

STUDENTS PETITION FACULTY FOR O. A. C. GAME AT CORVALLIS

NOVEMBER TWENTY-THIRD IS
DATE FOR POSSIBLE CONTEST WITH AGGIES

COACHES AND PLAYERS WANT GAME

Sentiment on Campus is for Concession, Although Game Should be Here.

Henry Fowler, backed by the alumni coaches, a number of prominent students, Trainer Hayward, and Graduate Manager Geary, is circulating a petition among the students asking for permission from the faculty to schedule a football game with the Agricultural College at Corvallis on November 23. The Agricultural College should bring its eleven to Eugene this year, but have been favoring the scheduling of the game in Portland. The faculty of the University instructed Manager Geary last April, when athletic relations were renewed, that an extra game could be added to Oregon's schedule, which already contained the full number of games generally allowed, only if it were played on the home campus. Manager Pilkington, of the Agricultural College, refused to sign a contract of this nature at that time, and there has been a deadlock over the game since.

Faculty Objections Now Invalid.

"The Oregon team will travel 2,600 miles this fall in making the four trips that its schedule calls for," said Carlton Spencer, President of the Student Body, this morning.

"Accordingly, the Faculty's refusal to allow an additional trip to Portland seemed reasonable, especially considering that the date of the proposed game with the Agricultural College comes just five days before the Thanksgiving recess, when a majority of the students will be in Portland. The inference of the faculty was that many of the students would skip classes for the few days intervening and badly demoralize the college work.

"The same arguments that set the Faculty against the playing of the game in Portland, do not stand against the proposal to stage the game at Corvallis. The team and the students can go to and from Corvallis in the same day. The railroad fare will not be a burden upon the individual students. Also there will no incentive for the skipping of classes."

Walker Favors Sportmanship.

Captain Walker says: "It is our turn to have the game, but if the selection of Eugene is going to prevent the game being played, I think that the University would show good sportsmanship in allowing Corvallis to have it."

"Harmonious relations between the two student bodies should not be interfered with by such a trivial matter as where the game is to be played this year. If the game goes to Corvallis, it will be our turn to choose the location next year. I hope that the faculty will grant the petition."

Gordon Moores, assistant football coach, says: "The alumni of the University become the best of friends with the graduates of the Agricultural College when out of college. I have played along side of them on the Multnomah team, and find them good sports. The student body that shows itself to be the more anxious for har-

DEBATE IS UNDER WAY

Disciples of Demosthenes Will Demonstrate Ability in Forthcoming Try-out.

The Tri-state Debating League promises to announce the subject for the next contest by October 15.

Oregon will submit the topic of Immigration; those to be contributed by the other colleges concerned, have not yet been reported.

The specific wording of the proposition will be decided upon as soon as a vote has been taken among those institutions. The question under discussion in the Triangular debate with Stanford and Washington, will also be employed in the forensic strife with Utah, the side of the argument to be chosen by that college.

Oregon has arranged an extensive system of tryouts, so planned that the final team of four to six men will be chosen by Christmas vacation. Among those who have signified their intention of trying out, are such pioneers as Crockatt, Pickett, Spencer, and Zimmerman. Collier, Hardesty, and Fee, will also participate in the qualifying preliminaries.

Miss Ruth Davis is now wearing a Mu Phi Epsilon pledge pin.

Dr. Anna Shaw, the noted Suffrage Lecturer, was a guest at the Theta house, Thursday. Dr. Shaw is an honorary member of Kappa Alpha Theta and was initiated at Cornell.

The Gamma Delta Gammas were hostesses, Thursday afternoon, at a tea given for their house-mother, Mrs. Cuyler, of Chicago.

CLASS WILL GIVE PLAY

A Greek play, "Clouds of Aristophanes," will be presented by Professor A. R. Reddie's class in Dramatic Interpretation, on November 15. The play is a comedy and will be the first of a series of historical plays to be presented this year by Professor Reddie.

The cast has not yet been selected, but by next week, rehearsals will be under way. Appropriate costumes will be worn, and the play, though of an educational nature, is promised to be entertaining.

mony will gain recognition as being the broader minded."

Trainer Hayward is greatly in favor of the game and states: "The main thing is to have the game played. Newspaper squabbles should be avoided at all hazards, and all disputes amicably settled on the grid-iron."

ECONOMIC STUDENTS WILL AID GOVERNOR IN NEW LEGISLATION

SENIOR RESEARCH WILL FURNISH DATA REQUIRED BY GOVERNOR WEST

MEASURES WILL EMBODY RESULTS

Good Roads, Budget System, Power Development, Are Among Subjects Considered.

Through the aid of the Senior research work in the Department of Economics of the University, Governor West will be guided in the formation of certain legislative measures to be presented by him at the next session of the legislature.

Governor West's plan is to apply economic research to questions of a political and developmental nature that will be embodied in measures that he intends to submit to the next session of the legislature.

Data will be secured concerning the right policy in regard to payment of county officials, and the formation of state budgets, as has recently been adopted in Wisconsin.

Other questions that will be investigated are the constant maintenance of good roads, and the comprehensive development of power resources under the direction of the state.

Governor West will be aided in his plan to adjust the political organization of school districts, city, county and state governments to present day needs through the work of the economic research students.

Wednesday afternoon, Governor West will meet with the head of the economics department to outline his collaboration.

FROSH GET ACQUAINTED

Sophomores Aid in Introduction and Advise Infants as to Their Conduct.

Freshmen, long and lean, Freshmen, short and fat, Freshmen, long and fat, Freshmen, short and lean—all gathered at the Delta Delta Delta house, Friday evening, to become acquainted with each other. They came in ones, twos and threes; timid groups of co-eds; jaunty bare-headed groups of Frosh, who were escorted from the corner to the door by the ever-vigilant Sophomore reception committee, which allowed none of the wearers of the green to conceal their "badges of shame" in the depths of an inside pocket.

The evening was spent in dancing and singing, after which punch was served to all, including the attendant Sophomore reception committee, which waited gallantly to escort the timid ones home and to see that all the boys were provided with caps.

The patrons and patronesses for the evening were: Professor and Mrs. John Straub, Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Miss Ruth Guppy, Mrs. Pennell, Mrs. Parsons, and Miss Bonisteel.

Mr. Rockbridge, a Fiji from Wisconsin, is a guest at the Phi Gama house.

Arthur Van Dusen, '09, has left for Chicago to enter Northwestern University.

EUGENE HOLDS FROSH

Ross and Vickers Star for Eugene—
"Freshmen Good in Spots," Says Hayward.

(By Jimmie Roberts)

Football fans were given an opportunity to see the new rules tried out this afternoon, when the Freshmen downed Eugene High School 10 to 0. The game was devoid of any sensations outside of Cornell's pretty run through a broken field and the consistent ground gaining of Ross, the former Wenatchee star, who did yoman service for the prep team.

The game failed to unearth any particularly brilliant stars among the Freshmen, but it showed the coaches and football fans that the class has a wealth of raw material of varsity calibre. The heavy Freshman line showed up well under fire and opened good holes for the backs.

If today's game may be taken as a criterion for the new rules, it shows that the lighter team still has an even chance. The Freshman outweighed the Eugene team, who were slightly at a disadvantage on this account. The one touchdown scored by the Oregon "Babes," was the result of superior weight and the ability of the babes to average up their two and one-half yards per down.

Bill Hayward voiced his opinion that the Frosh team was good in some spots and poor in others, which summarizes the team's play this afternoon about as correctly as possible.

Both teams failed repeatedly with the forward pass and left the ground gaining to straight football.

GLEE PRACTICES DAILY

Daily practice has been started by the Glee Club, and will be continued during the entire season. Director Bowman and President Kenneth Frazier express themselves as satisfied with the work of the club.

Dean Collins and Burns Powell have yielded to solicitation, having promised the club management that they will concoct a skit for the Glee organization.

The first tenor division will receive another recruit in Bob Fariss, who will resume practice with the club after the football season is over.

Miss Sophia Catlin has returned to her home in Salem, after a visit at the Gamma Phi Beta house.

Professor and Mrs. Reddie were guests at the Mu Phi Epsilon house for dinner, Friday.

Eugene kicked twenty yards to Holden, who came back five yards. Two downs netted five yards, but a forward by Holden failed. He then punted twenty-five yards.

Ross Makes First Gain for Eugene.

Ross, of Eugene, the Wenatchee star, made the first substantial gain for the High School, making twenty yards on first down. Kletzing made a like gain around left end. Eugene gained one yard on end run, but failed at a forward pass. Gray punted twenty-five yards out of bounds, the Freshmen getting the ball.

On the first down there was no gain. Cook tore off three yards over tackle. Ross muffed up Cornell's forward pass, but Gray missed an easy goal from the twenty yard chalk line.

The Frosh took the ball on the ten yard line. Cornell immediately made seventy yards around left end, but two downs resulted in no gain. On the third down, Eugene blocked a forward pass, and took the ball. A Eugene pass was uncompleted.

First Quarter. Score, 7-0.

The Freshmen kicked off to Eugene. Ross gained twenty-five around left end. Gray bucked for 1½ through tackle. Vickers could not gain on the second down. Ross made three yards, followed by Gray, who punted forty-five yards.

Cornell came back twenty-five. Two downs failed to advance the ball, and Holden failed in a forward pass. Burgard took Bigbee's place at left half. He immediately kicked thirty yards.

High School Outplays Freshmen.

Ross returned the ball ten yards, and was followed by Gray, who executed a fake pass for twenty more. The High School team tore the Frosh line to pieces here, making twelve yards on a neat pass, while Gray gained eighteen off tackle. First down, no gain. Vickers fumbled, the '16 team getting the ball. Two downs netted two yards. Hartsuck, who took Cook's place at full, made two yards over tackle. Coshow followed with twelve more, but Burgard was thrown back four. Coshow repeated with four, but Cornell again failed at a forward
