OREGON CLUB WILL ADMIT NEW MEMBERS NOV. 11

The student affairs committee has granted permission to the Oregon Club to hold their acquaintance party on the night of Saturday, November 11. At this time the new members will be formally admitted to the club.

The acquaintance party is the first of four large social functions on the club's program for the year. Numerous "spreads" will also be held at private residences.

The club at present numbers around 135, and as many more are prospective membership material.

The officers as elected last spring are: Mr. E. L. Keezel, president; Miss Eva Frazier, vice president; Miss Grace Harding, secretary; Mr. Walter Hodge, treasurer; Mr. Russell Calkins, member-at-large. The absence of Mr. Keezel until next semester leaves the administration of the club in the hands of Miss Frazier.

Hardesty, '15, second, with five for first and three for second.

The push ball contest was the sixth event. In it the sophs annexed two touchdowns, one in each half, each touchdown counting 25 points.

The seventh and final event was the tug o' war, won by the sophomores, adding 25 to their score.

A silver trophy cup, denoted by the Junior class, was awarded to the winning Sophomores.

Too great praise for the success of the Underclass contest, can not be bestowed upon Dean Walker and his committee of Junior, who were responsible for the entire arrangements. The Portland Hunt Club denoted the push ball gratis.

CANOE ENTHUSIASTS ASKED TO JOIN CLUB

May Hand Names to Ralph Newlands, Anne McMicken, or Eleanor McClaine.

If you are interested in canoeing and water sports, hand your name to Ralph Newlands, Anne McMicken, or Eleanor McClaine; so say the enthusiastic members of the Varsity Canoe Club, which is being put on a running basis for the year by its charter members.

An active effort is being made to enlist the interest and support of all collegians of aquatic tastes. No bona fide canoeist will be excluded, and although canoeing is not now uppermost in the public attention the club will work hard this winter to perfect its plans for making more pleasant this favorite spring recreation.

At the recent meeting at the Kappa Alpha Theta house a committee on by laws was appointed with instructions to report at the next meeting. This will convene at the Chi Omega house Thursday evening at 7:30. Also the club will work hard this winter to perfect plans for an acquaintance and rushing party to be held in the near future at one of the sorority houses.

AS SEEN THROUGH THE SPORTING EDITOR'S EYES

Heusner seems to be the find of the season.

Walker and Cobb added the extra point to every touchdown. Cobb secured four goals and Walker two.

Noland, Fariss and Grout all put a good game at guard. The competition between these three is the keenest on the squad.

Fenton scraped the forward passes off of the sky with pleasing regularity. Perhaps Coach Warner has established another Polly Grimm.

Well, it was not so bad for the first time, considering that Captain Main, Sap Latourette, and Kiser of the backfield, were out of the game.

Hall looks like a comer, his speed has improved since last year, and if he has no bad luck, will make a strong bid for the All Northwest this year.

The band made a hit on their initial appearance. Some class to "Sousa" Powell's wind jammers. Just wait until they get their new "unies."

There were plenty of mere spectators in the bleachers, but the volume of the rooting left much to be desired. Yell, you silent watchers of the game!

Doc Leonard's score board is easily the classiest in the northwest, but to be complete should show the results of the world's series between the Athletes and the Giants.

Quarterback Greenway of the soldier eleven was the only one of Uncle Sam's men who seemed to have plenty of pip. The redheaded boy showed flashes of real speed at times also.

Capt. Main, Latourette, Ben Chandler, and Kaiser, of the hospital corps, merely looked on. All of them, however, will be back in the harness when Oregon lines up against Pullman.

Kellog, Chandler, Fenton, Hall, Walker, Nolan, Heusner, and Bradshaw, are partaking of Bill's brawn producing food—patent applied for—at the training table established at the Dorm last night.
