ORATORICAL LEAGUE WILL NOT ENLARGE

Whitman, W. S. C., and O. A. C. Not to be Admitted, According to League President.

Although it has been expected that the interstate oratorical contest, which is to be held at Missoula, Montana, on the twenty-fifth of May, would be enlarged by the entrance of three more schools, namely Whitman, W. S. C., and O. A. C., a recent communication received from the president of the league, A. S. Wells, of Montana, precludes the possibility of any new entries and the league will remain in its present form for this year at least.

Montana has been strongly in favor of admitting the two Washington applicants for league membership, but Oregon has refused to countenance their admittance unless O. A. C. be also admitted, on the ground that if Whitman and W. S. C. were taken in, it would show unfair discrimination against Oregon. In President Wells' letter, however, he gives Montana's vote as being unfavorable to O. A. C. on the ground of expense.

Since a unanimous vote in a case of this kind is required by the constitution of the league, this brings matters to a deadlock, and unless Montana re-considers her decision, no new colleges will be taken in this season.

JUDGE BRYSON'S CANDIDACY INTERESTS ENTIRE VARSITY

Judge Roscoe S. Bryson, of the class of '99, is now up before the people of Lane County as the Republican nominee for the office of Sheriff.

While in college, Mr. Bryson was a prominent athlete, as well as an excellent student. He played quarterback on the Northwest championship team of 1895.

"Rick," as the alumni know him, say that he could dip into any phase of forensics or athletics and make good.
After graduating from the University he studied law at Columbia and later began practice at Pendleton. After his two years residence at that city, he settled in Eugene, where he was recorder for six years.

Because of the fearlessness and fairness of his decisions, the people of Eugene consider Judge Bryson a capable public official. It has been through his untiring efforts that Eugene has been rid of the bootlegging industry.

Mrs. Kuykendall entertained the Tri Deltas at her home on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Gertrude McElfresh, of Corvallis, is the guest of Miss Pearl Horner at the Tri Delta house.

OREGON'S HALL OF FAME

Column Devoted to Reviewing Careers of Oregon Graduates, who Have and Are Making Good. Compiled by Prof. John Straub.

The class of '81 counts among its numbers two of the most prominent ministers of the Pacific Coast. Rev.
Clayborne Milton Hill, President of the Pacific Theological Seminary, is today recognized as one of the strongest men in the Baptist Church. Clay-borne A. Woody is another Baptist minister, whose influence is strongly felt in his denomination and throughout the whole State. He is also Superintendent of the Baptist Home Missions.

Hon. C. W. Condon, of the class of '82, and son of Prof. Thos. Condon, formerly of the University, stands out as one of the strong men of the State. He has always been interested in politics and is recognized as one of Oregon's leading politicians. At present, he is editor-in-chief of the Pasadena Daily News.

The late Arthur L. Frazier, of the same class, was one of the prominent men of his day. He is recognized as having been one of the ablest jurists of his time, and without doubt the best known in the State of Oregon.
His line of activity was chiefly in juvenile court work, where he did work that can only be classed with such as that of men like Judge Lindsay.

Chester A. Miller is another who has come from the class of '82. He is a prominent attorney of Eastern Washington and at present Judge of the Supreme Court, Washington.

Also Chas. S. Williams is well deserving of mention. He stands out as a prominent manufacturer and business man of Eugene. He has always been interested in local affairs and in the development of the West.

There are three men who stand out prominently from the class of '83. John N. Goltra, a well known physician of Illinois, has been prominent as a lecturer and writer on medical subjects. He is considered an authority on medicine. William Mount is recognized as the best judge in Washington and at present fills the position of Judge of the Washington Superior Court. Woodson T. Slater, on the Bench at Salem, is principal attorney for Oregon in the case of the University vs. Parkinson.

The Stanford debaters, K. E. Leib and C. E. Close, have been staying at the Delta Sig House. They return home tonight.

Misses Chloe Stanfield and Katherine Carson will remain several weeks longer at the Gamma Phi house. Miss Pearl McKenna will return to her home in Portland in a day or so.
