WARNER IS HOPEFUL

With the Dramatic Club try outs taking place Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in Villard Hall, President Harold Warner is optimistic as to the outcome of the new tryout system.
"That we have adopted the Yale system for dramatic tryouts is one step forward," said President Warner.
"Formerly it was possible for the man who had learned 'Horatio at the Bridge,' when he was in grammar school, to win a place. Now this will avail him nothing. Under the new system all plays are selected by the club, and real dramatic ability is able to be recognized more quickly."

Several students have expressed their intention of competing. President Warner hopes that a still larger number will respond.

A student, seventy-four years old, has registered at the University of Kansas.
