1913 HUNTS TRAIL OF CANOE CARNIVAL FUND

Junior Class Would Have Funds of Carnival Used During Junior
Week-End.

There is a movement on foot among the members of the Junior class to hold the Seniors to an accounting for the money which was taken in by means of the carnival queen voting contest, previous to the junior week and celebration last year.

The amount reported to have been cleared in this contest was ninety-two dollars. Due to the failure to hold the canoe carnival, this money which was raised to defray the expenses of that pageant, was applied by the 1912 people for other purposes, namely the general debts of the class.

This year the Juniors plan to hold either a carnival or some event of equal possibilities, and they allege that the money raised last year should be forthcoming next May, since the general success of Junior Week-End is of importance to the whole University, and that the money raised for the canoe carnival, one of last year's events, was not for application to the promiscuous debts of the 1912 class.

DEBATE LEAGUE AGREES UPON JUDICIAL RECALL

Wording of Question to be Decided Upon Immediately and Actual Preparation Begun.

The Judicial Recall has been selected by the Pacific Coast Debating League as the subject for the coming debate.

The League is composed of the three colleges, Oregon, Washington and Stanford. In selecting the question for debate, each institution submits one subject and the three are voted on by the three colleges. The questions submitted were Judicial Recall, Washington; Closed Shop, Stanford; and Central Bank, Oregon. In voting, the question receiving the lowest number of points was selected. The colleges voted as follows: Oregon, Central Bank, 1; Closed Shop, 2; Judicial Recall, 3; Stanford, Closed Shop, 1; Judicial Recall, 2; Central Bank, 3; Washington, Judicial Recall, 1; Closed Shop, 2; Central Bank, 3; making the total number of votes, Judicial Recall, 5; Central Bank, 6; Closed Shop, 7.

Leon Ray has appointed a committee on oratory and debate consisting of Earl Jones, Dunton, and Ed Bailey, who will decide upon the wording of the question desired by Oregon. Each college will submit their wording of the question and a vote will be taken upon it in the same manner as upon the subject.

The newly appointed committee will decide as to whether or not the contracts for an annual debate with Idaho shall be renewed; and will consider Washington's proposal for a triangular Co-ed Debating League, with Idaho as the third member.

There will be a rally meeting in room 1, Villard Hall, Monday, at 4 P. M., for all those interested in debate or any of its phases.

STUDENTS SHOW DESIRE TO SUPPORT EMERALD

Increase of Ten Per Cent in Three Days Makes Desire to Co-operate Evident.

That the students really desire to support college enterprises, is shown by the quick response which was made to the appeal, in the last issue of the Emerald, for an increase in circulation. Following Manager Robert's statement of the paucity of support afforded the paper by the collegians, the circulation of the Emerald has taken a rapid rise and up to date has reached a gain of ten per cent.

"It pays to advertise," said Manager Roberts, when seen by a reporter this morning. "Our subscription list has increased by about one-tenth over that of Wednesday, and our campus circulation has reached the two hundred and fifty mark. This does not include some seventy-five students who have subscribed and send their papers home. We desire to enlarge the Emerald this year and we must have a further increase of two hundred subscribers to assure the financial success of the venture.

Lists will be posted in the various buildings and a house to house canvass will be made by the management during the coming week.

FROM THE BLEACHERS

The football field at Pullman was as hard as pavement, but none of the Oregon men were hurt, though Pullman had several men seriously injured. This speaks well for Bill.

Oregon's goal was in danger but once, and then the line held against heavier opponents and Latourette punted out of danger.

The team will be home Sunday on the evening train; every man in the varsity should be on hand to give them a vociferous welcome.

Four freshmen were discovered yesterday who did not know the Oregon osky wow wow, they probably know it now. All other frosh that have conflicts on on rooting practice nights, had better borrow a handbook of Oregon yells, unless they want to join the class in a Public Extempore Rooting—hours to be arranged.

News reports state that Bill Main, Sap Louterette and Virgil Nolan were Oregon's strongest players.

Kiser, the promising back field candidate of Coach Warner's squad, will be back into the game with a vengeance next week.

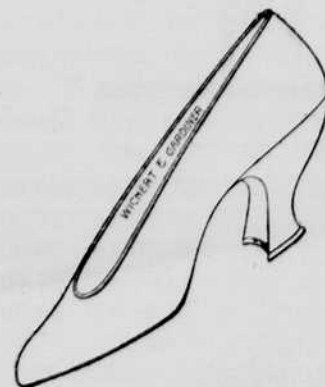

The hard working squad, composed of players who failed to make the Pullman trip, has been practicing faithfully each night, during the absence of the coach and team.

William Barker, Sigma Nu, and Miss Winnie Cockerline, Kappa Alpha Theta, were married Wednesday evening at the Methodist church in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Barker will be at home in Seattle after November 15.
