

SUMMER SCHOOL LIFE OFFERS BIG VARIETY

In Addition to Regular Studies, Nine
Day Chautauqua Course
May Be Given

Dr. Schaefer, speaking of the coming term of Summer School, predicts the largest attendance and the most notable gathering of instructors and lecturers in the history of the University. The attendance will consist chiefly of teachers, and students making up college credits, though a great many others have already signified their intention of coming, attracted by the excellence of the curriculum.

In addition to the program offered by the University, the local Commercial Club plans to hold a nine-day Chautauqua Assembly on the campus during the term of the Summer School. According to the plans already arranged, such men as Rev. Dr. Aked, of San Francisco, Thomas N. Carver, of Harvard, John Mitchell, President of the Federation of Miners, and others of equal note, will be presented during the midday session, while a musical program will be given every evening. If the Chautauqua Assembly is secured, the University will provide camping grounds on or near the campus for the convenience of families desiring to attend.

Some of the instructors and lecturers thus far secured for the Summer School are:

Dr. Grant Showerman, of the University of Wisconsin, Roman Life, Life, Literature and Ideals; Dr. A. A. Berle, Intensive Training of Children; Professor Seldon L. Whitcomb, of the University of Kansas, English Literature; Dr. Grant Smith, Biology and Nature Study; Professor Rebec, of Michigan, Pedagogy and Esthetics; Professor Richard Burton, of Minneapolis, Special Literature Themes; Dr. John W. Boyd, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Portland, Ministerial Efficiency.

Besides these and the regular corps of University instructors, there will be at different periods lectures by the various county school superintendents and by Ex-Superintendent Ackerman and State Superintendent Alderman, on Rural School Supervision.
