ALMNI HOLDS FIRST ANNUAL ACQUAINTANCE

Four Hundred Guests Fill Parlors of Osburn Hotel Friday Night

The Alumni Association of the University gave its first annual reception to the regents, faculty and students last evening in the parlors of the Osburn Hotel. About four hundred people were present, and spent the evening in developing the range of their University acquaintanceship and in social conversation. The affair was a success in every respect, as the guests attest, and, as an annual event, will undoubtedly be a valuable acquisition to Oregon's social calendar.

The receiving line was made up of Pres. and Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Bean, Arthur Geary, Mrs. Geary of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Goodrich and Miss Ida Patterson. These were assisted in receiving by the presidents and vice presidents of the four classes.

Refreshments were served by Misses Mabel Kuykendall, Eva Allen, Ruth Dunning, and Olive Donnell. Music was furnished by Hendershott's orchestra.

STUDENT DANCE AT MEN'S GYM TONIGHT

Informal Party Closes Activity of First Underclass Day.—All
Arranged

The first student body dance of the year will begin promptly at 8:10 o'clock tonight, and comes as a grand finale to the first annual underclass day celebration to be held at the University.

All the prearrangements going to make the affair an entire success have been gone over by the committee in charge. The floor will be in excellent condition as a result of the application of freshman skilled labor. Hendershott will furnish soft music as the lights burn low for the moonlight waltz. Berry will be on hand powdered and puffed.

It is important that the dancers be on hand promptly at the assigned hour, as President Campbell has given out that the lights will be turned off at eleven thirty o'clock.

It is the aim of the student management that a series of informal dances be given during the year, as the advantages were made apparent when the custom was inaugurated two years ago. The expenses of the student body dances are covered by a small charge at the door, 50 cents per couple.

"Bright Eyes" Coming.

Miss Florence Holbrook, the charming young comedienne, who, with Cecil Lean, is especially featured in Jos. M. Gaites' new musical play, "Bright Eyes," which comes to the Eugene theatre on Saturday night Oct. 28, is noted among her friends as a gifted teller of stories. At a dinner table recently she told this one:

"A deaf woman went one Sunday to church. The sexton, or serbeant-at-arms, or whenever the functionary may be who collects the contributions and keeps in touch with the general management, had his eye on the stranger. After the usual preliminaries the minister opened his bible to announce the text. At this juncture the deaf woman produced an ear trumpet. The sexton was horrified, but, being an Irishman, was equal to the emergency. He tipped over to the seat of the unconscious stranger and hissed in her ear: 'Yah toot on that, ma'am, and I'll put yez out of the choorch.'"

Mr. M. E. Snidner, an attorney of Portland, addressed the University Y. M. C. A. Friday evening on the subject of "Social Service."

His talk was well arranged to show the practical use which educated men have for an understanding of some of the social problems with which they have to deal.

GOLF CLUB IS TO BE VARSITY ACTIVITY AGAIN

Last Year's Enthusiasts Begin Campaign Among New Students For Members.

Considerable talk has been heard this fall concerning the reorganization of the Varsity Golf Club, which proved so successful last year. A canvas, to this effect, is being made for members and plans are being laid for the securing of a clubhouse near the old Willamette street links.

According to Registrar Tiffany, the links are at present in excellent condition and dues of a dollar each from a club of twenty or thirty members would amply suffice to pay all incidental expenses.

"A beginner's outfit," says Mr. Tiffany, "may be purchased for four or five dollars, if the cost of lost balls is not taken into consideration." "Adjoining the grounds is a large well built house which will be utilized as a home for the club, if sufficient funds can be secured for the purpose.
