WEIGHTY MATTERS ARE HANDLED BY CLASSES

Monthly Meetings Produce Wealth of Subjects to be Dealt With.

The Senior class held a sparsely attended meeting today during the assembly hour, in which a committee was appointed to arrange a class hour program and the matter of caps and gowns was discussed.

The committee named Ruth Merrick, Birdie Wise, Raphael Geisler, Emma Waterman and James Johns, will arrange the program for the class hour, which will be held early in April.

The Seniors were urged to order their caps and gowns at once of Bob Kellogg.

The regular monthly meeting of the junior class was held this morning in the Girl's Gym. The report of the treasurer showed the finances of the class to be in a good condition. The Junior Week-End Committee reported that the plans would not be entirely settled until it is known what attractions the athletic manager will provide.

The meeting was then adjourned, and the rest of the hour was given over to an informal dance.

The Sophomore class meeting was held in the chemistry lecture room. A report was made concerning the attitude of the faculty and the student body toward spring election of officers. A favorable report was given and the matter will be definitely settled at the next meeting. It was also decided that the matter of a constitution for the class should be considered and decided at the next meeting. Treasurer Grout gave a short talk and showed the present state of the class finances.

In conclusion it was decided that elections for the editor and manager of the Oregonian should take place at the next meeting.

The weighty matter of finances was taken up by the Frosh in their class meeting this morning. Basketball Manager Ed Dorr gave his report on the outcome of the Washington High game. A deficit of $25 from the game was reported.

With the insight of a Gladstone, Bert Girard gave his report as treasurer. As there was the enormous amount of $10 in the treasurer, a tax of $1 was levied on all members of the class.

GIRLS OF 1912 TO ENTERTAIN THEMSELVES AT FOLLY HALL

The senior meeting of the girls, held on Tuesday afternoon, was attended by a "large and enthusiastic crowd." The senior co-eds decided, that since their college were drawing so near to a close, they would give a party which would be entirely of a suffragette nature.

The massive affair will be given on Friday afternoon at the Folly Dance Hall. Games and stunts of all kinds befitting senior dignity will be the order of the day and not among the least of these attractions will be a rare treat of good "eats." All senior girls are invited to attend and a good time is guaranteed for all.

In a mock nominating convention held at the University of Washington, Theodore Roosevelt received the highest number of student votes with Woodrow Wilson second. W. H. Taft was fifth, with 36 votes. A similar straw vote was taken at Stanford, giving Roosevelt an overwhelming majority. Wilson also was second, Taft third.

The conference of colleges of Kansas have abolished the hammer throw as a regular track event and have substituted the javelin instead.

The University of Michigan is planning to celebrate its 75th anniversary. The celebration will be elaborate and enthusiastic.

Roy W. Merritt, of the Washington State College, resigned his position as editor of the Evergreen, owing to the fact that his duties conflicted with his studies in the college.

TRACK ASPIRANTS HEED SUMMONS OF TRAINER

Big Gathering Hears Plans and Discussion of Prospects for the Coming Season.

At the track meeting held in the gymnasium Monday evening, seventy candidates for this year's team were present, setting a high mark for enthusiasm and numerical attendance.

Trainer Hayward was well pleased with the showing and expressed his urgent desire that the entire squad would turn out and train faithfully during the whole season. Hayward showed that although the prospects are bright this season, six of the best men will not return next year. He explained that the only hope of a creditable team next year is the development of a large number of recruits this season. Oregon has several available first place men, but the team may be woefully weak in second place point winners.

The track stars who will be graduated this year are: Ben Williams, champion pole vaulter; Martin Hawkins, coast champion hurdler; Captain Bob Kellogg, James Johns, McGuire, and Sap Latourette.

Graduate Manager Geary assured the men that in case a local meet was not secured, there would be an interclass meet with cups and medals for winning teams and individual point winners. Among those who have already signed up for track are: Sprinters, Johns, Bean, Fowler, Cass, Hill, Finch, Hawley, and Hendricks; for 440, Johns, Johnson, Boylen; for 880, Huggins, Oberteuffer, Blackaby, Howard, Miller, Gould, and Boylen; for one and two miles, McClure, McGuire, Huggins, Crenshaw, Hardesty, King, Pefley, Evans, Wagner, Cowden, and Pack; for hurdles, Hawkins, Latourette, Oleson, Hill, and Finch; weights, Kellogg, Bailey, Neill, Grout, Black, Glass, Martin, Stenberg, Henderson, and Kronenberg; high jump, Benson, Johnson, Stuller, and Hawkins; Parsons, and Martin; pole vault, Williams, Meek, McCornack, and Anderson.

A number of men have not yet signed up, and when the list is complete, it will undoubtedly be the largest turnout recorded in the history of track at Oregon.

ATTENTION

Alumni of the University of Oregon.

Your Secretary must have a complete card index of the names and addresses of all the Alumni of our Alma Mater at the earliest possible date.

Before you lay aside this issue of the Emerald,—and forget to do it,—take a postcard and write your name and address in the following form:

CONVERSE, CHARLES WILLARD,
645 Hilyard Street,
Eugene, Oregon,

and mail it to me.

Any lady, who has married since graduation, will please give her maiden name in this form:

Parker, Mrs. Viola (Wade).

If your address is permanently changed, immediately drop me, or whoever may be Secretary, another postcard, and it will be substituted for the old one.

This seems to be the simplest and the only method whereby the Alumni Register can be kept up to date, and thereby make sure that you will receive the Emerald and other communications with certainty.

Please do not put the matter off, but DO IT NOW.

C. W. CONVERSE,
645 Hilyard Street,
Eupene, Oregon.

Notice.

Remember, that all your County Fair stunts and side shows must be submitted to Ruth Beach before March 5 for consideration.

FROSH TEAM PURSUES NEW PATHS OF GLORY

Eight Players and Manager to Take Week-end Trip Playing Albany and Portland.

Under the sanction of the powers that be, the freshman manager, Eddie Dorr, is planning a week-end tour for his team, with Albany and Portland as the objective points. The game with Albany High will be played at the Alco Club, on Friday night, while the return match with W. H. S. will be run off Saturday night at the Portland Y. M. C. A. gym.

According to the communications received by Manager Dorr, expenses will be guaranteed by the Washington High student body, and $35 over and above actual expenses is offered by the Albany management. Efforts will probably be made to secure week-end railroad rates in order to minimize expenditures as much as possible.

Because of the liberal proposals made by the two prep schools, it has been planned to take eight men and the manager on the trip. Bigby, Apperson, and Russell Brooks will probably be the subs taken.

Elsie Bain has been in Albany over the week-end.

Tom Word visited friends in Portland over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton have been guests of their son, Carl, over the week-end.

Mildred Bagley has returned from Salem, where she attended the Ragan-Ludlaw wedding.

Chester Moore and Ralph Moores went to Salem to attend the Ragan-Ludlaw wedding.
