

$5.60 TOTAL COST OF JUNIOR WEEK FESTIVAL

O. A. C. Meet Saves Deficit From Rising to Heights of Previous Years.

"The Student Body was able to entertain the several score of high school athletes, and carry on the various activities that made Junior week-end at an expense of five dollars and sixty cents."

This is the difference from a financial view point, between the income and the outgo of last week's festivities. The O. A. C.-Oregon track meet, which demanded an original guarantee of one hundred dollars, cleared over five hundred. The cost of railroad transportation and lodging for the preppers approximated eight hundred dollars in itself.

The total expenditure in connection with Saturday's meet was nine hundred and sixty-one dollars and twenty-five cents, while the total receipts were four hundred and twenty dollars and seventy cents. This shortage of nearly five hundred dollars was more than covered by the profits on the meet with O. A. C. The balance, however, was not quite enough to cover a forty dollar deficit on the two baseball games with Washington State. Graduate Manager Geary, however, is well satisfied with the results of the week-end, and, considering the advertising we received, holds that the $5.60 was a mighty good investment.

The following is an itemized account of the finances of the week-end:

DESCRIPTIVE BULLETIN FOR SUMMER SCHOOL APPEARS

The Summer School bulletins are now out and a limited number of them are available for distribution at the office.

An increase in faculty and in courses offered over the 1911 sessions is evident from the catalogue of the summer school.

Among the different departments, new courses are offered in the Theory and Practice of Gymnastics and School and Personal Hygiene, by Dr. Stuart. Lectures on Roman Life, Literature and Ideals, by Dr. Showerman, of the University of Wisconsin.

Other special courses will be given in the department of music by Mr. G. C. Buehrer, of Stanford University, by Dr. A. A. Berle, on the Intensive Education of Children, a series of lectures on the Study of Nature in Town and Country Schools, by Prof. Grant Smith, of the Chicago Teacher's College.

Drs. George Rebec, of the University, and S. L. Whitcomb, of Kansas University, will lecture on Aesthetics and American Nature Essayists respectively, while a Mother's Congress and a number of lectures by Dr. Burton on popular subjects will be features of the six week's course.

NOTICE

The Y. M. C. A. Stag Picnic up the Mill Race has been postponed to Saturday afternoon and evening, instead of Friday, as previously stated. The crowd will assemble at the Dorm about 4 o'clock, and from there proceed up the race. A good time is assured for all, including eats and swimming.

Window Attracts Attention.

A window display, emblematic of the friendly relations now existing between O. A. C. and Oregon, is attracting attention at the Obak cigar store. Intertwined pennants, a dove of peace and the grave of "A Hatchet, Nov., 1910, May, 1912," are features of the Obak display. A basketball, labeled "Forgotten," reposes in the background, while footballs, used in previous struggles, are shown.

Among the week-end guests at the Theta house were Misses Louise Burns, Polly Conly, Lora Cummings, Katherine Holbrook, Caroline Seal, and Clementine Lambert, of Portland.
