VOTE FOR A CLEAN TOWN

One of the most gratifying facts in connection with the Oregon Electric celebration last Tuesday was the unusual orderliness of the great crowds which thronged the streets of Eugene. During the entire day there was no drunkenness nor rowdiness, and this in view of the fact that hundreds of workmen of the transient class are employed in and about the city. Such could never have been the case in other than a strictly dry town.

Next month the question of keeping it so will again arise. There will be organized efforts to change conditions. The only danger lies in the indifference of those who stand for clean citizenship. There is a big majority of the voters of the vicinity, who stand for a clean town from beginning to end. Unless a feeling of over-confidence prevails, due to years of immunity from the saloon and kindred establishments, there is nothing to fear. But we urge every voter, and especially every student voter, to register his vote next month for a clean Eugene.

Whitman Freshmen have been going with considerable regularity into "lakum duckum," for failure to comply with local customs. The Oregon duck pond, however, has fallen sadly into disuse.

With steam trains running along two sides of the campus, neurasthenia in the faculty is increasingly prevalent.

At the University of Washington Freshmen girls wear green bows. Why not a similar custom at Oregon?

If there is one thing the University needs more than anything else, it is a good student band. The attempt that is being made to reorganize the old Boola band, should receive every encouragement.

EMERALD CARRIERS WILL ANNOUNCE THEIR ARRIVAL

Manager Collier is getting tired of incessant "kicks" on account of missed Emeralds.

To obviate the nuisance, he has provided his carriers with whistles, which will be used to announce their arrival in the evening.

By this means, Mr. Collier hopes to insure better service, and to stop the loss of papers through theft and wind.

Music Hath More Charms for Co-Eds Than Votes.

Owing to the Girl's Glee Club try outs, a quorum could not be obtained for the Women's Suffragette meeting last evening. So far the club has made no plans as to a campaign among the students, but at the next meeting two weeks hence, a plan of action will be discussed and a definite line of campaign decided upon.

Pie, any time, at The Shack.

GOVERNOR WEST SPENT A BUSY DAY ON CAMPUS

Two dinner functions, a conference with prominent business men of Eugene in the morning, a three quarters of an hour address, a meeting with members of the faculty and President Campbell in the afternoon, and an informal call upon a fraternity house, and an early retirement, constituted Governor West's program yesterday. Immediately upon his arrival in Eugene on an early train, he went to his room in a hotel, where he breakfasted, tended to his private correspondence, and received a delegation of Eugene citizens.

The Governor arrived at Villard Hall at exactly 10:20. He was closeted with President Campbell and others who took part in the pledge taking for a brief interval before the exercises began.

At noon he had luncheon at the Chi Omega house. From there he went to a conference with President Campbell and Professor Young, that lasted nearly the entire afternoon. Matters pertaining to his work in shaping legislation, and the assistance being rendered by the Seniors in economic research were discussed.

The evening was occupied with a dinner at the Beth Reah house and an informal call.

Governor West returned to Salem on an early morning train.

LITERATURE ARRIVES PICTURE IS BARRED

A quantity of campaign material has been received by the Wilson Club, which will be distributed at once to the students. Owing to the apparent unfairness of having the picture of only one candidate on the Library bulletin board, the removal of the large Wilson lithograph from that place was ordered by the Library authorities. Only under the condition that Taft and Roosevelt posters were displayed, which as yet have not made their appearance, could the display of Democratic advertising be allowed, they said.

Miss Vera Horner, of Corvallis, is visiting her sister at the Delta Delta house.
