

WANT MORE TEACHERS

Outlying High Schools Send Urgent Request to Prescott for U. of O. Graduates.

Four more University graduates and undergraduates have been elected to State High School positions. Those recently appointed are C. Payne Shangle, '10, principal of Richland High School, at a salary of $125 a month, Imogen McKowan, '12, German and English departments, Eugene High School; Grace Adams, history and English departments, Clatskanie, $80 a month; Emma Belat, '11, German and English, Bandon High School.

The University appointments committee is experiencing difficulty in filling a number of urgent positions. Anyone desiring to teach any of the following subjects, should make his wishes known to Bert Prescott. The positions for which teachers are urgently wanted are as follows:

Teacher of Latin, English, Mathematics, Willamette Valley town, salary about $70. Teacher of commercial subjects, with two classes in German, Eastern Oregon town, salary about $90.

Teacher of eighth grade, and Mathematics and Physics in High School, Eastern Oregon town, salary about $90.

Commercial teacher, Eastern Oregon town, salary probably $85 or $90.

Teacher of seventh and eighth grades, Columbia River town.

Commercial teacher, Eastern Oregon town, salary $75.

Teacher Physics, Bookkeeping, Mathematics, Willamette Valley town, salary $70.

Statistics have been arranged showing the standing of the various states in the number of colleges and universities enrolled and the number of students enrolled. The first column gives the number of universities and colleges, the second the number of institutions saving an enrollment of over 2,000, the third the number of students.

ENTRIES FOR LARAWAY CUP CLOSE MONDAY NIGHT

Entries for the men's handicap tennis tournament for the Laraway cup will close Monday night and the committee in charge is desirous of having as many entries as possible. Those wishing to sign up will find the entry list posted on the bulletin board at the south end of the concrete court.

This contest was inaugurated in 1910, when Payne Shangle, '10, was victorious. Last year the cup was won by Dr. Mitchell.

The Lambda Rhos gave a picnic breakfast up the race Saturday morning.

TENNIS TEAM LOSES

Washington Trio Take Two Out of Three Matches with U. of O. Representatives.

Washington university tennis representatives, who are all freshmen, took two of the three matches with the Oregon trio yesterday at Seattle. Stine, the only veteran on the team, defeated Captain Hart, 6-4, 6-3, while Adams had less trouble in defeating Yaden, their score being 6-2, 6-2.

The hardest match of the tournament was between Shannon, of Washington, and Irwin Brooks. Shannon won the first set 7-5, but the second was forced to deuce nine times, the final score being 16-14.

Today the championship will be settled, when Stine and Brooks meet Shannon and Hart in two sets of doubles. Oregon's representatives will return with the track Sunday night.

Pacific University's magnificent new library is practically completed, and will be ready for the beginning of school next fall.

Iowa has a college press association composed of the editors of the daily, weekly and monthly college publications in the state.

The women play with the regulation balls, mitts and bats that are used in the men's games. The field used is smaller, however, and the coeds seldom use a mask, although one is included in the equipment for any that wish it.

In the recent dual track meet between Harvard and Yale, in which the wearers of the blue were defeated by a score of 71-33, Cable, the negro athlete of Harvard, was the individual star. This defeat was the worst in the history of track meets between the two institutions.

The women of the University of Washington are playing a series of baseball games to determine the coed class championship. Only three classes will enter the race this year, the senior class, which has won the championship three successive years not entering this season.

With O. A. C. yet to play the Washington State College baseball team still expects to land up high in the percentage column at the end of the season. So far, the Pullman ball chasers have not played a sin and it is to this, to a large degree, that they attribute their defeats this season.

The Young Men's Christian Associations of the University of Idaho and the Washington State College held their annual halfway meeting, along the O. W. R. & N. track midway between Moscow and Pullman, Sunday afternoon. About thirty men from W. S. C. and twenty from the Idaho Y. M. attended the gathering. Gale Seaman, Coast Secretary, also attended the meeting.

In an unusually quiet election, the students at the University of Idaho elected the following officers for the coming year: Proctor Perkins was elected President of the student body over C. E. Watts by a large majority; Ralph Foster was elected vice president; Miss Mary Petcina, secretary; Parker Lucas, treasurer; R. D. Bristol, editor of the University Argonaut; Miss Gladys Lessinger, associate editor Argonaut; and Roy Tuttle, business manager of the Argonaut.

Two games have already been scheduled for the beginning of next week with the Oregon Agriculturists, and owing to the fact that Gonzaga will not meet the Corvallis team on their trip north, a rival game with W. S. C. may be substituted. An effort, also, will be made by the Washington State management to bring the Oregon team up for a three-game series June 5, 6, and 7, that being the time of the big military encampment at that institution. If successful in these games, Washington still hopes to get the championship.
