard dash. Five men from each class. Points: first place, 15; second, 10; third, 5; total, 30 points. Freshman entries: Morton, Rader, Boylen, Hill, Finch. Sophomore entries: Kimball, Cass, Williamson, Hendricks, Burris.

Third event—Novelty race. Six men from each class. Conditions to be announced later. Points: first place, 5; second place, 3. Total, 8 points.

Fourth event—Tug-of-war. Ten men from each class. Winning side to receive 25 points.

Fifth event—Novelty race, similar to third event.

Sixth event—One-half mile relay race. Ten men from each side. Each man to run 110 yards. Winning side to receive 25 points. Freshman entries: Morton, Rader, Boylen, Hill, Fenton, Fletcher, Pack, Hawley. Sophomore entries: Kimball, Cass, Miller, Williamson, Hendricks, Huggins, Overtueffer, Burris.

Seventh event—Push ball contest. Spalding's push ball rules to govern. 35 men from each class. Freshman captain, Ingalls; Sophomore captain, Benson. Contest to last 20 minutes, then if neither side has scored or the score is tie, ten minutes longer; if the score is still tied, the contest to then be declared a draw. Each goal will count 25 points for the side making it. The officials of the contest are:

WASHINGTON STATE VICTORY MAY PROVE DEARLY BOUGHT

Playing with a fierceness seldom displayed in football, Washington State College won yesterday's game from the University of Idaho by the score of 17 to 0, on the Idaho field, thus avenging herself for the defeat suffered last year at the hands of the latter institution.

As a result of the victory, more than half the men of the Washington State College team are badly crippled, and will probably be out of the game for some time. The Idaho team, on the other hand, went through the game without injury.

Both teams played straight football most of the time, although several unsuccessful attempts were made to execute the forward pass. The Washington State College will line up against the Oregon team next Saturday at Pullman, and with a crippled team the northerners may be somewhat handicapped.

OREGON TO HOLD EXAMS

Physical and Mental Tryouts Will Be Held for Appointments to Annapolis.

The University of Oregon will hold a competitive examination for two appointments to the Naval Academy at Annapolis Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, January 25, 26 and 27, 1912. NEW COURSE TO START UNDER PROF. SWEETSER

The Y. M. C. A., together with the Y. W. C. A., has planned what promises to be one of the most interesting courses for studying social problems ever given in the University, styled the "American of Tomorrow."

This new course will be handled by Prof. Sweetser in his magnetic and thrilling manner. "The Americans of Tomorrow" will give an array of facts about the condition of the immigrants coming to this country, and it will be as much a part of a liberal education as a course in economics. This course is to be fully explained to the men at the Friday evening meeting of the Y. M. C. A., and an opportunity will be presented for those who desire to sign up for the work.

Chairman of Committees—Dean Walker.
Judges of Rooting—Lyle Brown, Chet Moores, Abe Blackman.
Judges of Finish—Jimmy Johns, Dave McDaniels, Ben Williams.

SOPHOMORES WIN CELEBRATION BY A LARGE SCORE

PUSHBALL CONTEST PROVES THE MOST INTERESTING FEATURE OF THE DAY

FRESHMEN DRAGGED THROUGH POND

Large Crowd Assembled, Which Enjoyed Every Moment of the Exercises.

(By Fen Waite.)
Inaugurating the greatest custom ever installed at the University of Oregon, the Sophomores defeated the Freshmen in the Underclass Contest this afternoon by the overwhelming score of 113 to 48.

A big crowd of the members and supporters of the underclasses turned out to see the seven interesting and hard fought events. An efficient corps of "cops" from the senior class, headed by Chief Jamison, preserved perfect order on the field, and the spirit and sportmanship shown by all concerned was beyond flaw or criticism. The Sophomores and Freshmen especially deserve the highest commendation for the manner in which they conducted themselves, thereby insuring the adoption of the underclass "mix" as a permanent tradition at Oregon.

All spectators at the events were unanimous in their decision that the contest as pulled off today, far surpasses any hazing as a means of working off the rivalry between the first and second year men. The push ball contest, in which thirty-five men on each side took part, was the feature of the contests. The immense sphere was placed in the center of the field and at a given signal the participants leaped to the fray with do or die intent. For true strenuousness the resulting "mix" would put to shame the football games in the palmiest days of Oregon O. A. C. rivalry. The game was played in two halves of fifteen and ten minutes duration each.

The event of next greatest interest was the tug o' war contest, in which the Sophs dragged the luckless Freshies through the "landscape lake on the campus.

The events in their order and the winners were: The grand parade and yell contest, with sixty sophomores stripped for action and eighty freshmen with red and white megaphones resulted; for best yells and most original stunts the sophs took twenty points and for best decorating and display the freshmen annexed ten.

The second event, the hundred yard dash, was won by Boylen, '15, Kimball, '14, and Rader, '15, first, second and third, with 15, 10, and 5 points respectively.

The third event, the sack race, was won by Dickson, '15, first, and Ski, '14, second, with five points for first and three for second.

The fourth event, the relay race, was won by the freshmen team of eight men—Boylen, Hawley, Dudley, Pack, Hill, Rader, Morton, and Finch, with a count of ten points for first. The three-legged race, the fifth event, was won by Rice and fourth event, was won by Rice and Brooks, '14, first, and Anderson and
