HALLOWE'EN FESTIVITIES ORDER OF ENTERTAINMENT

The Hallowe'en note is the predominant feature in the festivities of the week-end. Hallowe'en affords the hostess any number of opportunities for originality of entertainment and artistic decoration which have been taken advantage of by different sororities.

The Gamma Delta Gammas entertained Friday evening with a country dance. The guests went in costume and danced among shocks of corn and heaps of pumpkins. The refreshments also were planned in keeping with the rustic idea.

The Kappa Alpha Theta, the Tri-Deltas, the Gamma Phi Betas and the Lambda Rhos, all entertained with Hallowe'en parties, dancing, courting the witch and reading fortunes being the chief means of entertainment.

The Chi Omega will entertain with a unique Hallowe'en cotillon this evening.

SIXTH MEMBER OF SCROLL AND SCRIPT INITIATED

The "Scroll and Script" Honor Society initiated Jean Allison Wednesday, increasing the membership to six out of a possible eleven. The initiation ceremonies were conducted by Lilah Prosser, who held the office of president last year.

The present members, in order of their initiation, are: Mildred Bagley, president; Birdie Wise, Ruth Merrick, Alma Payton, Fay Clark and Jean Allison.

The next meeting will be held next Wednesday, November 1, at five, in Miss Morgan's studio.

U. OF W. NEWS GATHERED FOR OREGON READERS

Items From Washington Daily Show Activity in Northern School.

Graduate Manager Zednick, of the University of Washington, is agitating a special conference of the Northwest College athletic authorities, to arrange a schedule of baseball, basketball, football, track, and wrestling.

As the regular conference does not convene this year, Zednick desires to hold an auxiliary Northwest conference in Seattle, December 7, 8, 9.

Coach Dobie, the czar of football at Washington, is opposed to the holding of class fights on Denny Field, the U. of W. athletic arena, claiming that when a mix up of riotous students occur on the field, the gridiron is packed as hard as a gravel bed.

The University of Washington will hold its fiftieth anniversary in November.

Fifty men are out for the Senior cross country team at the University of Washington.

The Washington journalists are evidently sceptical of the stories sent out from Oregon, regarding the condition of the U. of O. football squad. Over an article appearing in the Oregonian, October 23, regarding the crippled condition of the varsity, the Washington Daily ran the following headlines: "Bruin Fables Sent Out from Oregon Campus."

After the first month of school work at Washington, six students will be dropped for delinquencies in studies and thirty-nine will be placed on probation.

In the U. of W.-Puget Sound game which resulted in a 35 to 0 victory for Washington, Dobie told Quarterback Coyle not to utilize the forward pass, but Coyle gave Warren Grimm an opportunity to carry one over the line for a touchdown in the last quarter of the game.

The Salem High School football squad came down to Eugene yesterday afternoon to play the local High School team. The game will be called this afternoon at 2:30 on Kincaid Field. The supporters of both teams are confident.

The engagement of Madeleine D. Walker, ex-'12, to Connell Dyer, of Salem, is announced, the wedding to take place in November. Miss Walker is a member of the Chi Omega Fraternity.

Miss Frances Nelson and Miss Willetta Wright will spend the week end at the Kappa Alpha Theta House.

Bertha Dorris, who is teaching at Myrtle Creek, will spend Sunday at the Chi Omega House.

of the Blue River District"; C. W. Walls, "Plans and Specifications of Buildings on a Small Country Estate"; Edw. J. Himes, "Relative Efficiency of Vitrified Clay and Concrete for Sewer Pipe Construction."

From among the students in physical sciences comes Roy Fitch with "The Technique of Laboratory Practice for General Chemistry"; G. W. Schantin, "An Apparatus for the Determination of Hydrogen"; F. E. Dunton, "A Comparison of Secondary Text Books of Physics."

Other theses subjects are "The Military Experiences of Cicero," by Clementine Cutler; "Studies in Virgil," by Pansy Beebe; a treatise on "Attention," by Folley Rasmussen; "The History of Physical Training and the Development of the Various Systems of Gymnastics," by Ruth Hardie; and "Child Study with Regard to Playgrounds," by Emma J.
