"Leftovers" Plan to Spend Vacation in Numerous Social Gatherings and Parties

Fay Clarke will be a week end guest at the Lambda Rho's.

Miss Emma Bayer was a week end guest at the Tri Delta's.

Miss Grace Jackson spent the week end at the Beth Rhea house.

Miss Florence George will visit her sister at the Beth Reah house.

Miss Juliet Cross will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her sister.

Miss Elizabeth Busch has a week end guest, Miss Beatrice Sinfeld, of Portland.

The Gamma Phi Betas will entertain Miss Jennie Perry during Thanksgiving recess.

The Alpha Tau Omegas have issued invitations for a dance during Thanksgiving vacation.

Miss Gertrude Buell, of San Jose, will spend the coming week at the Tri Delta house.

Mrs. J. P. Ven Orsdal spent the week end with her daughter, Pauline, at the Tri Delta house.

The Delta Sigmas had as dinner guests Saturday evening, Mr. Irish, Mr. Spencer and Mr. Ruth.

The majority of the fraternity houses are planning informal affairs for the Thanksgiving holidays.

The Tri Deltas will entertain with a dancing party Friday, December 8, in honor of the Phi Gamma Deltas.

Many of the sorority girls are planning to go to Salem Friday to attend the dance given by Miss Sophie Catlin.

The Avavas will have as week end guests, Jack and Oswald Day, members of the Jefferson High School football team.

The Tri Deltas celebrated Founder's Day Tuesday, November 23rd, with an elaborate banquet held in the Wistaria room of the Hotel Osburn. Mrs. J. H. Gilbert acted as toastmistress.

KOYL WILL DISPENSE SPEARMINT TO "KIDDOS"

The Y. M. C. A. has branched out into a new commercial undertaking. The bookstore has laid in a stock of Hershey's chocolates, and Spearmint chewing gum.

The enterprising secretary has decided that by this method he can raise the money with which to pay for a typewriter; and thus save the association the expense of renting a machine. Koyle is now asking all of his friends "to have one on him."

SENIORS WILL HAVE MEETING TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5

Bob Kellog has called a meeting of the Senior Class for Tuesday, December 5. In this meeting the class will endeavor to select their Senior play. The cast will not be decided upon yet, as the play will not be given until early spring. Ed Himes has charge of obtaining the coach.

Class pins may also be discussed at this meeting.

Mrs. Emma Dorris Hardy, '89, is at the home on the River Road, near Eugene.

Wallace Mount, '83, father of "Bennie" Mount, '13, is on the Washington Supreme Court bench.

Fletcher Min, '90, is a prominent business man of Portland, being president of Oregon State Manufacturer's Association.

K. K. Kubli, '93, manager of the Killiam Stationery Co., Portland, is a prominent Elk of that city, having been instrumental in securing the Elks convention for Portland in 1912.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Laorean Literary Society has postponed its meeting until Saturday evening, December 9.

The Eutavians will hold their monthly social meeting next Tuesday at the Lambda Rho House.

The German Club has postponed its meeting until December 12, when its annual Christmas party will be given at the Men's Dormitory. There will be a good musical program, a Santa Claus, Christmas tree, gifts, refreshments and possibly dancing.

The Y. W. C. A. has been fortunate in securing W. H. Stone, of Portland, as speaker at their regular meeting Monday, Dec. 4, in the iGrl's Gym.

The annual bazaar of the Y. W. C. A. will be held Friday afternoon and evening of Dec. 8, in the Presbyterian church.

GIRLS' CLUB EXPERIENCES LACK OF ENTHUSIASM

The Girls' Glee Club is not showing the desired progress because of a lack of interest among the members, say some of the members. Professor Wade who is in charge, expects to put on an operetta some time before Christmas, but nothing has been decided upon definitely. All depends upon the number of girls that turn out. The Glee Club will also appear in the "Lady of Shalott," but as yet the date has not been set. All girls musically inclined are urged to turn out for Glee Club work.

Order an Oregon Art Calendar at the Book Exchange.
