

GOLF HANDICAP TOURNAMENT PROGRESSES

Finals for Open Tournament to be Played Today Between Prescott and Dearborn.

The several golf tournaments, although rather slow in starting, are now progressing rapidly and will be finished in a few weeks. The finals in the men's open tournament for the Laraway cup will be played Saturday afternoon in the form of a triangular match between Bert Prescott, Professor Dearborn, and McCormack. There is great interest shown over the outcome of this match, as both players are experts and may probably lower the record for the course during their play.

The drawings and handicaps in the men's handicap tournament, for possession of the H. D. Smartt cup, have been announced by the committee. In order that the play may not interfere for too long a time in other spring sports, the contestants have been urged to play off their matches at once. Those failing to play off after a reasonable time will forfeit to the next contestant. The committee in handicapping has divided the players into seven classes, according to the number of holes received in the matches. A "scratch" man playing against a "3," "4," "5," "6," or "7" man will give his opponent a corresponding number of holes. A "4" man will give a "5," "6," or "7" man respectively 1, 2 or 3 holes. The play will be match play for 18 holes, instead of counting the total score. Several matches have already been completed, and if all the contestants play promptly, the finals will be reached by next Saturday.

Entries for the women's handicap tournament close April 1, and play will begin immediately. The winner in this tournament will get her name engraved upon the Luckey cup, and there promises to be much competition for this honor among the co-eds. Miss Stuart and some of her proteges have been observed recently, chasing the elusive white sphere over the meadows, and it is understood that several world beaters have been developed.

"ESSENTIALS OF HEALTH" IS NEW Y. M. C. A. COURSE

Secretary Koyle, of the Y. M. C. A., has announced the organization of a new class for college men to make a careful study of "The Essentials of Health and Strength." Requests have come for several months. Requests have come from numerous sources both in the faculty and student body for such a course. Through the help of Professor Sweetser and some of the leading physicians of the city, it has finally been arranged.

The first meeting of the class will be on Tuesday evening, April 2, from 7:00 to 8:00, in Professor Sweetser's room in Deady Hall. Dr. Beardsley will lecture to the class at this time on the subject of Personal Hygiene. The subsequent meetings, which will occur on every Tuesday evening (excluding spring vacation), in the same room, will be addressed by Professor Sweetser, Dr. Comings, Dr. Gullion, Dr. Edmunds, and perhaps Dr. Taylor.

This course is to be entirely educational in its nature. It is open to all men of the University. No text book will be required.

Grace Brown is visiting her parents in Salem this week-end.

Madge Hamilton is in Eugene from her school at Ada, Oregon.

CO-ED TENNIS WITH WASH. NOW ASSURED

Prospects Good for Winning Annual Match With U. of W. Co-eds in May.

At a meeting of the Tennis Club in Prof. De Cou's room, Thursday, several important matters were considered. Negotiations with the University of Washington have been completed and a tennis tournament between the co-eds of the two institutions is now assured. Tryouts to determine Oregon's team will take place about the last week of April and the tournament will probably be held sometime during Junior week-end. A squad of five will be chosen, from which the three best players, who will represent Oregon in the tournament, will be picked by a committee composed of Miss Perkins and the members of the men's varsity tennis team.

Several probable contenders for the squad are: Frances Adams, Bess Cowden, Norma Graves, Agnes McLaughlin, Ruth Beach, Maude Beals, Eleanor McClain, Hazel Rader, and Jenny Fry.

Mildred Bagley, manager of tennis, when interviewed on Oregon's chances in the coming tournament with Washington, was very optimistic and said: "There is no reason why the Oregon Co-eds should not put out a championship team this spring. We have abundant material and many of the girls have had considerable experience. Places on the team are by no means cinched and every co-ed should get out and try."

At the meeting Thursday it was also decided to hold another elimination tournament for the Dr. Stuart cup, and to have a tournament for inexperienced players.

A handsome cup has been offered by the club for the winner of this event. The courts have been set aside for the use of club girls only, between 4 and 6 P. M. daily.

DEUTSCHER CLUB WILL STAGE "JUGENDLIEBE"

"Jugendliebe," a German comedy by Johann Henckel, is the name of the play to be given by the German Club, sometime before Junior week-end.

Miss Busch and Prof. Koehler have the annual "Deutscher" production in charge, which will be staged in Villard Hall this year. The proceeds will be used to further the interests of the club.

The cast selected is as follows:
 Frau von Rosen.....
Miss Rachel Applegate
 Adelheid, her niece.....
Miss Lila Sengstake
 Ferdinand von Bruck...Homer Maris
 Heinrich Roller.....
Vernon Motschenbacher
 Hildebrand, the gardner.....
Chester Kronenberg
 Betty, the daughter...Amy Rothschild

EUTAXIANS WILL DISCUSS IMMIGRATION PROBLEM

The Eutaxian Literary Society, at its next meeting, Tuesday evening, at 7:00 o'clock, in Dr. Schafer's room, will discuss the immigration problem. Emma Waterman will give a talk on "A Day at Ellis Island," and Lena Newton will speak concerning "Foreign Life in America."

A debate, "Resolved that immigration to the United States should be further restricted by law," will follow. The affirmative will be supported by Flora Dunham and Lucille McQuinn; the negative by Birdie Wise and Ruth Merrick.

The membership capacity of the Eutaxians has been enlarged, and those who desire to become members are requested to hand their names either to Lena Newton or Lenore Hanson.

Miss Josephine Meissner, of Seaside, President of Gamma Beta district of Kappa Alpha Theta, is a guest at the Theta house.

Mrs. Roth, of Erie, Penn., Grand President of Kappa Kappa Gamma, has been visiting the Gamma Delta Gamma house.
