

FRATERNITY AND CLUB TRACK TALENT TO MEET

Eight Teams of Five Picked Men to Represent Various Organizations in Meet.

The entries for the first annual interfraternity track meet next Saturday have been handed in by the eight competing organizations, and they are as follows:

Sigma Nu—Benson, Parsons, McCormack, Chandler, and Hal Bean.

Kappa Sigma—Cobb, Manly, Bean, Heusner, and Ford.

Acacia—Reynolds, Skei, J. Williams, Epperly, and Heidenreich.

Sigma Chi—Briedwell, Fowler, Hawkins, Jamison, and Watson.

Phi Gam—Fisher, Grant, Gray, Hill, and Meeks.

Dorm—King, Zimmerman, Cass, Kronenberg, and Sidwell.

Avavia—Morton, Bigbee, McCall, Bradshaw, and Pefley.

Tawah—Peet, Siglan, Annunsen, Nitschkie, and Houston.

Each team is limited to five men and all the regular track events will be run off, including a relay, for which a silver cup will be given to the winner.

Laraway, the Eugene jeweler, has donated a beautiful trophy cup, which will be held for one year by the team annexing the greatest number of points in the competition.

No man for any organization is allowed to compete, who has won the official letter on the varsity track. This ruling was made in accordance with the spirit of the interfraternity games, which prohibits first class varsity talent from competing against the more inexperienced men.

Spirited competition and creditable records are assured in the contest scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

Girls Will Wind May-Pole

Dr. Stuart reports that there are about eighty girls practicing for the May-Pole dance, which will take place Tuesday afternoon of Commencement week. This custom is held at many of the universities throughout the country and has proved especially successful at Washington, Wisconsin and Michigan. Dr. Stuart is planning to increase the features of the dance, as well as the number of participants, and to make this one of the big features of Commencement week. It will be held on the campus near the pond.

SUFFRAGE CLUB THRIVES

Birdie Wise Will Represent Oregon at Suffrage Banquet in Portland, June 7.

At the regular meeting of the University Equal Suffrage Club, held last night, plans were laid for the remainder of the year and the future of the organization discussed.

Birdie Wise was elected to represent the club at the Suffrage Banquet, which is to be held in Portland on Friday, June 7, and plans were made for a lecture, which will be delivered by Prof. Howe on June 5, at 8 P. M., in Prof. Shafer's room.

The prospects for next year appear bright. Throughout the year, a number of prominent speakers, both men and women, are to address the club, and plans are also being made for one open meeting on the campus, to which everyone interested in this question will be invited. Active interest is being displayed on every hand, and it is earnestly hoped that by next year a much larger percentage of the women of the University will be enrolled in the organization.

DEUTSCHERS FROLIC AT LAST MEETING

The German Club held its last meeting of the year at the Men's Dormitory last evening. All the members came dressed in German costume, and it seemed as though Germany had come down from the map and was taking possession of the Dorm. After a short business meeting, a very interesting program was enjoyed. Elizabeth Busch gave a humorous address, followed by a vocal solo by Alfred Skei. Vernon Motchenbacher and Jerry Martin were presented in a humorous sketch, in which several very choice parodies were sung. There costumes were especially realistic. The program was concluded by a German folk dance, in which the following took part: Ellice Shearer, Alfred Skei, Maud Mastik, Vernon Motchenbacher, Lucia Macklin, Chester Kronenberg, Mabel Lawrence, Jerry Martin. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Refreshments were a fitting conclusion of it all.

Mr. and Mrs. Huggins came down from Hood River to spend Wednesday with their son Chester at the Alpha Tau Omega house.

Ray Murphy, ex-13, who has been teaching at Haines this winter, arrived in Eugene Monday. He will stay several days.
