COUNTY FAIR MARCH 16

Y. W. C. A. Decides to Repeat Success of Last Year, Which Added $200 to Bungalow Fund.

Following up the hit made last year, the Y. W. C. A. is planning a second county fair, to be held in the men's gym on March 16th. A considerable amount is as yet lacking on the Bungalow fund and it is hoped that the fair will subtract at least $200 from the deficit.

The general plan of the affair will be similar to that of last year, with sideshows and booths furnished by the different sororities and fraternities, while a minstrel show under the expert tutelage of Sap Latourette and Mason Roberts will serve as a relief from the more frivolous pursuits of the evening. Before the minstrel show, however, the varsity women who have become enthused over the recent suffragette propaganda, will indulge in a ten minute parade, led by Birdie Wise, in search of "votes for women."

A general admission of fifteen cents will be charged.

FRESHMEN WILL HOLD ANNUAL HOP TONIGHT

Class of '15 to Entertain College in Second Formal of Year—Unique Decorations.

The Freshmen are giving one of the biggest dances of the college year this evening in the men's gym. The gym walls are embanked in evergreens and the balcony is hung with the crests of the different sororities and fraternities, while at one end is a large electrical piece with the numerals "1915" in red and white, the class colors.

Hendershott's orchestra will furnish the music for the eighteen dances. There will be no extras. The moonlight dances will be the fifth, the ninth, the eleventh, and the seventeenth. The eleventh is the Freshman Special. The grand march will start at 8:15 sharp without fail.

The programs are attractive, being done in white with red lettering, the men's tied with red pencils and the girl's with long white silk cord.

The patrons and patronesses are Pres. and Mrs. Campbell, Prof. and Mrs. Straub, Prof. and Mrs. Bovard, Prof. and Mrs. Dearborn, Mrs. Kehr, Mrs. Dorris, Mrs. Bancroft, Mrs. Pennell, Mrs. E. P. Dudley, Mrs. Geisler, Miss Bonisteel, and Mrs. Jessup.

The general committee consists of Frank Dudley, chairman, Ruth Dorris, Bert Jerard, Morris Hill, Bryant DeBar, Frank Staiger, Gretchen Sherwood, Mildred Healey.

LEAP YEAR DANCE NEXT

Social Affair Following Oregon-Utah
Debate Causes Cloudburst of Excitement.

A supply of cardboard bearing the pretentious inscription, "Admit gentleman and escort," is being circulated about the varsity campus this week, and judging from the generous number of takers at the popular price of 75 cents, the financial success of the Oregon-Utah Debate and Leap Year Dance is assured.

The Oregon debaters Crockett and Jones are working faithfully perfecting their debate, and familiarizing themselves with the timely and important question of "The Judicial Recall," which is the topic at issue.

Never before in the history of debate at Oregon has interest been shown which compares to the present display over the contest scheduled for Friday, February 23. The Laurean Literary Society has adopted resolutions to attend the debate in a body.

The leap year dance will be an innovation in social affairs at the University. Never before have the women attending varsity functions had the opportunity to "do unto others as they would do unto you."

A number of men who doubt their popularity, have sworn to confine themselves to the balcony, only to venture out under the most flattering inducements.

It has been rumored that various plots along the lines of evening up old scores of cutting dances, etc., have been formulated among the escorts for the evening. The men on the other hand have sworn to stand together and to take advantage of associating with the most popular among their numbers.

Will the person who recently took a rain coat, not belonging to him, from the men's cloak room in the library, please return the coat to the library. No questions will be asked. We want only the coat.

Owner of the coat.
