

DRAMATIC CLUB WILL BASK IN SPOTLIGHT

TRYOUTS ARE PLANNED FOR NOVEMBER SEVENTEENTH

Two Productions Will Be Staged—
Club Strives for Higher Standard.

The Dramatic Club held its first meeting at Professor Straub's room in Villard hall last Thursday for the purpose of making arrangements for the coming year, eighteen of the old members being present.

The tryouts for the Dramatic Club will be held in Villard hall, November 17. There are twenty-two vacancies to be filled, and it is believed that the number of applicants will greatly exceed the number of vacancies. The membership committee consists of Miss Burgess, Professor Reddie, Harold Warner, Hilda Brandt, and Vernon Vawter.

There is going to be an attempt made this year to raise the standard of the club, and to remodel it on the type of the eastern dramatic clubs.

Two plays will be given this year at the Eugene Theatre. The first one will take place December 6, and the second during Junior week-end. The intentions are to make the first play of a little heavier variety than has been attempted by the club before. The Junior week-end play will be strictly up-to-date.

Alfred Skei left last night for Portland, where he will visit the various theatre managers and make arrangements for securing costumes and scenery for use later in the year.

The program committee, consisting of Vernon Vawter, chairman, Flora Dunham, and Alfred Skei, is at present engaged in selecting a play and cast.

STANDARD PAPERS APPEAR IN JOURNALISTIC COURSE

Professor Allen has on file in his department, room 1, McClure, copies of over two dozen daily newspapers, provided daily by the library. These are taken to enable the students of journalism to acquaint themselves with the principle publications of the country, their forms of writing, and methods of handling news. Anyone interested, will always have free access to the rooms.

To date the following papers are on hand: The Times, Post, Herald, Word, Journal, and Tribune, of New York; Philadelphia North American, Boston Christian Science Monitor, Chicago Tribune, Chicago Daily News, Kansas City Star, St. Louis Globe-Democrat, San Francisco Call, San Francisco Chronicle, Salt Lake Deseret Evening News, Arizona Republican, Springfield Daily Republican, and the Evening Telegram, Oregonian, and Oregon Journal, of Portland.

Besides the dailies mentioned above, there are smaller papers from all over the state.

GOLFERS MAY OBTAIN NEEDED GYM CREDITS

THAT IS, IF HAYWARD DOES NOT OFFER OBJECTIONS

Three Tournaments Are Outlined by Reorganized Club—Waite and Prescott Head Fans.

Gym credit may be granted by "Bill" Hayward and Dr. Stuart to men and women who drive the little rubber ball over the golf course on College Hill. A meeting for those interested in making this possible, will be called next Monday afternoon, at 4 o'clock in Prof. Schmidt's room in Deady hall.

The purpose of the meeting is to reorganize a Golf Club as a means of furthering general interest in golf and making it a substitute for regular gymnasium work. If the present plan succeeds, a timekeeper will be employed to check off the names of players on his time book and report to the athletic instructors.

Town people will be eligible to membership and may enter one of three tournaments which the club will hold, the remaining two being handicaps for college men and women respectively. A silver cup is offered for the winner of each of these tournaments. It is planned to levy a nominal membership tax to defray the expense of cutting grass and leveling off the course.

Fen Waite and Bert Prescott have the organization in charge, and request that all golfers interested be on hand for the meeting.

Mark S. Wright, of Chicago, who set a new world's record for the pole vault in the Olympic tryouts last spring, has been selected captain of the Dartmouth College track team for 1913. Wright succeeds A. H. Tilly, who died last summer.

PROFESSOR SCHAFER SPEAKS ON HISTORICAL SUBJECTS

Professor Schafer, at the request of the secretary of the Old Fort Dallas Historical Society, at Dallas, delivered two lectures before the annual teachers convention of Sherman and Wasco counties last Wednesday. The lectures as delivered, were on "The Place of Local History in Education," and "The Relation of History to Moral Education."

While there, Professor Schafer visited the old museum at the barracks, in which a number of relics of local interest are on exhibition.

This evening Professor Schafer will speak under the auspices of the Mohawk Grange at Donna, on the subject of "Good Roads," speaking especially concerning the several good road measures to be voted on next month.

Vesper Services Will Not be Given by Y. M. C. A.

The regular Y. M. C. A. cabinet meeting was held in the Book Exchange Wednesday evening.

The cabinet, with suggestions from the advisory board, decided not to take the responsibility of Sunday afternoon vesper services. It is still undecided what will be done in regard to these meetings. Reports from the different committees were given, and several bills were ordered paid.

THE NEW MEN'S SHOP

Opens its doors to the public Monday, October 7th

We extend a cordial invitation to "Varsity" men to come and view this, Eugene's new haberdashery. Living in an age of specialization, we have applied it to every article in the shop. We offer you, after a careful consideration of the mercantile markets, the very best merchandise obtainable at the price without sacrificing quality. And right here, we want to impress on you that "quality" is and will continue to be our keynote. We will not under any circumstances sacrifice quality for price. We are sincere in this statement—you'll recognize this when you have become a patron of this shop.

We have had in mind from the beginning, a shop for college men—their good tastes, their desire for right store service, and their ambition to dress well without extravagance.
