SOPHOMORES FIRST TO ELECT NEW OFFICERS

A Host of Office Seekers Appear in Class Election—Constitution
Adopted

Wednesday at 4:00 o'clock the present Sophomore class held a meeting in McClure Hall and elected as their officers for the Junior year: President, Delbert Stannard; Vice President, Lucia Macklin; Secretary, Maud Mastick; Treasurer, Colton Meek; Member at Large, Bob Bradshaw; Sergeant at Arms, Woo Sun.

The race for President was close and exciting. There were four candidates in all who desired to head the Junior class. Delbert Stannard, who was elected, was nominated by Bradshaw; Williamson nominated Harold Young; Viereck nominated Wallace Benson; and Collier nominated Peter Crockett. Stannard and Young ran a fairly even race in the first count, but the dropping of Benson and Crockett from the list in the second ballot gave Stannard a majority.

Three candidates, Lucia Macklin, Rose Basler and Ethel Risley, were out for the Vice Presidency. Lucia Macklin won out on the second ballot. Maud Mastick was elected Secretary over Flora Dunham, her only opponent. There were three candidates for Treasurer, with the race between Meek and Huggins. Bob Bradshaw was elected Member at Large of the newly created class executive committee, over Peet, his only opponent. Woo Sun was unanimously chosen Sergeant-at-Arms.

After a lengthy discussion, the class adopted a constitution framed by a committee appointed for that purpose, yet not until they had rejected the provision which would have made it necessary for the manager of the Oregon to obtain the consent of the executive committee before an expenditure of forty dollars was made.

TEACH TEACHERS TO TEACH AGRICULTURE IN SCHOOLS

Prof. E. D. Ressler, of O. A. C., ex-president of the Monmouth Normal School, is director of the Summer School for the training of teachers in agriculture, which will be held in Corvallis this summer.

The state now requires that agriculture be taught in the 7th and 8th grades of every public school, but the course has never amounted to much because the teachers were not familiar with the subject matter. This summer school is especially designed to get teachers for teaching agriculture to the grades mentioned.

Boosting Panama-Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—The "Flying Legion" of the San Francisco Commercial Club plans to visit British Columbia in August next to exploit the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. A special train is to be provided to carry one hundred prominent citizens, and it is expected that Mayor Rolph and President Charles C. Moeke, of the Exposition, will head the party. The visit is international in its scope and it is expected that Canadian government will be prevailed upon to make a big exhibition at the coming World's Fair.
