NEWS ITEMS FROM THE Y. M. C. A. QUARTERS

The University Y. M. C. A. has extended the scope of its operations to include the High Schools boys of the city. Plans have been perfected for the organization of a number of Bible study classes in the High School under the leadership of college men. This work has been placed under the management of a special cabinet officer, and considerable interest is being taken in it by both High School and College students.

The address which the Y. M. C. A. was to have heard from Mr. Marshall N. Dana of the Portland Journal, had to be postponed indefinitely on account of a telegram received at the last moment stating that an unexpected business turn had made it impossible for him to come. This was a serious disappointment to the association, as Mr. Dana is known widely as a lecturer of great ability.

The Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. cabinets will have a social meeting at the Chi Omega House on the evening of Wednesday, January 10.

CO-ED BASKET BALL EXPERTS PLAN STRENUOUS SEASON

The co-ed captains of the different sorority, club, and class teams, met Thursday afternoon with Miss Thompson to make definite arrangements for the games to be played for the Emerald and Hayward cups.

Friday, January 19, Beth Rhea will play Gamma Delta Gamma, last year's champions, in the first game for the Emerald cup. On Tuesday, the 23d, Kappa Alpha Theta and Tri Delta will play. Immediately after the opening of the second semester, the Oregon Club will play either Lambda Rho or Chi Omega.

The Inter-class series for the Hayward cup will be played as soon as the Inter-sorority games are out of the way.

MANAGER CECIL PLANS FOR ANOTHER CONCERT

Chance to Combine With Famous
California Club for Engagement
January 13th.

There is still considerable uncertainty as to the second appearance of the Oregon Glee Club in Eugene. An effort is being made by Manager Pat Cecil to hold a dual performance along with the University of California Club, which is touring the Northwest at the present time.

The Berkeley Club appeared at the local theatre during the holidays. When negotiations were opened by Manager Cecil, their manager signified a willingness to combine with Oregon for a concert to be given next Saturday, January 13th. Manager Smith of the Eugene theatre, refused a special rate to the combined clubs, and the result was that the California manager wired from Seattle his refusal to consider the Eugene date. Fearing to lose the engagement altogether, Manager Smith, when approached yesterday, offered a more liberal inducement. This news was promptly wired to the Berkeley manager and an answer is expected today. Should the concert be given, a big turnout is expected, since the majority of Oregon students have not heard the famous globe trotting Californian Club, which toured Europe last year. And a great many of those, who have heard both the Oregon and visiting club, would attend in order to compare the local songsters, which a Southern Oregon critic styled "the best Glee Club west of the Mississippi," with the tropical song birds from the Southern State.

GEARY TALKS ON O. A. C.

Student Manager Deplores Attitude
Taken by Dolan in Recent Peace Conference.

Apropos of the recent dilatory action taken by O. A. C. in the matter of resuming athletic relations with Oregon, graduate Manager Geary has come forward with a few rather pointed statements, which may greatly aid in showing the real attitude of the agricultural college and of her representative toward the University.

In summing up his experiences with Dolan, the Corvallis football coach, Mr. Geary said: "At the conference meeting at Portland, Dolan and I realized that we were not empowered to enter into negotiations for our respective institutions. In the personal conversation we had concerning the matter, both Dolan and myself expressed ourselves as being favorable to the renewal of athletic relations between Oregon and O. A. C. Dolan admitted that the initial action should come from O. A. C., but desired me to assure him of a football game before he took the matter up with the O. A. C. student body. I told him that neither the athletic council nor the faculty would consider the matter as long as the resolution passed by the O. A. C. students was in effect. I said farther, that the proper course for him, if he was really desirous of a football game, was to influence his student body to rescind their resolution and allow him to deal with us openly in the matter."

From talking to a number of agricultural college students during my stay in Portland, I gained the impression that there was a strong sentiment in the O. A. C. student body in favor of the renewal of athletic relations with the University of Oregon. I was greatly surprised at the stand that Dolan took, after professing to be anxious for a football game with U. of O."
