HAYWARD OFFERS CUP FOR UNIVERSITY YELL

Merchants Protective Association Refuses Petition for Rooters Fund.

In addition to the trip to Washington game at Portland, Nov. 18, offered as first prize for the best University Yell by "Bush" Brown, Bill Hayward has donated $5.00, which is also to go to the winner.

Subscriptions for the "smokerless smokers," to be given before the local games, have been started among the club and fraternity houses, and several sororities have also signified their willingness to contribute to the fund.
The Merchants Protective Association refused to allow any solicitation among its members, and the entire fund will therefore have to be made up among University students. The Protective Association used as a basis for its refusal, that it had already subscribed heavily in behalf of the referendum case. Several members of the association, however, were willing to contribute to the fund, but could not do so because of the fine imposed.

Because of the impossibility to secure sufficient money, the committee has practically given up the idea of securing uniforms for the University band.

Busher Brown states that after the team returns from the Pullman game, rooters practice will be held every Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, and that secret practice will be held on the other days. On those nights nights "Bush" urges every student, who is interested in the Oregon team to turn out and yell.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Payne (nee Peggie McNair) have taken apartments at the Osburn.

Norma Redmond and Elise Cramer arrived at the Tri Delta House Tuesday and will remain a week.

U. OF WASHINGTON PRESS GIVES GOSSIP

Dobie Gives Gridiron Squad First Class Shuffling, Promoting Second team Men.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—That Wynn, the big freshman, who formerly played on the freshman team at Evanston College, a preparatory school to Northwestern, is likely to develop into one of the fastest men on the Washington squad, is the opinion of all who have seen him in practice the last few days.
He is replacing Jack Patton, who has sprung a slight "Charley horse" and is out temporarily.

Dobie handed the squad a great shaking up Wednesday, relegating Mucklestone, Koehler and Pink Pullen to the second team and substituted Smith, Feboger and Devine in their places.

With Pullen the complaint is made that he is not playing up to his usual form. Mucklestone, who played star halfback in 1909, is, says Dobie, not working hard or is unable to get the signals through his head. Koehler, who is working as hard as any man on the squad, is not steady enough.
This is particularly true in running down punts. He hits the line hard, but seems to lose his head at critical moments.

Through the influence of Professor Glen, formerly of the University of Oregon, a mandolin club has been organized at the University of Washington, the first in the history of the institution.

The University of Washington will spend $1,000,000 in remodeling its campus. Several of the present structures will be torn down and replaced by a more uniform style of architecture, and several new buildings are in contemplation. The plan also includes the removing of the athletic field.

In case the University of Washington again wins the championship in football this year, Graduate Manager Zednick will attempt to secure a post season game with one of the eastern universities, and attempt to conquer new laurels for the Eliot Bay team.
In former years several attempts have been made to get a game with the teams of some eastern institutions, but the arrangements have always fallen through because of the inadvisability of making the long trip. Last year the University of Indiana team came west, but did not meet Washington's team, because the latter was unwilling to keep in training after Thanksgiving. This year, however, if the northern institution wins at least three of its scheduled games, Manager Zednick will negotiate for a game with either Michigan, Chicago, Northwestern, Carlisle, or some other strong college team.

COLLEGE Y. M. C. A. MEN TO CONFER AT ALBANY

A number of the Y. M. C. A. members will attend a meeting of college association men of Oregon at Albany College Friday and Saturday. They will leave Friday noon and return Saturday evening. The regular meeting on Friday evening will be postponed.

Those who will represent U. of O. at this conference will be Earl Jones, Burlaigh, Cash, Raymond Heider, Clyde Pattee, Charles Koyl, John Black, and Howard Zimmerman.

TRAINER BILL PROPOSES FOUR MILE RELAY RACE

Hayward Wants Line On Freshmen to Fill Vacancies Left by Loss of Old Men.

There's a large hole in the track team material this year, due to the absence of Martin Hawkins, the champion hurdler; Graham MacConnell, the record half miler of last year; and Fisher, the promising pole vaulter.

In order to draw out available material for the vacant places and to get a line on new men, a four mile relay race will be run on the day of the Idaho-Oregon game, Nov. 5.
Eight men will compose the team, each man to run a half mile.

This will also put the track men in condition for the Freshman-Sophomore meet in December. A silver cup will be presented, as usual, to the winning class. Up-to-date there are few promising distance men among the new men and as far as can be ascertained there are no phenomenal sprinters.

Weight men will be in strong demand and there are a number of new men who look good to Trainer Bill Hayward.

"As yet nothing to speak of has shown up," is Bill's summary of the situation.

"We need lots of material, much more than has yet appeared. All I ask is that a man get out and work.
I'll do the rest. If a man can put one foot before the other, I can make something out of him."
