CLASS MIX OCCUPIES
JUNIORS' ATTENTION

COMMITTEES APPOINTED TO STAGE EVENT

Unauthorized Sign on Skinner's Butte
Is Ordered Taken
Down.

A special meeting of the Junior class was held yesterday in Deady hall in order to complete preliminary arrangements for the Annual Freshman-Sophomore mix.

It was definitely decided that Saturday, the twenty-eighth of this month, was the most feasible date for the contest and, unless some hitch occurs in the negotiations for the push-ball, the two rival classes will clash that afternoon. President Stannard, who has been conducting the negotiations for the huge spheroid, announced that this part of the affair was progressing favorably.

A committee of five was appointed by the president to conduct the tangle for the Juniors. Wallace Benson was put in charge of the pushball contest.
He will make the complete arrangements for conducting this event. Bob Bradshaw will stage the track and field events, selecting several assistants to handle the embryonic sprinters.

Dutch Young will head a committee who will judge the respective merits of the two classes as to lung capacity and originality shown in costumes and decorations. Turpening will conduct the tug-of-war, and Charles Fowler will see that the field officials are properly tagged and numbered. These men will all have the power of enlisting aid, and most of the upperclassmen will undoubtedly be asked to act in the capacity of "cops" and detectives, according to the precedent set by Jamison's band.

It was also decided that the "14" sign, which stands above the "O" on Skinner's Butte, should be removed.
The sign is painted in yellow on the base of the old building above the "O." The Junior class of the University did not authorize the placing of their numeral, so in fairness to themselves and to the University ordered it removed.

MORE BUYERS WANTED FOR SEASON TICKETS

The campaign launched by Graduate Manager Geary for the selling of season tickets, good for admission to all inter-collegiate athletic and forensic contests held on the campus, is not progressing as rapidly as was expected. Owing to the rush and excitement of registration, many have passed up the chance of saving seven dollars by taking immediate advantage of this offer. According to Manager Geary, the total of single admission fees to all campus attractions scheduled to take place the coming year would be nearly twelve dollars, and as the season ticket is selling for $5.00, it is thought that as soon as this fact becomes generally understood, there will be a heavy run on the box-office.

All students will have a chance to obtain this reduction, and those not discovered by a member of the ticket selling squad, are urgently requested by the management to report at Geary's headquarters in the men's gym.

Lists, to be signed by prospective buyers, have been sent to the different fraternities and sororities, and posted throughout the various college buildings.

Kellogg Coaches Preppers.

Bob Kellogg, '12, varsity track captain, football center, Glee Club man, and Senior President, who is now city engineer at Junction City, has been selected by the High School football team of that place as their coach.

The youngsters have for the first time a full fledged college man for instructor in the rudiments of the game.

Kellogg has been employed in Junction City all summer.
