E. S. J. McALLISTER TO ADDRESS STUDENTS

Prominent Lawyer and Single Tax
Advocate to be in Eugene
November 22.

The speaker for assembly Nov. 22, is E. S. J. McAllister, of Portland, who is known as a powerful speaker. His college work was begun at the University of Virginia, where he prepared for the ministry. After graduating, he found that this profession was not to his liking, so he taught economics in an eastern college and studied law, later being admitted to the bar. For many years Mr. McAllister has been lecturing on economics and political subjects and is at present President of the Oregon Tax Reform Association.

Special arrangements have been made to have Mr. McAllister speak before the Henry George Association in the evening of the same day. The people of the city, as well as the students and faculty, are urged to attend these lectures. The subject for the morning address will be "First Things First," and for the evening, "Land Value Taxation."

DR. LEONARD WILL SPEAK ON CHRISTIAN ATHLETICS

The football spirit will be carried into the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Friday evening, as well as into other student activities. Dr. Leonard, the inventor of Oregon's scorekeeping system, will talk to the men on the timely subject, "The Christian Athlete." The Y. M. C. A. believes in mingling Oregon spirit and Christianity in the men's lives, and Dr. Leonard, in his characteristic, vigorous style, will administer an additional dose of both just before they leave for the game in Portland.

OREGON CLUB HOLDS FIRST BIG MEETING

Pleasing Program and General Good Time to Welcome New Members.

The Oregon Club held its first meeting of the year Monday night in the girl's gymnasium. A big turnout of old members and a number of candidates for membership were on hand, and thoroughly enjoyed the festivities, which extended to a late hour.

A general mingling and the furtherance of the acquaintance with new members was the principal order of past-time. An introduction committee wearing novelty caps as an insignia of their duties, succeeded in keeping the nervous "yearlings" milling about the room.

The building was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. Appropriate refreshments were served in the gallery.

The program consisted in reading the revised constitution of the club by Secretary Grace Hartley; pledges from the new members; instrumental and vocal numbers by Miss McKown, Ray Williams and Miss Appersen. Prof. Reddie was profusely encored in a number of clever readings.

In the receiving line were President and Mrs. Campbell, Professor and Mrs. Straub, Mrs. Pennel, Mrs. Cloran, Miss Frazier, Miss Watson, Miss Fox and Miss Lischen Miller.

RECOGNITION BANQUET PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

The Annual Recognition banquet of the Y. W. C. A. was held in the Congregational Church Monday evening. Great credit is due to the Advisory Board for its success. Mrs. Claula acted as toast mistress. Mildred Bagley, Georgia Plaegstra, Miss Kenworthy, Ermel Miller, and Mrs. Chambers responded to the toasts.

The present week is being observed as a week of prayer. Meetings, to which all girls are invited, are held each morning from seven thirty to eight in the Association's office.

OREGON-M.A.A.C. TENNIS TOURNAMENT DEFERRED

Meet Will Be Pulled Off In Spring and May Be Followed By Interscholastic Tennis.

Because of inclement weather conditions, the tennis tournament, which has been scheduled between Oregon and Multnomah for the morning of the 18th, will be postponed until some time in spring, when it will be played off, either in Portland or Eugene.

Although local tennis sharks do not entertain any hope of an Oregon victory over the Portland club, the coming contest is regarded as an excellent means of developing tennis material in the University. Ralph Newland, leader of last year's team, when interviewed on the subject, said, "One of the main weaknesses of the Oregon tennis team has always been the lack of opportunity to compete with finished players. When we go up against Multnomah, we will encounter the best players in the Northwest."

Plans are also being laid to have an interscholastic tournament following the one between the two older organizations. The finals will probably be held at Eugene in conjunction with the interscholastic track meet.

German Club Meets.

The German Club met Tuesday evening at the Acacia House. Those who attended report a good program and a pleasant evening. Among the features was a victrola concert.

A series of spelling matches will be pulled off between the different departments at the Oregon Agricultural College, in the near future.
