PROMINENT Y. M. OFFICIALS WILL LECTURE IN EUGENE

The students of the University will have an opportunity to hear one of the leaders of the Young Men's Christian Association of America, next Thursday evening, when the regular meeting will be addressed by Mr. J. C. Robbins, of New York city, who will speak on the subject, "Decisions we have to make."

Mr. Robbins is a traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement. He is on his way to Pacific Grove, California, to attend the conference of the college Y. M. C. A.'s of that state.

At the request of Mr. Robbins, the regular Y. M. C. A. meeting has been turned into a joint gathering of both men and women of the University. The meeting will be held in Dr. Schmidt's room in Deady Hall. It will dismiss promptly at 7:50. Manager Geary has promised not to call the basketball game before 8 o'clock, thus preventing any interference with the meeting.

Lookout for Wilson!

When Harvard was winning the football games, Roosevelt, a Harvard man, was made president. When the tide turned toward Yale, Taft, a Yale man, was elected to that office. Now that Princeton is winning everything on the gridiron, it presages the election of Woodrow Wilson, a Princeton man, to the presidency.—College Life.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE IS SAVED BY WOMEN and Wilson in third, though both bodies gave Roosevelt a plurality. The faculty vote for president was, Roosevelt 13, Taft 10, and Wilson 6, Taft ran closer to Teddy in among the men, receiving 81 to T. R.'s 90, while Woodrow got 56.

On the question of Single Tax and the Judicial Recall the co-eds followed out the policy of "when in doubt, say no," and rejected both measures.

On the question of equal suffrage the faculty vote was 31 for and 4 against. The masculine student vote on the same measure was 99 for and 174 against. The single tax, the faculty voted down, and were evenly divided on the Judicial Recall, 16 to 16. Contrary to expectations the faculty strongly supported Student Self Government, 25 to 9, the co-eds favored this measure, 144 to 20.

The compulsory subscription to the Emerald measure, in courtesy to the staff, was carried, although the co-eds were more antagonistic than either faculty or the men.

The co-eds voted 120 for and 45 against, and the faculty were 20 to 10 for the Honor System in Examinations.

The faculty strongly supported the Missouri Grading System, and the Two Hour Examination Schedule, while the co-eds landed on the new grading system with their little hammers, but passed the two hour examination schedule, 116 to 55.

Others refused to vote on certain measures, and one feminine ballot was found by the judges with a single X on it and that opposite "No" on the Woman's Suffrage measure.

FRESHMAN CLASS HOUR PROGRAM DECIDED HIT

"Frosh Trio" Warble Over An Extensive Range—Rag Time Forced Upon Grand Piano.

The class of '15, otherwise known as "Frosh," put on an entertaining bill for their vaudeville show in Villard Hall this morning.

"Prexy" Finch presided in regal state and led off with a touching eulogy of the flock which it is his privilege to shepherd. Miss Mildred Healy followed with a piano solo which was received. A reading, entitled, "His Wedded Wife," was effectively rendered by Miss Beulah Stebno.

The next act was a miracle of melody perpetrated by the "Freshman Trio," composed of Dickson, Grady, and Jerard, with the accent of Jerard. Their first selection moved the audience to tears, and they graciously responded with an encore number. Hardesty then addressed the multitude on the subject of "Freshmen Rights," continuing the line of argument advanced by President Finch and indulging in several near-flights of eloquence and excursions into the realms of would-be wit and fancy. Although his wit was "dry," his humor was "bubbling," but up to the hour of going to press, he was still at large.

The program was concluded by Apperson and Young in an assault upon the keyboard, and they responded to an encore with the intermezzo from the "Red Rose." In conclusion the Freshman trio sang "My Oregon," with the audience joining in on the chorus by request, after which the spectators filed out well pleased.
