WASHINGTON WANTS MORE CONVENIENT BASEBALL DATE

A letter was received by Manager Geary today from Victor Zednick, of Washington, asking for April 15th and 16th as dates for baseball games in the conference series.

This date is considerable earlier than the Oregon authorities planned to meet the Northerners, who desire to play at that time, as they will be on their California trip. What action may be taken in regard to the change of dates remains for the directors of Oregon athletics to decide. Nothing can be done until Captain Jamison returns from the northern basketball trip.

Garwood H. Ostrander, B. S. 1901, and M. D. 1904, is a practicing physician with offices in the Oregonian Building, Portland.

Are there any hustlers in college? I have a good proposition to make to several men for spare time work. If you are interested, call and see me between 6:30 and 7:30 any evening this week at the Delta Sigma House.

Y. M. C. A. MIX PROVES TO BE PLEASANT RELAXATION

The first relaxation after exams was indulged in by the men of the University in a general "mix" in the Dormitory on Friday evening. The big crowd gathered in the reception room and after several games of "hot hand," the honors in the traditional cock-fight were carried off by Ed Bailey. After this momentous contest had been settled, a short but pleasing program was rendered by Apperson, Ray Williams, Earle Jones, and Prof. Reddie.

The promise of "good eats" was made good when the fellows were served with oyster cock-tails, rolls and hot cocoa.

Allen H. Eaton, B. A. 1902, is a merchant of Eugene.

Mrs. Florence Dorris Bronaugh, B. A. 1893, is at home in Portland.

Frederick William Mulkey, B. A. 1896, is a practicing attorney in Portland.

FACULTY REVISES THE SOCIAL AFFAIR RULES

All Functions Now Divided Into Those Requiring Petitions and Those Not.

At a recent meeting of the Faculty committee on student affairs the rules governing all social affairs at the University were revised. All functions are divided into formal and informal affairs. Informal affairs may be held without petition, but formal affairs must be petitioned. A formal affair does not mean what it formerly did: A formal party allowed each house once during the school year, but simply a function requiring faculty sanction. This change is made in order to prevent conflicts in dates and to furnish the faculty a means of keeping tab on the amount of social doings in the University.

The following are the revised rules:

Formal and Informal Affairs.
1. All social functions shall be considered under two heads: Formal and informal.

(a) A formal function is defined as any reception, banquet, or dancing party, when the number of invited guests exceeds one-half the number of students residing in the house.

(b) An informal affair is any simple entertainment (at dinner, theater, driving, boating, etc.) of not more than half the number of persons residing in the house, provided there be no formal invitations, no special ceremony in dress or for refreshments.

Petitions.
1. Petitions are required for all formal social functions. This regulation applies to individual students and students whose homes are in Eugene, as well as to all organizations.

2. Petitions shall be in the hands of the Committee on Student Affairs at its regular meeting—the first and third Wednesdays of each month.

3. Informal social affairs require no petitions nor other recognition from the Committee on Student Affairs, except that all informals shall be reported to the Committee.

Restrictions.

1. There shall be no formal social functions during the first month of the session of the University, except those listed under "Scheduled Events."

2. There shall be no formal social functions during the four weeks preceding the beginning of the second semester.

3. There shall be no social functions during the week—on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

INTER-SCHOLASTIC MEET TO BE HELD MAY 10

Manager Geary Sends Out Invitations to All Preparatory Schools in Oregon.

Manager Geary is already making plans for the Spring Inter-scholastic Track Meet and is sending out invitations to the preparatory schools to participate in the contest. It is probable that the Eastern Oregon schools will not be able to compete, because of a similar meet in Baker City, the date of which clashes with Geary's plans.

It may be found possible, however, to bring the Eastern Oregon victors down for a try against the boys from the wet section of the state.

Following is Mr. Geary's communication to the preparatory schools:
February 7, 7, 1912.

Manager of Track:

Dear Sir:

The University of Oregon Annual Inter-Scholastic Track Meet will be held at Eugene on the 11th and 10th of May. Your school is cordially invited to send a team. The entire expenses of four track athletes from each school will be borne by the students of the University; but a greater or less number may be sent to the meet.

While the High School athletes are in Eugene, two illustrated lectures will be given for their benefit by William L. Hayward, Oregon's veteran trainer. Mr. Hayward has developed nine of the athletes that at the present time hold Northwest records in track events and has been greatly responsible for the successes which the track teams of the University of Oregon have attained. Mr. Hayward's talks will deal with points in training which he considers important.

The High School students will be the honor guests of the week-end, and faculty and students will join in extending to them the hospitality of the University. The fraternities, clubs and dormitories will provide rooms and meals for the visitors.

The High School track men who take part in the University of Oregon Annual Interscholastic Track Meet will be given free tickets to the two baseball games between the nines of the University of Oregon and Washington State College, the Dramatic Club's annual play at the Eugene Theatre, and the Canoe Carnival, all of which are scheduled to take place during the week-end that they are at Eugene.

More complete details of the meet and attractions planned will be sent later. I am

Respectfully yours,
ARTHUR GEARY,
Graduate Manager.
